C. Answer, That Note Was Extended Without Consent of Surety.

"The defendants, Maple and Carney, for answer to plaintiff's complaint, say that they admit the execution of the note sued on, but say that plaintiff should not recover against them, for they say that they and each of them signed their names to said note as the sureties of their co-defendant Winterrowd, and that the plaintiff knew (and) had notice at the time he received said note. And that afterward, on the 12th day of March, 1867, the plaintiff agreed with the defendant Winterrowd, in consideration that he, Winterrowd, would pay the plaintiff a large sum of money as and for the interest then due upon said note, and the interest in advance for six months next after said date, at the rate of twelve per cent. per annum, that he, the plaintiff, would extend the time of payment of said note for six months from said twelfth day of March, 1867; and these defendants say that for that purpose, the defendant Winterrowd did pay the plaintiff one hundred and seventy-six dollars, and plaintiff agreed with defendant Winterrowd to extend the time for the payment of said note for the space of six months from and after the 12th day of March, 1867, without the knowledge or consent of these defendants, or either of them; wherefore," etc. Hamilton v. Winterrowd, 43 Ind. 393.

Note.—Held sufficient under code to state facts from which the law implies agreement without setting out implied agreement.

D. Answer, That Signing of Note by Surety Was on Condition That Co-surety Sign.

"The defendant, John A. Zaring, for separate answer to the plaintiff's complaint, says that he admits that he signed the note sued on, and mentioned in plaintiff's complaint, but he says that he signed the same solely as surety for his co-defendant, Andrew J. Pough, and under the express understanding and agreement with said Pough that said note was not to be delivered to the plaintiff, or any one for the use of the plaintiff, until one Charles McClintock had also signed said note as co-surety with the defendant, and that said Peugh promised and agreed with this defendant that said note should not be delivered to plaintiff or to any one for plaintiff's use until said McClintock had signed said note as co-surety with the defendant; and that said Peugh thereafter took said note away with him for the purpose of procuring the signature of said McClintock, pursuant to said promise and agreement; but that said McClintock failed and refused to sign said note; and defendant further says that afterward the agent of plaintiff, representing and acting for plaintiff, with full power and authority from plaintiff, took said note from said Peugh, and that said agent took said note with full knowledge of the agreement and conditions under which the defendant had signed the same, and that at the time said agent so took said note, said Peugh informed him that it was not to be delivered to plaintiff, or to any one for plaintiff's use, until said McClintock had signed it as co-surety with this defendant; but, notwithstanding such information and other objection of said Peugh, said agent took said note into his possession, all in violation of the said promise and agreement by and between this defendant and the said Peugh, and with full knowledge of the same, as the defendant is informed and believes. Wherefore, defendant prays that plaintiff take nothing as to him, and judgment for costs, and all other proper relief." Deering Harv. Co. v. Peugh, 17 Ind. App. 400, 45 N. E. 808.

"State of Michigan, County of Marquette, ss.: Probate Court for said County.

"Be it remembered that the annexed and foregoing instrument, being a duly authenticated copy of the last will and testament of Edward C. Wilder, late of the County of New York, in the State of New York, deceased, which was duly allowed, filed, and recorded in said court in pursuance of the decree thereof, of which the foregoing is a true, full, and correct copy.

"In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of said court at the City of Marquette, in said county, this thirty-first day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one. (Seal.)

"Edward S. Hardy,
"Judge of Probate."

Culbertson v. Witbeck, 127 U. S. 326, 8 Sup. Ct. 1136, 32 L. ed. 134.

III. Order Admitting Foreign Will.

"State of Michigan, county of Marquette, ss: At a session of the probate court for the county of Marquette, holden at the probate office in the city of Marquette, on Monday, the thirty-first day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one. Present: Edward S. Hardy, judge of probate. In the matter of the estate of Edward C. Wilder, deceased.

"This day having been appointed by the court for hearing the petition of James E. Dalliba, praying, amongst other things, for reasons therein set forth, that a certain instrument, purporting to be a copy of the last will and testament of said deceased, and the probate thereof, duly authenticated and heretofore presented to this court with said petition, be allowed, filed and recorded. Now come into court the said petitioner and answers, and, it satisfactorily appearing, by due proof on file, that a copy of the order of this court touching the hearing of said petition, made on the seventh day of October last past, had been duly published as therein directed, whereby all parties interested in the premises were duly notified of said hearing.

"And it further satisfactorily appearing to the court after a full hearing upon said petition and on examination of the proofs and allegations of the petitioner, that said deceased was, at the time of his death, a resident of the city of New York, in the state of New York, and died leaving his last will and testament, which was duly approved and allowed in the surrogate court for, in and of the county of New York, in the state of New York, according to the laws thereof, and that he was possessed of estate situate in said county of Marquette, on which said will operates.

"And the evidence touching the premises being materially considered, it satisfactorily appears that said copy of said will ought to be allowed in this state as the last will and testament of said deceased.

"It is therefore ordered, adjudged and declared by this court that said copy of said last will and testament of said deceased be allowed, filed, and recorded in this court; and that the same shall have full force and effect in this state as such will, agreeably to the statute in such case made and provided.

"And it is further ordered that the execution of said last will and testament be committed, and the administration of the estate of the said deceased be granted, to said Sophia Wilder, the executrix in said will named, who is ordered to give bond in the penal sum of one thousand dollars, with sufficient sureties, as required by the statute in such case made and provided; and that the same being duly approved and filed, the letters testamentary do issue in the premises.

"Edward S. Hardy, judge of probate."
Culbertson v. Witbeck Co., 127 U. S. 326, 8 Sup. Ct. 1136, 32 L. ed. 134.

IV. Petition To Revoke Probate.

That: On the 15th day of May, 1889, Uriah Reid died unmarried and without issue, and the said plaintiffs and the seven first named defendants are his only heirs at law.

"On the 23d day of May, 1889, a certain paper writing purporting to be the last will of the said Uriah Reid, bearing date of the 6th day of April, 1889, was presented to the probate court of said Fairfield county, and admitted to probate by the probate court of that county, on the 10th day of June, A. D. 1889, and is recorded in Vol. XI, page 224, of the Record of Wills, in said court, and letters testamentary thereon were issued by said court to the defendant, Aaron Binckley, as sole executor thereof, who thereupon qualified. By the terms of said paper writing, all of the defendants except James R. Reid and the defendant, Binckley, are named as the several legatees and devisees of said Uriah Reid, and the plaintiff, Walter B. Wilson, is also named in said paper writing as a legatee of said Uriah Reid. Said paper writing is not the last will of said Uriah Reid, but that said Uriah Reid at the date of said paper writing was not of sound mind and memory, but by reason of extreme age and protracted pain and sickness, was mentally incapacitated from making a will or a proper distribution of his property, and was coerced into the signing of said paper by the undue influence of his brother, Joseph H. Reid, and the defendants, Melvina Reid and Thomas Reid, children of the said Joseph Reid, by continuously, for about two years, persuading, harassing and annoying the said Uriah Reid to make his will in favor of the children of the said Joseph H. Reid, and by other undue influences brought to bear on the said Uriah by the said Joseph H. Reid, Thomas Reid and Melvina Reid, the said Uriah Reid was induced to execute said pretended will.

"Plaintiffs, therefore, pray that an issue be made up as to whether said paper writing is the last will of the said Uriah Reid, and that the same may be set aside, and for such other relief as is proper."

No answer was filed, but after the service of process, and appearance of the parties, the court made and entered its order, "that a jury be empannelled to try the issues whether the paper writing produced, purporting to be the last will and testament of Uriah Reid, deceased, is or is not the valid last will and testament of the said deceased." Dew v. Reid, 52 Ohio St. 519, 40 N. E. 718.

State of New York, ss.: The (people of the) state of New York, sent to (the court, officer or person to whom the writ was directed) their writ of prohibition close in these words, to-wit:

The people of the state of New York, etc. (here insert the writ of prohibition, I, A).

At which day and place named in the return of the writ aforesaid, before the justices aforesaid, come as well the said (the plaintiff or relator), by E. F., his attorney, as the said (the defendant), by G. H., his attorney; and the said (defendant) now here makes return to the said writ, and shows cause as follows, to-wit (here insert the return verbatim).

And hereupon the said (plaintiff) says that he, by reason of anything in that return alleged and set forth, ought not to be barred or precluded from having a prohibition absolute restraining the said (court, officer or person) from (state what), because he says that, etc.

(here state the matters relied on). Wherefore he prays judgment that the said people's writ of prohibition absolute may issue, restraining, etc. (as above).

And the said (defendant) says that the said writ of prohibition absolute, prayed for by the said (plaintiff) ought not to issue because he says that (here state the facts relied on; and then proceed with the other pleadings, if any, to issue, after which the record proceeds as on a mandamus. If judgment be rendered for the plaintiff, the entry will be as follows):

Therefore it is considered that the people's writ of prohibition absolute do issue, restraining (state whom and what). And it is further considered, etc. (add a judgment for costs, as in ordinary cases).

(If judgment be rendered for the defendant, the entry will be thus):

Therefore it is considered that the said (the defendant) do go thereof without day, etc. And it is further considered that the people's writ of consultation do issue, commanding (state whom and what). And it is further considered (judgment for costs). Burr. App. 525, §1047a; Yates' Forms 756.

Whereas A. B., of (residence and addition), hath lately prosecuted and caused to be directed to you our certain writ of prohibition, out of our supreme court of judicature, before the justices thereof, at, etc., that you should not (state what the writ of prohibition commanded), by pretense of which prohibition you have from thence hitherto delayed, and yet do delay further to proceed in (state what), as we have understood, to the great damage of C. D. (name the other party). Wherefore the said C. D. hath in our said court before the said justices thereof, at, etc., humbly besought us to grant him our aid and assistance in this behalf; and we favorably consenting to the prayer of the said C. D., and being unwilling that there should be any further delay in (state the proceeding to be hastened by this writ). Because in our said supreme court, before the said justices, at, etc., it is in such manner proceeded that it is considered by the said court that the said C. D. may have our writ of consultation to the said (court or officer), our said writ of prohibition to the contrary thereof notwithstanding; whereof the said A. B. is convicted, as appears to us of record: We therefore being unwilling that the said C. D. should, in any wise, be injured in this behalf, signify to you our command that you may in that cause lawfully proceed, and further do what you shall know to belong to you as (naming the court or officer), our said writ of prohibition to you directed to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

D. in a certain bond or writing obligatory, bearing date the ——— day of ———, whereby your orator and the said C. D. respectively acknowledge themselves to be jointly and severally held and bound to E. F., of, etc. (the other defendant hereinafter named) in the penal sum of $———, subject to a condition thereunder written, that if the said C. D. ought to be observed, fulfilled and performed, and which were contained in a certain indenture, bearing even date with the said writing obligatory, and made between the said C. D. of the one part, and the said E. F. of the other part, according to the true intent and meaning of the said indenture, then the said bond or obligation should be void. And your orator further showeth unto your honor, that the said indenture in the said writing obligatory mentioned, and which bore even date therewith, was made between the said E. F. of the one part, and the said C. D. of the other part; and the said E. F. did thereby demise, lease, set, and to farm let, unto the said C. D., his executors, administrators, and assigns, all that messuages, etc. (Here state the subject of the demise). To hold the same, with the appurtenances, unto the said C. And your orator further showeth unto your honors, that the said C. D., under and by virtue of the said indenture, entered into and upon the said demised premises, and became and was possessed thereof for the term so granted to him as aforesaid, and the said E. F. put the said message, etc., etc., into good and tenantable repair at his own expense; and your orator therefore hoped that the same would have been so kept by the said

C. D. during the continuance of the said demise, and left by him at the expiration thereof; and that he would have performed all the other covenants in the said indenture contained, and by and on the lessee's part and behalf to be kept, done and performed, and have freed and discharged your orator from all liability in respect of the said bond. But now so it is, may it please your honors, the said C. D., acting in concert with the said E. F., and combining, etc., has not, as is alleged by the said E. the value of ten thousand dollars. Said defendant further avers, that said plaintiff, by virtue of the pretended deed set out in his second paragraph of complaint, or by some other paper writing, the character or nature of which is to this defendant unknown, claims to hold title to said real estate, which said claim of title is adverse to the right and title of this defendant to said real estate, and which said claim of title, so made by the said plaintiff to said real estate, is unfounded, and that the same operates as a cloud upon the title of this defendant. Wherefore the defendant prays judgment and decree of the court, that the title of this defendant in and to said real estate be quieted, and that the cloud upon his title made by the unfounded claim of said plaintiff be removed, and for general relief." *Cooper v. C. Petition for Receiver's Discharge.

"To the honorable the judges of the said circuit court:

"Your petitioner John C. Brown, as receiver of the Texas and Pacific Railway and its property in the above entitled and numbered causes, represents that heretofore it has been made to appear to the court that the objects and purposes of all the bills in these causes have been accomplished by settlement and agreement of the parties, and evidence of that fact filed as part of the record; that on its being so made to appear the court ordered him to render his accounts as receiver up to the first of June, which has been done, and it has been examined and approved, and since that date petitioner has kept his account as with the company. By the same order he was directed to hold the property under the orders of the court until the first of June, 1888, at which time if said order was not vacated the railway company might operate the road under such orders as the court might make from time to time and under the supervision and control of the receiver. No formal delivery of the road and property in his hands has been made to said railway company, and petitioner now asks that he be allowed formally to deliver all property and funds in his hands as such receiver to said railway company, and that he be allowed to account to said company according to his account filed up to the first of June and for all receipts and expenditures by him received and made since the first of June. He has carried over on the present books of the company the cash balance and all other balances of property and assets as found in his hands by his report to the first of June aforesaid, and he is now the president of said railroad company, and after his discharge will be in possession of all of said company's road, property, and funds as such for the said company. Wherefore he asks that he be discharged from his said receivership, and that his bond as receiver be vacated and annulled on payment of all costs legally taxable, but he prays the court to make such order as will charge the property so turned over in the hands of said railway company and its assigns with all liability for which he as receiver is or might be held personally liable. Your petitioner further says that the sum of his compensation as receiver has been agreed on by the parties in interest and is satisfactory to him and has been settled up to the 31st day of October, 1888, at which time he asks that his discharge take effect.

"(Signed) Jno. C. Brown."

III. Declaration on Recognizance of Bail.

A. B., plaintiff in this suit, by J. and K., his attorneys, comes into this court, according to the form of the statute authorizing the commencement of suits by declaration, and complains of I. N. and I. S., defendants in this suit, of a plea that the said defendants render unto the said plaintiff, the sum of _____ dollars (the amount of the judgment in the original action), lawful money of the United States of America, which to the said plaintiff the said defendants owe, and from him unjustly detain. For that whereas the said defendants heretofore, to-wit, in _____ term, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and _____, at (the city and) in the county of _____, aforesaid, came into the _____ court of _____ (of the people) of the state of _____

in their proper persons, and became pledges and bail for one C. D., at the suit of the said plaintiff, in a plea of (trespass on the case upon promises), then pending in the said court, in manner and form following; that is to say, that if it should happen that the said C. D. should be convicted at the suit of the said plaintiff in the plea aforesaid, then the said defendants consented and agreed, that the (damages) which should be adjudged to the said plaintiff in that behalf, should be made of their goods and chattels, lands and tenements, and levied to the use of the said plaintiff, if it should happen that the said C. D. should not pay to the said plaintiff the said (damages), or render himself on that occasion into the prison (of the people) of the state of _____, in execution of the said judgment; as by the record thereof, still remaining in the said court, more fully appears. And the said plaintiff says, that afterwards, to-wit, in _____ term, in the year one thousand eight hundred and _____ (the term of which the judgment in the original action was recovered, to-wit, at the court house in the city of _____, and in the court aforesaid, the said plaintiff, by the consideration and judgment of the said court, recovered in the said plea against the said C. D. to the said plaintiff), as for his costs and charges by him about his suit in that behalf expended; whereof the said C. D. was convicted as by the record and proceeding thereof still remaining in the said court in full force and effect, more fully appears. And the said plaintiff in fact says, that the said C. D. has not yet paid to the said plaintiff the said (damages) so adjudged to the said plaintiff as aforesaid, or any part thereof, nor rendered himself on that occasion into the prison of the said people in execution of the said judgment, according to the tenor and effect of the said recognizance; and the said plaintiff in fact says) that the said plaintiff has not obtained any execution of the said judgment nor sued out any execution upon the aforesaid recognizance; which recognizance, with the said judgment, so by the said plaintiff recovered as aforesaid, is still in full force, strength and effect, wholly unsatisfied; whereby an action hath accrued to the said plaintiff to demand and have of and from the said defendant, the said sum of money above demanded, according to the tenor and effect of the said recognizance.

Nevertheless the said defendants (although often requested, etc.), have not yet paid to the said plaintiff the said sum of money, or any part thereof, but the same, or any part thereof, to pay to the said plaintiff, the said defendants have hitherto wholly refused, and still do refuse; to the damage of the said plaintiff of one hundred dollars, and thereof the said plaintiff brings suit, etc. Burr. App. 286, §554; 2 Chit. Pl. 472.

IV. Declaration on Bail Bond by Assignee of Sheriff.

A. B., plaintiff in this suit, assignee of W. J., esquire, sheriff of the (city and) county of _____, according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, by E. F., his attorney, complains of C. D., I. N., and I. S., defendants in this suit, being in custody, etc., of a plea that they render to the said plaintiff, as assignee as aforesaid, the sum of _____ dollars (the penalty of the bond), of lawful money of the United States of America, which they owe to, and unjustly detained from him. For that whereas the said plaintiff heretofore, to-wit, on the _____ day of _____ in the year one thousand eight hundred and _____ (the teste of the capias), sued and prosecuted out of the _____ court of _____ (of the people) of the state of _____, before the (justices) thereof, against the said C. D., a certain writ (of the people) of the state of _____, called a capias ad respondendum, directed to the sheriff of the (city and) county of _____, by which said writ the said sheriff was commanded to take the said C. D., if he should be found in this county, and him safely keep, so that he might have his body before the said (justices) of the _____ court of _____ aforesaid, at the _____ in the city of _____,

_____ on the _____ (Monday) of _____ then next, to answer unto the said plaintiff of a plea of trespass; and also to a bill of the said plaintiff against the said C. D., for _____ dollars, upon promises, according to the custom of the said court, before the aforesaid justices thereof, to be exhibited (reciting the writ), and that the said sheriff should then have there that writ. (If the defendant were held to bail by virtue of a special order, it is usual to state the facts here, as follows: "On which said writ, before its delivery to the said sheriff as hereinafter mentioned, was duly endorsed and order made by [here name the officer] directing the said C. D., to be held to bail, or his arrest on such writ, in the sum of _____ dollars by virtue of an affidavit of the cause of action duly made and affiled according to the statute, etc.") Which said writ (so endorsed) afterwards, and before the said return thereof, to-wit, on the _____ day of _____, in the year aforesaid (the date of the bail bond, or according to the fact) to-wit, at (the city and) in the county of _____ aforesaid (the venue in the action), was delivered to the said W. J., who then and there thence until, and at, and after the time of the arrest, and the making of the writing obligatory hereinafter mentioned, was sheriff of the said (city and) county of _____ in due form of law to be executed. By virtue of which said writ, the said W. J., so being sheriff as aforesaid, afterwards, and before the said return of the said writ, to-wit, on the day and year last aforesaid, and within his bailiwick as such sheriff, to-wit, at the city of _____, in the county of _____ aforesaid, took and arrested the said C. D., by his body, and then and there had and detained him in his custody, as such sheriff, at the suit of the said plaintiff for the cause aforesaid. And the said C. D., being so arrested and in custody of the said W. J., so being sheriff as aforesaid, by virtue of the said writ of the suit of the said plaintiff as aforesaid, the said W. J., afterwards, and before the said return of the said writ, to-wit, on the day and year last aforesaid (date of the bail bond), and within his bailiwick as such sheriff, to-wit, at (the city) and in the county of _____ aforesaid, took bail for the appearance of the said C. D., at the return of the said writ, according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided; and on that occasion the said C. D., and the said I. N., and I. S., as bail and sureties for the said C. D., then and there, to-wit, on the day and year last aforesaid, at (the city) and in the county of _____ aforesaid, by their certain writing obligatory commonly called a bail bond, sealed with the seals of the said C. D., I. N., and I. S., respectively, and now shown to the said court here, the date whereof is the same day and year last aforesaid, acknowledged themselves to be held and firmly bound to the said W. J., so being then sheriff of the said (city and) county of _____, as aforesaid, as such sheriff, by the name, description and addition of W. J., esquire, sheriff of the (city and) county of _____, in the penal sum of _____ dollars, of good and lawful money of the United States of America, to be paid to the said sheriff, or his certain attorney, executors, administrators or assigns; with, and under a certain condition, thereunder written, that if the said C. D. should appear in the action commenced by the said writ, by putting in special bail within twenty days after the return day specified in the said writ, and by perfecting such bail, if required, according to the rules and practice of the said court, then the said obligation should be void, otherwise, to remain in full force and virtue; as by the said writing obligatory, and the condition thereof, reference being thereunto had, may more fully and at large appear. And the said plaintiff in fact saith,* that the said C. D., did not appear in the said action, at the place and time above specified, and in the condition of the said writing obligatory mentioned, according to the condition of the said bond, by putting in special bail as therein mentioned, but therein wholly failed and made default; * whereby the said writing obligatory became forfeited. And the said plaintiff further saith, that the said writing obligatory being so forfeited, and the money therein specified remaining unpaid and unsatisfied to the said sheriff, he, the said W. J., so being sheriff of the said (city and) county of _____, as aforesaid, afterwards, to-wit, on the _____ day of _____, in the year one thousand eight hundred and _____ (the date of the assignment, being before the title of the declaration), to-wit, at (the city of _____ and in the county of _____ aforesaid (the venue), at the request and cost of the said plaintiff in the said suit, by an endorsement of the said writing obligatory duly assigned the said writing obligatory to the said plaintiff, according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided. By means whereof, and by force of the statute in such case made and provided, an action hath accrued to the said plaintiff, as assignee of the said W. J., so being sheriff of the said (city and) county of _____ as aforesaid, to demand and have of and from the said defendants, C. D., I. N., and I. S., the said sum of _____ dollars above demanded. Yet the said defendants, although often requested so to do have not, nor hath any of them as yet paid the said sum of _____ dollars above demanded, or any part thereof, to the said W. J., sheriff as aforesaid, before the said assignment, or to the said plaintiff, assignee as aforesaid, or either of them, since the said assignment; but hath hitherto wholly neglected and refused so to do, and still doth neglect and refuse to pay the same, or any part thereof to the said plaintiff, assignee as aforesaid. To the damage of the said plaintiff, assignee as aforesaid, of _____ dollars (nominal damages), and therefore he brings his suit, etc.

(If special bail were put in, but not perfected, the following clause should be inserted in the above form, between the two ), that although the said C. D. did appear in the action commenced by the said writ, by putting in special bail within twenty days after the said return day, specified in the said writ in the said condition mentioned, to-wit, on the _____ day of _____, in the year aforesaid, and at the place aforesaid, as appears by the record thereof, yet the said plaintiff, afterwards, to-wit, on the _____ day of _____, at the place aforesaid, by an endorsement of exception on the bail piece filed with the clerk of this court, at the city of (New York), in the said cause, and by notice thereof in writing, duly signed by the said plaintiff's attorney, to the said C. D., duly given, then and there, to-wit, on, etc., at, etc., duly required the said C. D., to perfect his said bill, so by him put in as aforesaid in the said cause, according to the rules and practice of the said court; but the said C. D., although so required, to-wit, on the day and year aforesaid, and often afterwards, to-wit, at the place aforesaid, did not perfect his said bill, so by him put in as aforesaid, according to the rules and practice of the said court, but therein wholly failed and made default. (As in III, A, 6, to the *, continuing): to take and state an account of all dealings and transactions between the plaintiff and defendant, as partners, under the style of A. B. & Co.; and for the better taking and stating of which account the parties are to produce before the said referee, under oath, all books, deeds, papers, and writings in their custody, or under their control, relating thereto; and are to be examined upon interrogatories or otherwise, as the said referee shall direct, who, in taking the said account, is to make all just allowances to the parties as between themselves; and what, on the balance of the said account, shall appear to be due from either party to the other, is to be paid as the said referee shall direct; and the referee is at liberty to state and report any special circumstances, as well as his reasons for allowing or disallowing any allowances which may be claimed.

And it is further ordered, that the question of costs, as well as all other questions, are reserved until the coming in of the report and hearing for further directions. 2 Abb. Forms 672.

8. Order of Reference Preliminary to Judgment for Partition.

On reading and filing due proof by the affidavit of M. N. that the summons (and complaint) herein has been duly personally served within this state on all the defendants (except the unknown owners and the defendant U. V., a non-resident, on each of whom it has been duly served by publication), and that none of the defendants are infants (except the defendant W. X.), and that none of them have demurred, or put in any answer controverting any material allegation of the complaint, now, on motion of M. N. for the plaintiff, and on proof of due notice of this motion to the defendants who have appeared, and after hearing O. P. (or, no one appearing) in opposition:

Ordered, that it be referred to R. F., esq., of ———, counselor-at-law, to take proof of the plaintiff's title and interest in the premises mentioned in the complaint, and of the several matters set forth in said complaint, and to ascertain and report what share or part of the said premises belongs to each of the parties to this action, so far as the same can be ascertained, and the nature and extent of their respective rights and interests therein, and an abstract of the conveyances by which the same are held.

(And, if a sale is deemed necessary, add): And said referee is further directed to inquire and report whether the whole of said premises, or any lot or separate parcel thereof, are so circumstanced that an actual partition cannot be made; and if he arrives at the conclusion that a sale of the whole premises, or of any lot or separate parcel thereof, will be necessary, then to specify the same in his report, together with the reasons which render a sale necessary; and in such a case, that he also ascertain and report whether any creditor not a party to this action has a specific lien by mortgage, devise, or otherwise, upon the undivided share or interest of any of the parties in that portion of the premises which it is necessary to sell; and if he finds that there is no such specific lien in favor of any person not a party to the action, that he further inquire and report whether the undivided share or interest of any of the parties in the premises is subject to any general lien or incumbrance, by judgment or decree; and that he ascertain and report the amount due to any party to the action, who has either a general or specific lien on the premises to be sold, or any part thereof, and the amount due to any creditor, not a party, who has a general lien on any undivided share or interest therein, by judgment or decree, and who shall appear and establish his claim on such reference. And said referee, if requested by the parties, or any one of them, who appear before him on such reference, shall also ascertain and report the amount due any creditor not a party to the action, which is either a specific or general lien or incumbrance upon all the shares or interests of the parties in the premises to be sold, and which would remain as an incumbrance thereon in the hands of the purchaser.

(Where two or more owners wish their shares set off in common, add): And said referee is further directed to inquire and ascertain whether the premises are so situated that the shares of A. B. and C. D. can be set off to them in common, without any partition or allotment as between them, and without injury to the interests of any of the parties, and that he report the facts, with his opinion thereon. 2 Abb. Forms 526.

On reading and filing the affidavit of A. B., the plaintiff (or, on the petition of C. D., or, on the certificate of the referee) herein, dated the ——— day of ———, 18——, and on motion of M. N., for the plaintiff, and on hearing O. P., for the defendant (or, and Ordered, that the defendant Y. Z., within (four) days after personal service hereof, on said defendant, or on his attorney, produce before the said referee, under oath, all (here specify the writings) in his custody or power, relating to the matters in question; or, in default thereof, that, on the referee's certificate of such default, an attachment issue to the sheriff of the county of _____, to take the said defendant into custody and bring him before this court to answer for the contempt. 2 Abb. credits, are correct, according to the best of deponent's knowledge, information, and belief, and this deponent does not know of any error or omission in said account to the prejudice of his said copartner, the defendant. 2 Abb. Forms 675.

F. Referee's Reports.

1. Referee's Report on Accounting in Partnership Cause.

To the _____ court of _____.

Pursuant to an order of this court, in this action, dated the _____ day of _____, 18____, I, the undersigned referee report: * That having been attended by the attorneys for the several parties who appeared in this action, I proceeded to a hearing of the matter so referred. I further report that on such hearing, the books, deeds, papers, and vouchers of the said partnership having been produced before me, the defendant rendered his (or, both parties rendered their respective) accounts, which are hereto annexed, and marked Schedule A.

II. That I examined said defendant, and also _____, concerning the transactions aforesaid, and adjusted a mutual account between the plaintiff and defendant, making therein all just allowances, and striking a balance which shows what appears to be due from either party to the other, which said account is hereto annexed, and marked Schedule B.

III. That said defendant owes to said partnership, at this date, the sum of _____ dollars, with interest from the _____ day of _____, 18____, at the rate of _____ per cent. per annum, amounting to _____ dollars, which sum I have allowed.

IV. That the balance shown by said Schedule B, after defendant has made good to said partnership said sum, belongs to plaintiff and defendant in equal shares (or, in the following proportions, stating them). 2 Abb. Forms 676.

2. Report of Referee Preliminary to Judgment for Partition.

To the _____ court.

Pursuant to an order of this court, dated the _____ day of _____, 18____, whereby it was referred to me (here state the purport of the order of reference), I respectfully report:

I. That having been attended by the attorneys for the several parties who appeared in the action, I proceeded to a hearing of the matters so referred (and if the order contemplated a sale, add: after having caused a notice to be published as required by law, for all general lien creditors, by judgment, decree, or otherwise, on the undivided share or interest of any of the parties in the premises, to produce to me proof of their respective liens and incumbrances, together with satisfactory evidence of the amount due thereon, and to specify the nature of such incumbrances, and the dates thereof respectively).

II. That on such hearing, I took proof as to the material allegations in the complaint, and find the same are true.

III. The following is an abstract of the conveyances by which the premises described in the complaint are held (here enumerate them as in full abstract of title).

IV. The respective rights and interests of the several parties in the premises at this date are as follows (designating them, e. g., thus):

The plaintiff A. B. and the defendant W. X. are each entitled to one undivided fourth part thereof.

The defendants W. Z. and Y., his wife, are entitled to one undivided fourth part thereof in right of the said Y.

The defendant U. V., as widow of the said V., deceased, is entitled to a dower right in one undivided fourth thereof; and the said W. V. and Y. V. are each entitled to one undivided eighth part, subject, however, to the dower of U. V., their said mother.

The estate is in the parties, in fee, subject to the marital and dower interests as appear above.

V. That the premises described in the complaint are so circumstanced that, in my opinion, a partition thereof can be made without material injury to the rights or interests of the several owners thereof; and that a partition of such premises would be more advantageous to such owners than a sale thereof (or, where a sale is necessary, say, cannot be made without great injury and prejudice to the owners thereof. The premises consist of a city lot, which is twenty-five feet by one hundred, and cannot be divided without great loss).

(Where a sale is necessary, state specific liens, e. g., thus): VI. That I have caused the necessary searches to be made, and I find that two creditors, neither of them a party to this action, and no others, have any specific lien by mortgage, devise or otherwise, upon the undivided share or interest of any of the parties in the premises; and that those two creditors are Q. R., of _____, and S. T., of _____, whose liens are as follows (stating particulars as in a full abstract of title).

(Where a sale is necessary, state also general liens, or that there are none, e. g., thus): VII. That there is no other general lien or incumbrance by judgment or decree upon the undivided share or interest of either of the parties in the premises. And no creditor, not a party to this action, having any general lien on any undivided share or interest in the premises, by judgment or decree, appeared before me on the said reference, to establish his claim in pursuance of the notice published by me, except as aforesaid. 2 Abb. Forms 528.

I. Bill for Reformation of Conveyance. Correcting Boundary.

Humbly complaining, sheweth unto your honors, the plaintiff:

1. That on the _____ day of _____, 186—, the defendant executed and delivered to the plaintiff, under his hand and seal, a deed, of which the following is a copy (give a copy, containing, for example, the following description of the premises conveyed. All that certain lot, etc., beginning at a point, etc., running thence easterly along A. street _____ feet, thence southerly along B. street _____ feet, thence westerly and parallel to C. street _____ feet, thence southerly and parallel to D. street _____ feet, to the place of beginning).
2. That the description therein given of the premises intended to be conveyed was erroneous, and in fact does not describe any premises whatever; that the word "southerly," as last used in said description, was inserted by mistake of the parties to said deed (or otherwise, or if fraud is relied upon, the circumstances of it should be specifically stated), instead of the word "northerly," which should have been used instead thereof; and that in order to make said deed pass any premises whatever to the plaintiff, and to make it conform to the actual intention of the parties, it is necessary that the said description should be rectified and reformed by substituting the word "northerly" for the word "southerly," where the latter word is last used therein (or say, so as to read as follows, and insert description in full as corrected).

3. That the plaintiff has paid to the defendant for the said premises the consideration expressed in said deed. (Prayer that the deed may be reformed, etc.) 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 1996.

II. Complaint To Reform a Conveyance by Correcting Mistake in Boundary.

I. That on the _____ day of _____, 18____, the defendant executed and delivered to the plaintiff, under his hand and seal, a deed, of which the following is a copy: (give copy of deed, containing, for example, the following description of premises conveyed: All that certain lot, etc., beginning at a point, etc., running thence easterly along A. street _____ feet, thence southerly along B. street _____ feet, thence westerly and parallel to C. street _____ feet, and thence southerly and parallel to D. street _____ feet to the place of beginning).

II. That the description therein given of the premises intended to be conveyed thereby was erroneous, and in fact does not describe any premises whatever; that the word "southerly," as last used in said description, was inserted by mistake of the parties to said deed (or otherwise; and if fraud is relied on, the circumstances of it should be specially stated) instead of the word "northerly," which should have been used instead thereof; and that in order to make said deed pass any premises whatever to this plaintiff, and to make it conform to the actual intentions of the parties, it is necessary that the said description should be amended by substituting the word "northerly" for the word "southerly," where the latter word is last used therein (or say, amended so as to read as follows, and insert description in full as amended).

III. That the plaintiff has paid to the defendant for the said premises the consideration expressed in said deed.

Wherefore, this plaintiff demands judgment that said deed be reformed as aforesaid, and for the costs of this action. 1 Abb. Forms 586.

I. Rejoinders.

A. Rejoinder by Way of Traverse, Denial of Obtaining Release Unfairly.

And the said defendant, as to the said replication of the said plaintiff to the said (second) plea of the said defendant, says that the said plaintiff ought not by reason of anything by him in that replication alleged, to have or maintain his aforesaid action thereof against him the said defendant, because he says that the said deed of release in the said (second) plea mentioned was had and obtained fairly, and not by the fraud or covin of the said defendant, in manner and form as the said plaintiff hath above in his said replication in that behalf alleged. And of this he the said defendant puts himself upon the country, etc. Burr. App. 391, §720; 3 Chit. Pl. 1223.

B. Rejoinder to Replication of Demise to Plaintiff, Notice to Quit.

And the said defendant, as to the said replication of the said plaintiff to the said (second) plea of the said defendant, says that the said plaintiff ought not by reason of anything by him in that replication alleged, to have or maintain his aforesaid action thereof against him the said defendant, because he says that he the said defendant, after the making of the said demise, in the said plea in bar mentioned, and whilst the said plaintiff was possessed of the said place, in which, etc., under and by virtue of the said demise, as tenant thereof to the said defendant; and half a year before the ——— day of ———, in the year, etc., to-wit, on, etc., at, etc., gave due notice to, and then and there required the said plaintiff to quit and deliver up the possession of the said demised premises, with the appurtenances, unto him the said defendant, on the said ——— day of ———, then next following; and by means thereof afterwards, and before the said time when, etc., to-wit, on the day and year last aforesaid, the said tenancy and the estate and interest of the said plaintiff in the said demised premises, and the said place in which, etc., with the appurtenances, wholly ended and determined, to-wit, at, etc., aforesaid; and thereupon he the said defendant, after the said tenancy was so ended and determined as aforesaid, to-wit, at the said several times when, etc., entered into the said dwelling house in which, etc., and committed the said supposed trespasses in the introductory part of the said second plea mentioned, as he lawfully might for the cause aforesaid, to-wit, at, etc., aforesaid. And this he the said defendant is ready to verify. Wherefore he prays judgment, if the said plaintiff ought to have or maintain his aforesaid action thereof against the said defendant. Burr. App. 392, §723; 3 Chit. Pl. 1232; Yates' Forms 736.

II. Surrejoinder That Notice To Quit Was Waived.

And the said plaintiff, as to the said rejoinder of the said defendant to the said replication of the said plaintiff to the said (second) plea of the said defendant, saith that he, by reason of anything by the said defendant in that rejoinder above alleged, ought not to be barred from having or maintaining his aforesaid action thereof against the said defendant, because he says that after the giving of the said notice in the said rejoinder mentioned, and before the expiration of the said tenancy, to-wit, on, etc., at, etc., aforesaid, the said defendant waived, relinquished and abandoned the said notice, and then and there assented, and agreed with the said plaintiff to the continuance of the said tenancy in the said replication mentioned; and the said tenancy did continue from thenceforth, until, and at and after the said time when, etc., to-wit, at, etc., aforesaid. And this he the said plaintiff is ready to verify. Wherefore, as before, he prays judgment and his damages by him sustained, on occasion of the committing of the said trespasses, to be adjudged to him, etc. Burr. App. 393, §727; 3 Chit. Pl. 1235.

III. Rebutter by Way of Traverse Denying Notice To Quit.

And the said defendant, as to the said surrejoinder of the said plaintiff, to the said rejoinder of the said defendant to the said replication to the said (second) plea of the said defendant, saith that the said plaintiff ought not, by reason of anything by him in that surrejoinder alleged, to have or maintain his aforesaid action against him, in respect of the said supposed trespasses in the introductory part of the said (second) plea mentioned, because he saith that the said defendant did not waive, relinquish or abandon the said notice, or assent or agree with the said plaintiff to the continuance of the said tenancy in the said replication mentioned, nor did the same continue in manner and form as the said plaintiff hath above, in his said surrejoinder, in that behalf alleged. And of this the said defendant puts himself upon the country, etc. Burr. App. 394, §728; 3 Chit. Pl. 1236.

Seehorn, has made and delivered to this defendant, for a valuable consideration, a full release, discharge, and satisfaction of all claims and demands, of every name and kind, between this plaintiff and the defendant, and especially a full release, discharge, and satisfaction of all claims and demands averred in this amended complaint of plaintiff on file in this court in this cause.

Witness, _____, Justice,

(Chief Justice,

_____, clerk.

The people of the state of _____ have sent to their justices of their court (of common pleas) their writ close in these words, to-wit:

The (people of the state of _____ to our justices of our court of (common pleas) greeting: Because, etc. (here copy the writ of error and allowance indorsed thereon, and proceed as follows): At which day, by virtue of the said writ, the transcript of the record of the judgment (or final determination), aforesaid, in the plaint aforesaid, and all things concerning the same, are brought before the justices of the supreme court, in a certain schedule with the said writ annexed, according to the exigency of the said writ; which said schedule is in the words and figures following, to-wit: (insert the return to the writ with the schedule containing the transcript, and then proceed as follows):

And thereupon, comes here into the said supreme court at the capitol in the city of _____ (or, according to the place where the court may be sitting at the return of the writ of error), the said C. D. in his proper person (or by G. H., his attorney; or if an infant, by G. H., his guardian); and prays a day to assign error or errors in the record (or, final determination), and proceedings aforesaid; whereupon a day is given to him by the court here, to assign errors in the record (or, final determination) aforesaid, until the _____ day of _____ next, etc., here (or, at the _____ in the city of _____, or according to the place where the court shall sit on the dies datus).

Pleas before the justices of the supreme court of the state of _____, at the capitol in the city of _____ (or, according to the place where the court shall sit on the dies datus), on, etc. (the dies datus).

Witness, _____, esquire,
Chief Justice.

At which day come here into the said supreme court, as well the said C. D. in his proper person (or, by G. H., his attorney; or, by G. H., his guardian; as the case may be), as the said A. B., in his proper person (or, by E. F., his attorney); and says, that in the record and proceedings aforesaid, and also in giving the judgments (or, final determination) aforesaid, there is manifest error in this, that the declaration aforesaid, and the matters therein contained, are not sufficient in law, for the said A. B. to have or maintain his aforesaid action thereof against him the said C. D.: And also, there is error in this, that the judgment (or, final determination) aforesaid, by the record aforesaid, appears to have been given for the said A. B. against the said C. D.; whereas, by the law of the land, the said judgment ought to have been given for the said C. D. against the said A. B.: And the said C. D. prays, that the judgment (or, final determination) aforesaid, for the errors aforesaid, and for other errors in the said record and proceedings being, may be reversed, annulled, and altogether holden for naught; and that he may be restored to all things which he hath lost by occasion of the said judgment (or, final determination), etc.

And hereupon, afterwards, to-wit, on the _____ day of _____, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and _____ (the day of filing the joinder in error), the said A. B., by E. F., his attorney, comes here into court, and says, that there is no error either in the record and proceedings aforesaid, or in giving the judgment (or, final determination) aforesaid; and he prays that the said supreme court of the state of _____, now here, may proceed to examine as well the record and proceedings aforesaid, as the matters aforesaid above assigned for error; and that the judgment (or, final determination), in the manner aforesaid given, may be in all things affirmed, etc. But because the said supreme court before the aforesaid justices thereof, now here, are not yet advised what judgment to give of and upon the premises, a day is therefore given to the parties aforesaid, here (or, if the next sitting of the court will be at a different place, omit the word, here; and instead thereof insert, at the capitol in the city of _____), on the _____ day of _____ next (or, instant), before the same court, to hear judgment thereupon; for that the said supreme court of the state of _____, here, is not yet advised thereof, etc.

At which day, come here, into the said supreme court, as well the said C. D. by G. H., his attorney, as the said A. B. by the said E. REPLEADER.

II. Judgment Record on Repleader, 1055

I. Order for Repleader.

This cause having been brought to argument, and counsel for the respective parties having been heard, it appearing to the court that the (plea) of the (defendant) and the issue thereupon joined, do not determine the right, and that no judgment should be given upon the verdict entered thereon, it is ordered that the parties do replead; that is, that the defendant do answer anew to the declaration filed in this cause, and that the parties do further proceed until an issue or issues, in fact or law, be duly joined. Burr. App. 465, §944.

II. Judgment Record on Repleader.

(To the end of the poston [see Judgment Records], and then continue as follows):

But because the said court, before the aforesaid justices thereof now here, are not yet advised, etc. (continued), and then as follows: At which day, before the justices aforesaid, at the (capital) aforesaid, came the parties aforesaid, by their respective attorneys aforesaid. And hereupon, all and singular the premises being seen, and by the court now here fully understood, and mature deliberation being thereupon had, it seems to the said court now here that (the replication of the said plaintiff, in manner and form above pleaded, is not sufficient in law to be answered unto; for that the said plaintiff in the said replication attempts to draw in question an immaterial fact, to-wit (the precise day on which the payment and satisfaction, in the said defendant's plea alleged, was made by the said defendant: Whereas the material question in that plea was, whether the bond or writing obligatory, in the said plaintiff's declaration mentioned, was in fact paid and satisfied or not), and that the issue aforesaid, thereupon above joined, was not aptly or properly joined. Wherefore it is considered that the parties aforesaid, to the issue aforesaid, do replead; that is to say, that the said plaintiff do reply anew, until an apt and proper issue be joined therein: And the verdict aforesaid, of the jurors aforesaid, in form aforesaid given, is, for the cause aforesaid, hereby vacated and held for naught.

And thereupon the said plaintiff, by way of replication anew, says that, etc. (here proceed with the entry of the new pleadings). Burr. App. 181, §334; Yates' Forms 781, 49.

Sealed and delivered in presence of

Burr. App. 43, §82; 2 R. S. 432, 524, §12; Yates' Forms 541.

V. Summonses.

A. Summons in Replevin.

By virtue of a writ of replevin to me directed and delivered, I do hereby summon you to appear before the justices of the supreme court of judicature of the people of the state of New York, at the city hall in the city of New York, on the first Monday of May next (or otherwise, according to the writ), to answer A. B. in a writ of replevin (prosecuted by E. F., his attorney, and), issued out of the said court.

S. T. sheriff of the county of _____.

To C. D., the above named defendant.

Burr. App. 483, §985.

B. Alias Summons in Replevin.

The people, etc., to the sheriff, etc., greeting:

Whereas, by our writ of replevin, to you lately directed and delivered, we commanded you (here recite the writ of replevin): And whereas you, at that day, made return to our said writ that (recite the return). Now, therefore, we command you, as before we commanded you, that you summon the said defendant to appear before our justices, etc. (as in the writ of replevin, II, A), to answer the said plaintiff in the premises in our said writ of replevin contained. And have you then there this writ.

Witness, etc. (teste as in the writ of replevin). Burr. App. 483, §985a; 1 Humphrey's Prec. 149.

VI. Pleading by Defendant.

A. Avowry for Damage Feasant.

Because he saith, that the said place in which, etc., now is, and at the said time when, etc., was the close, soil and freehold of the said defendant, and because the said (cattle), at the said time when, etc., were in the said place in which, etc., eating up the grass there then growing, and doing damage there to the said defendant, he the said defendant well avows the taking of the said (cattle) in the said place in which, etc., and justly, etc., as for and in the name of a distress for the said damage so there done and doing as aforesaid. And this, etc. 3 Chit. Pl. 1058.

Note.—"The action of replevin differs from other actions in the names of the pleadings. If the defendant pleads some matter confessing the taking, but showing lawful title or excuse, such pleading is not (as it would be in other actions) called a plea in bar, but an avowry, or a cognizance; the former term applying to the case where the defendant sets up right or title in himself; the latter being used when he alleges the right or title to be in another person, by whose command he acted. Com. Dig. Pleader (3 K. 13, 14) The answer to the avowry or cognizance, is called the plea in bar; and then follow replication, rejoinder, etc.; the ordinary name of each pleading being thus postponed by one step." Steph. Pl. 195 (d).

B. Avowry Where Part of Rent is Paid.

And the said C. D., defendant in this suit, by J. B. S., his attorney, comes and defends the wrong and injury, when, etc., and well avows the taking of the said goods and chattels in the said declaration mentioned, in the said dwelling house (or, according to the place stated in the declaration), in which, etc., and justly, etc.; because he says that the said plaintiff (or "one J. K."), for a long time, to-wit, for the space of _____ years next before and ending on the _____ day of _____, in the year, etc., and from thence until, and at the said time when, etc., held and enjoyed the said (dwelling house) in which, etc., with the appurtenances, as tenant thereof to the said defendant, under and by virtue of a certain demise thereof to him the said plaintiff, theretofore made, at and under a certain yearly rent, to-wit, the yearly rent of (five hundred) dollars, payable quarterly, on, etc. (stating the days of payment), in every year, by even and equal portions, and because a large sum of money, to-wit, the sum of _____ dollars, parcel of the sum of _____ dollars of the rent aforesaid, for the said space of _____ ending, as aforesaid, on the said _____ day of _____, in the year aforesaid, and from thence until, and at the said time, when, etc., was due and in arrear from the said plaintiff, to the said defendant (the residue of the said sum of _____ dollars, of the rent aforesaid, having been before then paid and satisfied), he the said defendant well avows the taking of the said goods and chattels in the said declaration mentioned, in the said dwelling house, in which, etc., and justly, etc., as, for and in the name of a distress for the said sum of _____ dollars, parcel, etc., so due and in arrear as aforesaid; and which said sum of _____ dollars, parcel, etc., still remains due and in arrear to the said defendant, as aforesaid. And this, etc. (conclude as in last form). Burr. App. 404. §749; 3 Chit. Pl. 1048; Yates' Forms 551.

C. Cognizance for Rent.

And the said C. D., defendant in this suit, by W. C. W., his attorney, comes and defends the wrong and injury when, etc., and, as the bailiff of L. M., well acknowledges the taking of the goods and chattels (or otherwise, according to the declaration), in the said declaration mentioned, in the said dwelling house (or, according to the premises stated in the declaration), in which, etc., and justly, etc., because he says that the said plaintiff (or one J. K.), for a long time, to-wit, for the space of _____ years next before and ending on the _____ day of _____, in the year, etc., and from thence until and at the said time when, etc., held and enjoyed the said (dwelling house), in which, etc., with the appurtenances, as tenant thereof, to the said L. M., by virtue of a certain demise thereof to him the said plaintiff (or the said J. K.), theretofore made at and under a certain yearly rent, to-wit, the yearly rent of _____ dollars, payable quarterly on, etc. (stating the days of payment), in every year, by even and equal portions (or, according to the facts); and because the sum of _____ dollars of the rent aforesaid, for the space of _____ ending as aforesaid on the said _____ day of _____, in the year aforesaid, and from thence until and at the said time when, etc., was due and in arrear from the said plaintiff to the said L. M., he the said defendant, as bailiff of the said L. M., well acknowledges the taking of the said (goods and chattels) in the said dwelling house, in which, etc., and justly, etc., as, for, and in the name of a distress for the said sum due, and in arrear to the said L. M., as aforesaid; and which rent still remains due and unpaid. And this he the said defendant is ready to verify. Wherefore he prays judgment and a return of the said (goods and chattels), together with his damages, etc., according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, to be adjudged to him, etc. Burr. App. 404, §750; 3 Chit. Pl. 1047; Yates' Forms 550.

D. Plea in Bar. Property in Defendant or Stranger.

Because he saith that the said (goods and chattels) in the said declaration mentioned, at the said time when, etc., were the property of the said defendant (or of one E. F.), and not of the said plaintiff, as by the said declaration is above supposed. And this he the said defendant is ready to verify; wherefore he prays judgment, if the said plaintiff ought to have or maintain his aforesaid action thereof against him, and he also prays return of the said (goods and chattels), together with his costs in this behalf, according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, to be adjudged to him, etc. 3 Chit. Pl. 1044.

VII. Pleas.

A. Plea to Avowry, Damage Feasant, Denial of Title of Defendant.

And the said plaintiff, as to the said avowry of the said defendant, saith that the said defendant, by reason of anything by him in that avowry above alleged, ought not to avow the taking of the said cattle (or goods and chattels, as in the declaration), in the said place in which, etc., and justly, etc., because he says that the said place in which, etc., now is, and at the said time when, etc., was the close, soil and freehold of him the said plaintiff, and not the close, soil and freehold of the said defendant (or L. M.), in manner and form as the said defendant hath above in his said avowry (or "cognizance"), in that behalf alleged. And this he the said plaintiff prays may be inquired of by the country, etc. Burr. App. 406, §754; 3 Chit. Pl. 1195.

B. Plea to an Avowry of Damage Feasant, Escape of Cattle by Defective Fence.

And the said plaintiff, as to the said avowry of the said defendant, saith that the said defendant, by reason of anything by him in that avowry above alleged, ought not to avow the taking of the said cattle (or goods and chattels, as in the declaration), in the said place in which, etc., and justly, etc., because he says that the said plaintiff, before and at the said time when, etc., was lawfully possessed of and in a certain close, etc. (state the plaintiff's possession of the adjoining close, and the obligation of the occupier of the locus in quo, to repair the fence, and that the fence was out of repair, and that the plaintiff's cattle thereby escaped into the locus in quo, and after stating such escape, proceed as follows): and remained therein until the said defendant before the said plaintiff had, or could have any notice that the said cattle were in the said place in which, etc., to-wit, at the said time when, etc., of his own wrong, took the said cattle in the said place in which, etc., and unjustly detained the same against sureties and pledges, in manner and form as he the said plaintiff hath above thereof complained against him the said defendant. And this, etc. (conclude with a verification). Burr. App. 407, §756; 3 Chit. Pl. 1196.

C. Plea in Bar to Avowry, Eviction.

And the said plaintiff, as to the said avowry of the said defendant, saith that the said defendant, by reason of anything by him in that avowry above alleged, ought not to avow the taking of the said cattle (or "goods and chattels," as in the declaration), in the said place in which, etc., and justly, etc., because he says that the said defendant, after the making of the said demise in the said (first) avowry mentioned, and before any part of the said rent therein mentioned became due or in arrear, to-wit, on the _____ day of _____, in the year, etc., at _____, in the county aforesaid, with force and arms, etc., entered into a certain messuage or dwelling house, parcel of the said demised premises in the said avowry alleged to have been demised, in and upon the possession of him the said plaintiff thereof, and him the said plaintiff from his possession thereof, ejected, expelled, put out and moved and kept and continued the said plaintiff so ejected, expelled, put out and moved, from his possession thereof, from thence until, and upon, and after the said _____ day of _____, in the year, etc. And this, etc. (conclude with verification). Burr. App. 406, §753; 3 Chit. Pl. 1192.

D. Plea to Avowry Damage Feasant, Tender Before Impounding.

And the said plaintiff, as to the said avowry of the said defendant, saith that the said defendant, by reason of anything by him in that avowry above alleged, ought not to avow the taking of the said cattle (or goods and chattels, as in the declaration), in the said place in which, etc., and justly, etc., because he says that after the taking of the said cattle in the said place in which, etc., by the said defendant, and before the impounding of the same, to-wit, on the same day and year in the said declaration mentioned, at the town aforesaid, in the county aforesaid, he the said plaintiff tendered and offered to pay to the said defendant a certain sum of money, to-wit, the sum of (twenty-five) dollars, as amends for the said damage done to him the said defendant, by the said cattle in the said place in which, etc., as aforesaid, and which was then and there sufficient amends for the same; which said sum of (twenty-five) dollars the said defendant then and there wholly refused to accept from the said plaintiff, and unjustly detained the said cattle against sureties and pledges, etc., until, etc., in manner and form as the said plaintiff hath above thereof complained against him the said defendant. And this, etc. (conclude with verification). Burr. App. 407, §757; 3 Chit. Pl. 1198; Yates' Forms 559.

E. Plea, Traverse to Avowry, No Rent in Arrear.

And the said plaintiff, as to the said avowry of the said defendant, saith that the said defendant, by reason of anything by him in that avowry above alleged, ought not to avow the taking of the said cattle (or goods and chattels, as in the declaration), in the said place in which, etc., and justly, etc., because he saith that no part of the said supposed rent in the said avowry mentioned, was or is in arrear from the said plaintiff to the said defendant, in manner and form as the said defendant hath in his said avowry in that behalf alleged. And this the said plaintiff prays may be inquired of by the country, etc. Burr. App. 405, §751; 3 Chit. Pl. 1190.

F. Plea (by Defendant) Cepit en Alio Loco.

And the said C. D., defendant in this suit, by B. H., his attorney, comes and defends the wrong and injury, when, etc., and says that the said plaintiff ought not to have or maintain his aforesaid action thereof against him, because he says that he took the said cattle in the said declaration mentioned, in a certain close called the _____, in the town of _____, aforesaid, in the county aforesaid; without this, that he took the said cattle, or any or either of them, in the said place called the _____, in the said town of _____, in the county aforesaid, as the said plaintiff hath in his said declaration in that behalf alleged; and this he the said defendant is ready to verify: Wherefore he prays judgment, if the said plaintiff ought to have or maintain his aforesaid action thereof against him, etc. Burr. App. 361, §657.

G. Plea by Way of Traverse, of Cognizance That Defendant Was Not Bailiff.

And the said plaintiff, as to the said cognizance of the said defendant, saith that the said defendant, by reason of anything by him in that cognizance above alleged, ought not, as bailiff of the said L. M., to acknowledge the taking of the said (goods and chattels), in the said place in which, etc., and justly, etc.; because he saith that the said defendant, at the said time, when, etc., was not the bailiff of the said L. M., in manner and form as the said defendant hath above in his said cognizance in that behalf alleged. And this the said plaintiff prays may be inquired of by the country, etc. Burr. App. 408, §753; 3 Chit. Pl. 1190.

H. Plea in Traverse to Cognizance, No Rent in Arrear in Part, Tender in Part.

And the said plaintiff, as to the said cognizance of the said defendant, by him above made, saith that the said defendant ought not by reason of anything in that cognizance alleged to acknowledge the taking of the said goods and chattels in the said place in which, etc., and justly, etc., because, as to the sum of _____ dollars, parcel of the said rent in the said cognizance alleged to be due and in arrear, and unpaid from the said plaintiff to the said J. K., the said plaintiff saith that as part of the said sum of _____ dollars, at the said time when, etc., was in arrear, in manner and form as the said defendant hath, in his said cognizance, above alleged. And this he the said plaintiff prays may be inquired of by the country, etc. And as to the sum of ——— dollars, residue of the said rent or sum of ——— dollars, in the said cognizance alleged to be due and in arrear, and unpaid from the said plaintiff to the said J. K., the said plaintiff saith that after the ——— day of ——— in the year, etc., and before the said time when, etc., to-wit, on the ——— day of ———, in the year aforesaid, at, etc., he the said plaintiff tendered and offered to pay to the said J. K. (or to L. M., then and there being the bailiff of the said J. K., and by him duly authorized to receive the said rent and make the said distress), the said sum of ——— dollars, which the said J. K. then and there refused to accept and receive of and from him the said plaintiff; and that after the said tender, and before the said distress was so made and taken as aforesaid, no request or demand of the said sum of ——— dollars was ever made by, or on the behalf of, the said J. K. And this he the said plaintiff is ready to verify. Wherefore, inasmuch as the said defendant hath above acknowledged the taking of the said cattle (or goods and chattels), in the said place in which, etc., he the said plaintiff prays judgment, and his damages, by reason of the taking and unjustly detaining the same, to be adjudged to him, etc. Burr. App. 405, §752; 3 Chit. Pl. 1191; Yates' Forms 556.

VIII. Replications.

A. Replication to Plea to Avowry, Denial of Defect of Fences.

And the said defendant, as to the said plea in bar of the said plaintiff to the said (first) avowry of him the said defendant, says that he, by reason of anything by the said plaintiff, in that plea above alleged, ought not to be barred from avowing the taking of the said cattle in the said declaration mentioned in the said place in which, etc., and justly, etc., because he says that the said hedge and fence, in the said plea in bar mentioned, before or at the time when, etc., were not ruinous, prostrate or fallen down for want of needful or necessary making, repairing or amending thereof, in manner and form as the said plaintiff hath above, in his said plea in that behalf alleged. And of this he the said defendant puts himself upon the country, etc. Burr. App. 409, §763; Yates' Forms 561.

B. Replication to Plea to Avowry, Denial of Duty to Repair Fences.

And the said defendant, as to the said plea in bar of the said plaintiff to the said (first) avowry of him the said defendant, says that he, by reason of anything by the said plaintiff, in that plea above alleged, ought not to be barred from avowing the taking of the said cattle in the said declaration mentioned in the said place in which, etc., and justly, etc., because he says that he the said defendant, and all other the tenants and occupiers of the said close in which, etc., for the time being, from time whereof the memory of man is not to the contrary, have not repaired and amended, nor have been used and accustomed to repair and amend, nor of right ought to have repaired and amended, nor ought the said defendant before, or at the said several times, when, etc., of right to have repaired and amended, nor still of right ought to repair and amend the said hedge and fence between the said close of the said defendant, and the said close in which, etc., when, and as often as occasion hath required, to prevent cattle feeding and depasturing, or being in the said close of the said defendant, from erring or escaping thereout through the defects and insufficiency of the said hedge and fence into the said close in which, etc., and doing damage there, in manner and form as the said plaintiff hath above in his said plea in bar, in that behalf alleged. And of this he the said defendant puts himself upon the country, etc. Burr. App. 409, §762; Yates' Forms 560.

C. Replication to Plea to Avowry, Denial of Tender.

And the said defendant, as to the said plea in bar of the said plaintiff to the said (first) avowry of him the said defendant, as to the said sum of one hundred dollars, residue of the said rent, in the said avowry mentioned, says that he, by reason of anything by the said plaintiff in that plea above alleged, ought not to be barred from avowing (or acknowledging) the taking of the said cattle (goods and chattels) in the said declaration mentioned, in the said place in which, etc., and justly, etc., * because he says that the said plaintiff did not tender or offer to pay to him the said defendant the said sum of (one hundred) dollars of the rent aforesaid, in manner and form as the said plaintiff hath above, in his said plea in bar, alleged. And of this he the said defendant puts himself upon the country, etc. Burr. App. 408, §760; Yates' Forms 559.

D. Replication to Plea to Avowry, Demand After Tender.

(As in preceding form to the *, and then as follows): because he says that after the said, etc. (the day when the rent became due, as stated in the avowry), and after the said supposed tender in that plea mentioned, and before the taking of the said goods and chattels in the said place in which, etc., to-wit, on, etc., at, etc., the said L. M. demanded of the said plaintiff the said sum of (one hundred) dollars, the residue of the said rent, and required him to pay the same to the said L. M., which the said plaintiff then and there wholly neglected and refused to do; wherefore the said defendant, as the bailiff of the said L. M., well acknowledges the taking of the said goods and chattels in the said place in which, etc., and unjustly, etc., for and in the name of a distress for the said rents so due, in arrear and unpaid to the said L. M. as aforesaid; and the said rent still remains so due and unpaid in manner and form as the said defendant hath above alleged. And this he the said defendant is ready to verify. Wherefore, as before, he prays judgment, and a return of the said cattle (goods and chattels, together with his damages, etc., according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, to be adjudged to him, etc. Burr. App. 408, §761; Yates' Forms 560.

IX. Rejoinder by Plaintiff in Replevin.

And the said plaintiff, as to the said replication of the said defendant to the said plea in bar of him the said plaintiff, to the said avowry of the said defendant, says that the said defendant ought not, by reason of anything by him in that replication alleged, to avow the taking of the said cattle in the said close in which, etc., and justly, etc., because he says that, etc. (here state the subject-matter of the rejoinder, and conclude to the country, or with a verification, as in a plea in bar).

Burr. App. 410, §764. See note to Replication, Replevin, Steph. Pl. 195n.

X. Demurrers.

A. General Demurrer to an Avowry or Cognizance.

And the said plaintiff saith that the said avowry (or cognizance) of the said defendant, and the matters therein contained in manner and form as the same are above pleaded and set forth, are not sufficient in law for the said defendant to avow or acknowledge the taking of the said (cattle), in the said declaration above mentioned, in the said place in which, etc., to be just; and that he the said plaintiff, is not bound by law to answer the same. And this he the said plaintiff is ready to verify. Wherefore he prays judgment and his damages, by reason of the taking and unjustly detaining of the said (cattle), to be adjudged to him, etc. Burr. App. 399, §738; 3 Chit. Pl. 1257.

B. General Demurrer to Plea in Bar to Cognizance.

And the said defendant saith that the said plea in bar of the said plaintiff to the said cognizance of him the said defendant, and the matters in the said plea in bar contained, are not sufficient in law to bar him the said defendant from having a return of the said (cattle); and that he the said defendant is not bound by the law of the land to answer the same; and this he the said defendant is ready to verify; wherefore, for want of a sufficient plea in bar in this behalf, he the said defendant, as before, prays judgment, and a return of the said (cattle), together with his damages, costs and charges by him in this behalf expended, according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, to be adjudged to him, etc. Burr. App. 400, §740; Yates' Forms 561.

B. said that he was injured, and had sustained damage to the value of _____ dollars, and therefore he brought his suit, etc. And such proceedings were thereupon had in our supreme court, before our aforesaid justices thereof, that it was afterwards considered by the same court, that the said A. D., his damages on occasion of the taking and unjust detention of the (cattle) goods and chattels aforesaid: But because it is unknown to our said justices of our supreme court of judicature aforesaid what damages the said A. B. hath sustained, by means of the premises aforesaid, and also what is the value of the (cattle) goods and chattels, aforesaid: Therefore we command you, that by the oath of twelve good and lawful men of your county, you diligently inquire what damages the said A. B., to-wit, etc., and unjustly detained them, etc. And the said C. D. having on that day duly appeared in our said court, such proceedings were thereupon had in the said court, before our said justices thereof, that it was afterwards considered by our said court that the said plaintiff should take nothing by the said writ, but that he and his pledges to prosecute, be in mercy; and that the said defendant should go thereof without day; and that he should have a return of the said goods and chattels, and also that he should recover his damages by reason of the detention thereof, etc. And thereupon the said defendant, according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, prayed our writ to be directed to you to inquire of the said damages, and it was granted to him, etc., as by the record and proceedings thereof, still remaining in our said supreme court, before our aforesaid justices thereof, fully appears: Therefore we command you, that according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, you diligently inquire by the oath of twelve good and lawful men of your county what damages the said defendant hath sustained by reason of the detention of the goods and chattels aforesaid: And that the inquisition which you shall thereupon take, you send to our justices of our supreme court of judicature, at the _____, in the city of _____, on the _____ day of _____ next, under your seal, and the seals of those by whose oath you shall take that inquisition, together with this writ.

The people of the state of New York, to the sheriff of the county of (Washington), greeting:

Whereas C. D. was summoned to be in our supreme court of judicature before our justices thereof, to answer A. B. of a plea, wherefore the said C. D., on the _____ day of _____, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and _____, at the F., well acknowledged the taking of the said (cattle), goods and chattels in the said place in which, etc., and justly, etc. (for damage there done): Whereupon the said A. B., being afterwards solemnly called in our said court, before our aforesaid justices thereof, came not, nor did he further prosecute his writ aforesaid; wherefore it was considered in our said court, before our said justices, that the said A. B. should take nothing by his writ aforesaid, but that he and his pledges to prosecute should be in mercy, etc., and that the said C. D. should go thereof, without day, etc., and that he should have a return of the said (cattle), goods and chattels, etc. Therefore we command you, that without delay you cause the said (cattle), goods and chattels to be returned to the said C. Whereas C. D. was summoned to be in our supreme court of judicature, before our justices thereof, to answer A. B. of a plea, wherefore he took the goods and chattels of the said A. B., and unjustly detained them, etc., as it was said: And the said A. B., afterwards, in our same court, before our said justices, made default: Wherefore it was considered in our same court, that he and his pledges to prosecute should be in mercy, etc., and that the said C. D. should go thereof, without day, etc., and that he should have a return of the said goods and chattels, etc. Therefore we command you, that without delay, you cause the said goods and chattels, to-wit (specify the articles), to be returned to the said C. D.: And in what manner you shall have executed this our writ, make appear to our said justices of our supreme court aforesaid, at the (city hall in the city of New York), on the (first Monday of May) next, and have you then there this writ. And this he the said plaintiff prays may be inquired of by the country. And the said defendant likewise, etc. Burr. App. 389, §715b.

Which said judgment still remains in full force and effect, not in the least reversed, satisfied or made void. And this he, the said defendant, is ready to verify by the said record. Humbly complaining, sheweth unto your honors, the plaintiff, W. A., of, etc., that on or about ———, a certain indenture of lease was made and duly executed between E. L., then of, etc., etc., etc., whereby the said E. L. did, etc. (stating the lease to the plaintiff), as in and by the said indenture, to which the plaintiff craves leave to refer, when produced to this honorable court will appear. And the plaintiff further sheweth, that he entered upon and possessed the said farm and lands under and by virtue of the said lease; and that the said E. L. departed this life in or about, etc., and that after his death, J. H., of, etc., the defendant hereinafter named, became, by purchase or otherwise, seized of or entitled to the possession of the said farm and lands, subject to the said lease. And the plaintiff further sheweth that no notice was ever given to the plaintiff to determine or make void the said lease at the end of ——— years from the commencement of the said term of ——— years thereby demised, pursuant to the proviso therein contained or otherwise, but upon the expiration of such ——— years the said J. H. proposed to the plaintiff to enter into a new agreement as to the said farm and lands, giving the plaintiff to understand that the interest of the plaintiff therein was determined. And the said J. H., upon that occasion, as he had frequently done before, expressed great friendship for the plaintiff, and declared that it was his wish and intention that the plaintiff should continue in possession of the said farm as long as he lived. And the plaintiff further sheweth that the plaintiff can neither write nor read, and that the plaintiff fully believing that his interest in the said lease was determined, and that the said defendant, who is a man of fortune, was dealing fairly by the plaintiff, and was not intending to take any advantage of him, the plaintiff consented to enter into the new agreement proposed by the said J. H.; and thereupon the said defendant caused such agreement to be reduced into writing by one M. B., and the plaintiff set his mark thereto, but the same was not read once or in any manner explained to him, and such agreement was in the words and figures or to the purport and effect following (that is to say): (To remain one year and pay the land tax, which he was not to pay by his lease) as in and by said agreement, etc. And the plaintiff further sheweth, that, confiding in the said J. H.'s profession of friendship for the plaintiff, and in his aforesaid declarations that it was his wish that the plaintiff should continue on his said farm as long as the plaintiff lived, the plaintiff proceeded to expend considerable sums of money in erecting new buildings upon the said farm and lands, and in other improvements thereof. And the plaintiff further sheweth that in or about, etc., the said J. H. informed the plaintiff that he must either pay an advanced rent of $———, or deliver up possession of the said premises. And the plaintiff having refused to comply with such unexpected and unjust demand, the said J. H., on or about, etc., caused the plaintiff to be served with a notice to quit the said farm on the ——— day of ———. And the plaintiff further sheweth that after he had received the said notice, the plaintiff having complained to one of his relations of the great hardship of being obliged to quit his farm after he had expended so much money in improving it, in consequence of the said defendant's assurances that the plaintiff should continue on it during his life, and having, in the course of such conversation, mentioned his lease from the said E. L., his said relation desired to see that lease, and upon perusing the same read to the plaintiff the proviso therein contained, whereby it appeared that the said lease was not to determine at the end of the first ——— years, without ——— months' previous notice. And the plaintiff further showeth that he has since, by himself and his agents, repeatedly applied to the said J. H. and requested him to deliver up the said agreement of the _____ day of _____ to be cancelled, and to confirm the said indenture of lease of _____ day of _____, and return to the plaintiff the land-tax, which he has paid in respect of the said farm since the making of the said agreement, and which he was thereby bound to pay, although he was not liable to pay it by the said indenture of lease; with which just and reasonable requests the plaintiff well hoped that the said J. H. would have complied, as in justice and equity he ought to have done. But now so it is, etc. And the said J. H. has commenced an action of _____ in the _____ court, etc., etc., to obtain possession of the said premises. And the said defendant sometimes pretends that previously to the making of said agreement of the _____ day of _____, the said defendant had fully explained to the plaintiff that the plaintiff was entitled to hold the said premises under the said indenture of lease, until the end of the term of _____ years therein mentioned, and that the plaintiff was desirous to surrender and determine the said lease. Whereas the plaintiff expressly charges the contrary thereof to be the truth and that the said defendant never did in any manner explain to the plaintiff, or give him to understand that he was entitled to hold the said farm until the end of the said term of _____ years. And the defendant well knew at the time of making the said agreement of the _____ day of _____, that the plaintiff would not have entered into the same if he had been aware of his rights under the said indenture of lease, and the said defendant for that reason concealed from the plaintiff that he had such rights. And the plaintiff charges that at the time of making the said agreement the plaintiff had not the advice or assistance of any person whatsoever, but acted therein according to the suggestions of the said defendant, supposing he meant to be kind toward him, and would deal fairly by him. All which actings, etc.

And that the defendant may answer the premises; and that the said agreement, bearing date the _____ day of _____, may be decreed to be delivered up to the plaintiff to be cancelled; and that the defendant may confirm the said indenture of lease of the _____ day of _____. And that an account may be taken of what the plaintiff has paid for land-tax of the said farm since the making of the said agreement, and that the defendant may be decreed to pay the same to the plaintiff; and that in the meantime the defendant may be restrained by the order and injunction of this honorable court from proceeding in the said action of _____, and from commencing or prosecuting any other proceedings at law against the plaintiff for recovering possession of the said premises. (And for further relief, etc.) May it please, etc. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 1982.

B. Bill for Cancellation of Bond Given To Secure Payment for Supposed Interest of Testator, Etc.

Humbly complaining, show unto your honors, your orators, I. L., of, etc., farmer, and I. L., junior, of, etc., the son of your orator I. L. That T. C., late of, etc., but now deceased, and who was a coach-master and also a farmer, did, in or about the beginning of the year _____, dispose of part of his business as coach-master, and also his stage horses, to your orator I. L., junior, for the sum of $_____. And your orators further show that the said T. C. then occupied _____ farms at, etc., which were the property of F. S., and the said T. C. represented to your said orator that he was entitled to the said _____ farms for the residue of a term of _____ years, commencing as to the meadow land on _____, and as to the rest of the premises on _____, at the annual rent of $_____. And the said T. C. proposed to sell his said interest in the said _____ farms to your said orator for the residue of the said term of _____ years, at the price of $_____. And your orators show that your said orator I. L., junior, thereupon agreed with the said T. C. to purchase his said interest in the said _____ farms, for the sum of $_____, and your said orator not being prepared to pay the money, it was further agreed between them that your orator I. L., junior, in a bond for securing the said sum of $_____ to the said T. C. And your orators further show that Mr. H., the attorney of the said T. C., having, by his directions, prepared a common money bond from your orators to him the said T. C., for the payment of the said sum of $_____ and interest, your orator I. L. objected thereto, and desired to have the transaction stated in the bond, to which the said T. C. answered that it mattered nothing between them, but your said orator not being satisfied with such answer, desired the said Mr. H. to make a minute in writing of the consideration for which the bond was really given as aforesaid, and the said Mr. H. accordingly made such minute in writing, with the consent of the said T. C., and then read the same over to your orators and the said T. C., who, upon hearing it, observed that it was perfectly right, and your orators then executed said bond which bears date in or about the month of _____.

And your orators further show, that upon the execution of the said bond your orators entered into the occupation of the said _____ farms, and have ever since occupied the same; but the said T. C. never made or executed any actual assignment of his said pretended interest therein to your orators or either of them. And your orators further show that the said T. C., some time in the month of _____, departed this life, having first duly made and published his last will and testament in writing, and thereof appointed E. T., of, etc., and A. G., of, etc. (the defendants hereinafter named), executors, who thereupon duly proved the same in the proper court, and undertook the executorship thereof, and thereby became his legal personal representatives. And your orators further show that in the month of _____ last, the said E. T., as agent or steward of the said F. S., served your orators with a notice to quit said _____ farms at the end of the then current year, insisting, as the fact appears to be, that the said T. C. was only tenant from year to year of the said _____ farms, and had no power to dispose of the same to your orators for the residue of the said term or _____ years. And your orators further show that the said bond for $_____ and interest having, therefore, been given by your orators to the said T. C. without consideration, and by reason of the false representations of the said T. C. that he had such interest in the said _____ farms as aforesaid, your orators have, by themselves and their agents, repeatedly applied to the said E. T. and A. G., and have requested them to deliver up to your said orators the aforesaid bond to be canceled. And your orators well hoped that the said E. T. and A. G. would have complied with such your orators' reasonable requests, as in justice and equity they ought to have done. But now so it is, etc., _____, they refuse so to do. And although the said defendants well know that the said bond was given by your orators as a consideration for the supposed interest of the said T. C. in the said _____ farms, for the residue of the said term of _____ years, yet defendants have lately commenced an action at law in court upon the said bond, and have caused your orators to be held to bail thereon, and the said defendants threaten and intend to proceed to judgment and execution on the said bond, unless they are restrained therefrom by the injunction of this honorable court. To the end, therefore, etc. (Prayer for the bond to be delivered up and an injunction to restrain proceedings at law.) 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 1984.

C. Substance of Bill for Cancellation of Deed Obtained by Fraud.

Bill alleges that plaintiff was aged and infirm, unable to read and write, and unaccustomed to the transaction of business, that the defendant, his brother-in-law, obtained from him authority to collect his rents and take charge of his property; and some time afterwards, with intention to defraud the plaintiff, plied him with intoxicating liquors and brought him while thus intoxicated, a document to sign, fraudulently representing it to be a power to collect rents and to manage his property; that this document was not read to the plaintiff, nor was he informed of its true contents, and that he signed it with his mark, relying entirely upon said representation; that he is now informed that it was a deed of conveyance of his whole estate, to the defendant, for the nominal consideration of one hundred dollars; that the consideration was entirely nominal, that nothing was ever paid or agreed to be paid by the defendant for the land, and that the defendant never agreed to buy, and the plaintiff never agreed to sell or convey the land to him, or have any consideration or thought about such sale; that the defendant now assumed to own the entire estate conveyed in said deed, and had incumbered it with two mortgages (described in the bill) entirely without the consent, knowledge, or acquiescence of the plaintiff, and was about to convey away the whole estate, as the plaintiff feared and had reason to believe.

The bill prayed that the defendant might be restrained from further mortgaging, encumbering, or conveying the land, or exercising any act of ownership over it; that the deed to the defendant might be given up and canceled; and for further relief. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 1987; Dodd v. Cook, 11 Gray (Mass.) 495.

D. Bill for Cancellation of Contract for Fraud.

1. That on the _____ day of _____, 1865, the plaintiff was the owner of a farm situate in the town of _____, county of _____. (Describe the farm.)

2. That the plaintiff being then old, infirm, and blind, and by reason thereof incapacitated from attending properly to business, the defendants on that day fraudulently taking advantage of the plaintiff's said incapacity, procured him to sign a certain writing, without paying him any consideration therefor, and which writing they falsely and fraudulently represented to be a mere matter of form.

3. That the plaintiff has since, and on the _____ day of _____, 1865, applied to the defendants for said writing, or for information as to the contents thereof; but the defendants refused to allow him to see said writing or to give him any information concerning the same. That, as the plaintiff is informed and believes, the said writing is under seal and is a deed of said premises, and conveys the same, or some interest therein, to the defendants, and that they intend to use the same for their own benefit, and to the prejudice of the plaintiff.

Whereupon the plaintiff prays that this court will declare the same to be void, and decree that defendants produce said writing and deliver it up to be canceled, and for his costs of this suit. (Further relief.)

(Prayer for subpoena.) 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 1988.

II. Decrees.

A. Decree of Rescission and Cancellation.

This court doth declare, that the release dated, etc., obtained by the defendant C. from the plaintiff M., was a fraud on her, and ought to be delivered up to be canceled. And doth order and decree, that the said defendant C. (within, etc.), deliver up the said release to the plaintiff M.; and, in the meantime, that the said defendant be restrained from pleading or setting up the said release in bar to the action brought by the plaintiffs P. and M., in the names of the plaintiffs M. and S., upon the bond executed to them by the said defendant for the benefit of the plaintiff P.; defendant C. to pay plaintiffs' cost of suit, except so much of such costs as relate to the deposition of, etc. Liberty to apply. 3 Dan. "This court doth declare, that the plaintiff B. was induced to complete his purchase of the estates, etc., in the pleadings mentioned, by the fraudulent misrepresentations of the defendants A. and W.; and the court doth further declare, that the several agreements entered into by the plaintiff for the purchase of the said estates, etc., and carried into effect and completed by him, ought to be rescinded; and the court doth order and decree that the same be delivered up to be canceled." 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2271.

C. Decree, Settlement by Lunatic, Since So Found, Set Aside.

And it appearing by the evidence aforesaid that the indenture of settlement, dated, etc., made or expressed to be made between F. of the one part and the defendants M. and S. of the other part, was executed by the said F., since deceased, when of unsound mind, the court doth declare that the said indenture of settlement of the _____ day of _____, is null and void; and it is thereupon ordered and decreed that the defendants M. and S. deliver up the said indenture of settlement to the plaintiff to be cancelled; directions to tax, raise and pay costs of all parties out of fund in court (being the settled fund), and for transfer of the residue to the legal representatives of the lunatic. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2273; 1 Seton Dec. (Eng. ed., 1862) 648.

III. Complaints.

A. Complaint To Cancel a Contract for Fraud.

I. That on the _____ day of _____, 18—, the plaintiff was the owner of a farm situate in the town of _____, county of _____ (briefly describing it).

III. That the plaintiff has since, and on the _____ day of _____, 18—, applied to the defendants for said writing, or for information as to the contents thereof; but the defendants refused to allow him to see said writing, or to give him any information concerning the same. Declaration Against Sheriff for Escape Under Capias Ad Satisfaciendum.

I. Declarations.

A. Declaration Against Sheriff for Escape on Mesne Process.

For that whereas one J. K., heretofore, to-wit, on, etc. (the teste of the writ, or the day it issued; the former is preferable), at, etc., was indebted to the said plaintiff in a large sum of money, to-wit, the sum of _____ dollars, upon and in respect of certain causes of action (it must be stated and proved that the plaintiff had a cause of action against the party arrested), before then accrued to him, the said plaintiff, against the said J. K., and the said J. K. being so indebted, he the said plaintiff, for the recovery of his said debt (or demand), afterwards, to-wit, on the day and year aforesaid, sued and prosecuted out of the _____ court of _____ (of the people) of the state of _____, before the justices thereof, etc. (here state the capias ad respondendum, the delivery to the sheriff, and the arrest, and after stating the arrest, proceed as follows): Yet the said defendant so being sheriff of the said county of _____ as aforesaid, not regarding the duty of his office as such sheriff, but wrongfully and unjustly contriving and intending to injure the said plaintiff, and to delay and hinder him in and from the recovery of his said debt, afterwards, to-wit, on, etc., at, etc., without the leave or license, and against the will of the said plaintiff, voluntarily suffered and permitted the said J. K. to escape and go at large wheresoever he would, out of the custody of the said defendant, so being such sheriff as aforesaid; the said debt (or demand), for which the said J. K. was so arrested as aforesaid, and every part thereof, then and still being wholly unpaid to the said plaintiff. And the said plaintiff in fact saith that the said J. K. did not appear in the said court of the said people, before the aforesaid justices thereof, at the return of the said writ, according to the exigency thereof, but therein wholly failed and made default, whereby the said plaintiff hath been and is greatly injured and delayed in the recovery of his aforesaid debt, and is likely to lose the same; and thereby also he the said plaintiff hath lost and been deprived of the means of recovering his costs and charges by him paid, laid out, and expended in and about his said suit, so commenced and prosecuted against the said J. K., as aforesaid, amounting together to a large sum of money, to-wit, the sum of _____ dollars, to-wit, at, etc.

(Same as last count to the end of the statement of the delivery of the writ to the sheriff, and then proceed as follows): And the said plaintiff in fact saith that the said J. K., at the time of the delivery of the said last mentioned writ to the said defendant, so being sheriff of the said county of Oneida as aforesaid, and from thence until the return of the said last mentioned writ, was within the said sheriff's bailiwick, and the said sheriff at any time during that period might have taken and arrested the said J. K. by virtue of the said last mentioned writ, at the suit of the said plaintiff, if he would so have done; whereof the said defendant, so being sheriff as aforesaid, during all that time had notice. Yet the said defendant, so being sheriff of Oneida as aforesaid, not regarding the duty of his said office, but contriving and intending wrongfully and unjustly to injure the said plaintiff, and to delay and hinder him in and from the recovery of his debt (or demand) last aforesaid, did not, nor would, at any time before the return of the said last mentioned writ (although often requested, etc.), take or cause the said J. K. to be taken, as by the said writ last mentioned he was commanded; and the said J. K. did not appear, etc. (as in first count). Burr. App. 319, §587a; 2 Chit. Pl. 738.

B. Declaration for Rescue.

(Proceed as in the declaration for an escape, as in I, A, to the end of the statement of the delivery of the writ to the sheriff, and then state the sheriff's warrant and arrest and rescue as follows): And thereupon the said

G. H., so being such sheriff as aforesaid, afterwards, and before the return of the said writ, to-wit, on the day and year last aforesaid, at, etc. (venue), aforesaid, made his certain warrant in writing, under his seal of office of the sheriff of the said county of _____ as aforesaid, directed to the keeper of the jail of the said county of _____ as aforesaid, and to J. K. and L. M., the said sheriff's bailiffs; and thereby commanded them jointly and severally, that they should take the said E. F., if he should be found in his the said sheriff's bailiwick, and safely keep him, so that the said sheriff might have the body of the said E. F. before our said lord the king at Westminster aforesaid, on, etc. (return day), to answer to the said plaintiff in a plea, and to the said bill in the said last mentioned writ mentioned; which said last mentioned warrant, afterwards and before the return of the said writ, to-wit, on the said _____ day of _____, in the year aforesaid, at, etc. (venue), aforesaid, was delivered to the said J. K. and L. M. to be executed according to due form of law. By virtue of which writ and warrant the said J. K. and L. M., before the time appointed for the return of the said writ, to-wit, on the day and year last aforesaid, and within the bailiwick of the said sheriff, to-wit, at, etc. (some place in the sheriff's bailiwick), took and arrested the said E. F. by his body, and had him in their custody for the cause in the said writ and warrant mentioned. Nevertheless the said defendant, well knowing the premises, but contriving to injure the said plaintiff, and to deprive him of the means of recovering his said debt, afterwards and whilst the said E. F. was so in custody of the said J. K. and L. M., as aforesaid, and before the return of the said writ, to-wit, on the day and year last aforesaid, at, etc. (venue), aforesaid, rescued the said E. F. from and out of the custody of the said J. K. and L. M., and caused the said E. F. to escape and go at large, and the said E. F. did thereby then and there escape and go at large out of the custody of the said J. K. and L. M. wheresoever he would, the said plaintiff not then nor yet being paid or satisfied his said debt, and by means of the premises, the said sheriff could not have the body of the said E. F. before our lord the king, at Westminster, at the return of the said writ, nor did the said E. F. appear in the said court at the return of the said writ, according to the exigency thereof, but therein wholly failed and made default, whereby the said plaintiff hath been and is greatly injured and delayed in the recovery of his aforesaid debt, and is likely to lose the same; and thereby also the said plaintiff hath lost and been deprived of the means of recovering his costs and charges by him paid, laid out and expended in and about his said suit so commenced and prosecuted against the said E. F. as aforesaid, amounting together to a large sum of money, to-wit, the sum of _____ l, to-wit, at, etc. (venue), aforesaid. 2 Chit. Pl. 735.

II. Complaint for an Escape, Common Form.

I. That at the time of the issuing of the execution and of the escape hereinafter mentioned, the defendant was the sheriff of the county of _____, in this state.

II. That on the _____ day of _____, 18—, in an action brought in the supreme court of this state, in the county of _____ (or other court), by this plaintiff against one M. N. (or by one M. N. against this plaintiff), for wrongfully converting property (or state other case authorizing arrest), this plaintiff recovered judgment, duly given by said court, against said M. N. for _____ dollars.

III. That on the _____ day of _____, 18—, an execution against the property of said M. N. was duly issued by this plaintiff on said judgment, and thereafter duly returned wholly unsatisfied (if partly satisfied, add: except as to the sum of _____ dollars).

IV. That thereafter and on the _____ day of _____, 18—, an execution against the person of the said M. N. was duly issued by this plaintiff on said judgment, and then directed and delivered to the defendant as said sheriff, whereby he was required to arrest said M. N. and to commit him to the jail of said county _____, until he should pay said judgment, or be discharged according to law.

V. That thereafter the defendant, as such sheriff, arrested said M. N. and committed him to jail, pursuant to said execution; but in violation of his duty as such sheriff, has since, to-wit, on the _____ day of _____, 18—, without the consent of the plaintiff, permitted said M. N. to escape (or, but since then, to-wit, on the _____ day of _____, 18—, said M. N. went and was at large without the limits and boundaries of the liberties of said jail, without the assent of the plaintiff), to the damage of the plaintiff _____ dollars. 1 Abb. Forms 425.

III. Answer, Return of Debtor After Escape.

I. That the said M. (the prisoner) wrongfully, and without the privity of the defendant, escaped from his custody.

II. That before the commencement of this action, to-wit, on the _____ day of _____, the said M. voluntarily returned into the defendant's custody (or, upon fresh pursuit the defendant retook said M. into his custody), where he ever since has remained by virtue of the process mentioned in the complaint. 2 Abb. Forms 115.

IV. Indictments.

A. Indictment at Common Law Against Prisoner for Escape.

That A. B., late of, etc., yeoman, constable of our said lord the king, in and for the town of, etc., in the said county, on, etc., at, etc., within the town and constable-wick aforesaid, in the county aforesaid, did take and arrest one C. D., late of, etc., on suspicion of having committed a certain felony, in feloniously taking and carrying away one black gelding, the property of E. D. to the gaol of our said lord the king, at, etc., in the county aforesaid, there to be safely kept until he should be lawfully delivered from thence by due course of law, by virtue of which said warrant, he the said C. D. was then and there taken and detained by him the said A. B. and as he the said A. D. Indictment Against Jailer for Permitting Escape (a).

That at the assizes and general delivery of the gaol of our lord the king, holden at Hereford, in and for the county of Hereford, on, etc., before Sir R. P., knight, one of the barons of our said lord the king of his court of exchequer at Westminster, F. G., esq., U. P., esq., etc. (here set out the names of the grand jury), good and lawful men of the said county of H., then and there sworn and charged to inquire for our said lord the king, and the body of the said county of H. It was presented that W. D., etc. (here set forth the indictment). Wherefore the sheriff of the county of H. aforesaid, was commanded that he should not omit by reason of any liberty in his baili-

And thereupon at the same assizes and general delivery of the gaol of our said lord the king, holden at H., in and for the county of H., aforesaid, on, etc., aforesaid, before the said justice of our said lord the king above named, and others their fellows, aforesaid, came into court there, the said W. D. under the custody of the said Sir E. B., baronet, sheriff of the county of H. aforesaid (into whose custody in the gaol aforesaid, for the cause aforesaid he was before committed) and being brought to the bar, there in his own proper person was committed to the said sheriff, and forthwith concerning the premises, in the indictment above specified and charged on him, being asked in what manner he would be acquitted thereof, the said W. D. said that he was not guilty thereof, and concerning that for good and ill he put himself upon his country, therefore a jury was thereupon immediately commanded to come before the said justices of our said lord the king above named, and others their fellows, aforesaid, there by whom and so forth, and who were of no affinity to the said W. D. to recognize upon their oath whether the said W. D. was guilty of the felony aforesaid or not, and the jurors of the said jury, by the said sheriff to that matter impaneled and returned, to-wit, J. B., T. H., etc. (here set out the names of the petit jury), being called, came, who being chosen, tried, and sworn to speak the truth of and concerning the premises aforesaid, said upon their oath, that the said W. D. was guilty of the felony aforesaid, in the indictment above specified, in manner and form as in and by the said indictment was above against him set forth, and that the said W. D. at the time of the committing of the said felony, or at any time since, had no goods or chattels, lands or tenements, to the knowledge of the said jurors, and upon this it was required by the court there of the said W. D. if he had or knew anything to say for himself, why the court there ought not to proceed to judgment and execution concerning him, upon the said verdict; and the said W. D. prayed the court there, that the benefit of the statute in that case made and provided, might be granted unto him, and it was granted unto him accordingly. Whereupon all and singular the premises being seen and understood by the court there, it was considered and adjudged by the court there that the said W. D. should be imprisoned six calendar months, and within that time, that is to say, on Saturday, the twenty-second day of April then next, between the hours of eleven and one, should be publicly whipped for two hundred yards, at the market place in Hereford, and then discharged. And the jurors now here sworn and charged to inquire for our said lord the king, and the body of the said county of H. do further present, that afterwards, to-wit, at the said assizes, and general delivery of the gaol of our said lord the king, above mentioned, he the said W. D. so being keeper of the gaol aforesaid, in manifest hindrance of justice, and against the peace, etc. 2 Chit. Cr. L. 173.

Complaint by Teacher To Recover for Services.

"The plaintiff complains of the defendant, and says, that said defendant is a school corporation, duly organized under and pursuant to the laws of the State of Indiana, by the corporate name of The Town of Noblesville. And she further says, that, on the 22d day of December, 1871, at said town of Noblesville, she was employed by Leonard Wild, Eb. M. Morrison and John Stevenson, who were then and there acting as, and who then and there composed, the board of school trustees for said corporation. Which said employment, she avers, was then and there made with her by one James Baldwin, who then and there was the superintendent of the public schools of said corporation, and who then and there was acting as, and was, the agent of said corporation, for the purpose of employing this plaintiff. And the plaintiff avers, that by said Baldwin, the agent of said trustee as aforesaid, she was employed to teach in one of the grades of the school of said town, known as the high school of said town, for the sum of three dollars and twenty-five cents per day; that her agreement and contract with said James Baldwin, as agent of said board of school trustees, was to teach said school from date last aforesaid, to-wit, the 22d day of December, 1871, until the end of the school year in which they were then engaged, which, as she was informed by said Baldwin, would end, and which, in fact, did end, on the 27th day of June, 1872; and that the employment of the plaintiff by said Baldwin was, at the time, ratified and confirmed by said board of trustees.

"And the plaintiff avers, that, at the time she was employed by the said board of school trustees of said town as aforesaid, she was, by profession and occupation, a school-teacher, and had, at the time, the necessary license and certificate from the examiner of said Hamilton county, Indiana; that, in pursuance of said agreement and contract so made with said board of school trustees as aforesaid, she immediately entered upon her duties as teacher in said high school, in which position she continued until the 25th day of March, 1872, when she was informed by said board of trustees that her services were not longer wanted in said high school, and that she would not be permitted to teach in said school any further. And she avers, that said board of trustees brought against her no charge or accusation of any failure or wrong upon her part, but, without any cause whatever, unlawfully violated said contract and agreement, as aforesaid.

"And she further avers, that the date upon which she was dismissed from said school, as aforesaid, was at a season of the year when she could not obtain employment in her said profession elsewhere, and that she was compelled to, and did, lose from her said business all of the time from the date of her discharge as aforesaid, until the end of said school year, as aforesaid; and that, notwithstanding the foregoing contract of said board of trustees in dismissing her, as aforesaid, she continued to hold herself in readiness to teach, as directed by the board of school trustees, so far as they were in consonance with the terms of her said contract, and was ever in such readiness until the expiration of the school year for which she was employed; that she has received for her services the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars, leaving due and unpaid the sum of two hundred dollars, with the interest thereon since the date of said term as aforesaid, which sum she has demanded of the defendant, and which sum defendant refuses to pay." A. Declaration Against a Sheriff for Neglecting to Levy and Return a Fieri Facias.

(As in a declaration for a false return [next form], to the words, "to be executed in due form of law," and then as follows): And although there were then and afterwards, and before the return of the said writ, divers goods and chattels of the said J. K., within the bailiwick of the said defendant, as such sheriff as aforesaid, whereof the said defendant could and might and ought to have levied the moneys so indorsed on the said writ, and directed to be levied as aforesaid, to-wit, at, etc., aforesaid, whereof the said defendant so being sheriff as aforesaid, there had notice; yet the said defendant, so being sheriff of the said county of _____ as aforesaid, not regarding the duty of his office as such sheriff, but contriving, and wrongfully and unjustly intending to injure, prejudice and aggrieve the said plaintiff in this behalf; and to deprive him of the moneys so endorsed on the said writ, and directed to be levied as aforesaid; and of the means of obtaining the same,* did not, nor would at any time before the return of said writ, levy the said moneys, or any part thereof, but wholly neglected and refused so to do, and therein failed and made default; by means of which said premises the said plaintiff hath been and is greatly injured and deprived of the means of obtaining the said moneys so endorsed on the said writ, and directed to be levied as aforesaid, and which are still wholly unpaid as aforesaid; and is likely to lose the same, to-wit, at, etc., aforesaid.

And whereas also (set forth the same matter as in the first count, to the words, "to be executed in due form of law," and then proceed thus): Yet the said defendant, so being sheriff as aforesaid, not regarding the statute in such case made and provided, nor the duty of his office, etc. (as in first count to the *, and then as follows): did not nor would return the said writ, at the return day therein specified, nor had he then the same before the justices of the said supreme court according to the exigency of the said writ, and the form of the said statute, nor hath he since returned the said writ, but wholly neglected and refused so to do, and therein failed and made default; by means of which said premises, etc. (as in first count to the end, and then add the usual conclusion: "To the damage," etc.). Burr. App. 317, §586.

B. Declaration Against a Sheriff for a False Return.

(Title and commencement; then state the judgment to the end of the reference to the record, as in next form, and then proceed as follows): And the said plaintiff further saith that the said judgment being in full force, and the said damages (or debt and damages) remaining unpaid and unsatisfied, he the said plaintiff, on, etc. (the teste of the writ), in the year of our Lord, etc., for the obtaining satisfaction thereof, sued and prosecuted out of the said court of the said people, before the aforesaid justices thereof, at the _____ in the _____ of _____, a certain writ of the said people, called a fieri facias, directed to the sheriff of _____, by which said writ the said people commanded the said sheriff that (here recite the fi. fa. fully). Which said writ afterwards, and before the delivery thereof to the said sheriff, as hereinafter mentioned, was duly endorsed with a direction for him the said sheriff to levy (one thousand seven hundred) dollars, besides sheriff's poundage, officers' fees, and all other incidental expenses; and which said writ so endorsed, afterwards, and before the said return thereof, to-wit, on, etc., at, etc., was delivered to the said defendant, who then and from thence until and at and after the return of said writ, was sheriff of the said county of (Oneida), to be executed in due form of law. By virtue of which said writ, the said defendant, so being sheriff of the said county of (Oneida) as aforesaid, afterwards, and before the said return of the said writ, to-wit, on, etc., at, etc., and within his bailiwick, as such sheriff as aforesaid, seized and took in execution divers goods and chattels of the said J. K., of great value, to-wit, of the value of the moneys so endorsed on the said writ, and directed to be levied as aforesaid, and then and there levied the same thereout. Yet the said defendant, so being such sheriff of the said county of (Oneida) as aforesaid, not regarding his duty as such sheriff, but contriving, and wrongfully and unjustly intending to injure, prejudice and aggrieve the said plaintiff in that behalf, and to deprive him of the said moneys so endorsed on the said writ, and directed to be levied as aforesaid, and of the means of obtaining the same, had not the said moneys so levied as aforesaid, or any part thereof, before the said justices of the supreme court of judicature aforesaid, at the return of the said writ, according to the exigency thereof, and of the said endorsement so made thereon as aforesaid, but therein wholly failed and made default; nor hath he paid the said sum of (one thousand seven hundred) dollars, or any part thereof, to the said plaintiff; and at the return of the said writ, to-wit, on, etc., the said defendant falsely and deceitfully returned to the said court of the said people, upon the said writ, that the said J. K. had not any goods or chattels in his bailiwick (follow the return), as by the said writ and the return thereof remaining of record in the said court of the said people, before the aforesaid justices thereof, to-wit, at, etc., fully appears; by means of which said premises the said plaintiff hath been, and is greatly injured and deprived of the means of obtaining the said moneys so endorsed on the said writ, and directed to be levied as aforesaid, and which are still wholly unpaid as aforesaid; and is likely to lose the same, to-wit, at, etc. (A count for not levying and false return may be added.) I. Declaration.

A. Declaration on Charter Party for Failure To Furnish Cargo.

For that whereas heretofore, to-wit, on, etc. (date of charter party), to-wit, at, etc. (venue) by a certain charter-party of affreightment, then and there made between the said plaintiffs, by the name and description of Messrs. A. B. and E. F., therein described as the owners of the good ship or vessel called the _____ (whereof G. H. was then master), of the burden of _____ tons or thereabouts, then on the river Hudson, of the one part and the said defendant, therein described as the freighter of the said ship, of the other part (one part of which said charter-party, sealed with the seal of the said defendant, the said plaintiffs now bring here into court, the date whereof is a certain day and year therein named, to-wit, the same day and year aforesaid), the said plaintiffs (here set out the charter-party in the past tense, thus): let the said ship to freight for one voyage, from the Island of St. Michael's to the ports of, etc., optional to the affreighter or his agent, with liberty to take on board a cargo of coals and goods, and deliver them in her way to _____, and the said defendant hired the same in manner and form therein mentioned, to-wit, that the said ship then was, and should, during the said intended voyage, be at the expense of the said plaintiffs, the said owners, kept staunch, tight and strong, well manned, victualled, tackled and provided, in every respect fit for merchant's service, and particularly for performing such intended voyage (the dangers and perils of the seas, restraints of princes and rulers, fire and enemies, during the same always excepted); and also that the said G. H., with the said ship, after she delivered her cargo of coals and goods, should, with the first opportunity of wind and weather, proceed directly for _____, and, on her arrival there, to receive on board a full and complete cargo of fruit, in common sized boxes, at such convenient place or places where the said ship and cargo might safely come; and also that the said ship should, for her loading at _____ and delivering at _____ lay the full space of twenty working days, if required, and so to end the said intended voyage; in consideration of which, the said defendant did agree, not only to load and put on board the said ship the said cargo of fruits as aforesaid, and to receive or cause the same to be received from on board her, at _____, or _____, at the option of the said defendant, and that within the days and time limited for her loading and discharging as aforesaid, but also should and would pay, or cause to be paid, unto the said plaintiffs or their assigns, on the safe delivery of her cargo at _____, or _____, optional to the said defendant or his agent, half cash, and the remainder by an approved bill on London, at four months' date, in full for the freight and hire of the said ship for the said voyage, at and after the rate of _____ dollars per ton, of twenty common sized boxes of fruit, and in proportion for any less quantity than a ton. It was understood, in the stowing of the cargo, a well hole of two feet square was to be kept open from the keels on to the deck, opposite each hatchway, for the purpose of airing the fruit, and that the boxes must be stowed on their bottoms, and not their ends, nor edge-ways, together with the sum of eighteen dollars per day, to be paid day by day as the same should grow due, for every day of the ship's detention over and above the days and time limited for her loading and discharging as aforesaid; as also ten dollars per cent. on the amount of the above specified freight, in lieu of all port charges and pilotage; and for the true performance thereof, each of the said parties bound himself, his executors, administrators and assigns, reciprocally unto the other, especially the said plaintiffs, bound their said ship, her freight and appurtenances; and the said defendant the goods to be loaded on board her, each to the other, in the penal sum of five thousand dollars, firmly by the said charter party of affreightment, as by the said charter party, reference being thereunto had, will more fully appear; and the said plaintiffs in fact say, that the said G. H., with the said ship or vessel in the said charter party mentioned, afterwards, to-wit, on, etc., proceeded to ——— according to the meaning and effect of the said charter party, and afterwards, to-wit, on, etc., aforesaid, arrived at ——— aforesaid, and was, to-wit, on, etc., last aforesaid, ready and willing to receive on board the said ship or vessel a cargo of fruit, and would have proceeded therewith, to, etc., according to the meaning and effect of the said charter party; and the said ship or vessel was then fit and ready to receive on board a cargo of fruit, according to the meaning and effect of the said charter party; and the said plaintiffs were ready and willing that the said charter party should be performed in all things on their part, according to the meaning and effect of the said charter party, of which said premises, the said defendant afterwards, to-wit, on, etc., aforesaid, at, etc. (venue) aforesaid, had notice; yet the said defendant did not nor would load or put on board the said ship or vessel a cargo, according to the meaning and effect of the said charter party, or any cargo or part of a cargo whatever, but therein wholly failed and made default, contrary to the form and effect of the said charter party, and the covenant of the said defendant so made in that behalf as aforesaid; and the said defendant hath not paid the said plaintiffs any freight for the said voyage, or any port charges or pilotage in respect thereof; by reason of which premises, the said plaintiffs have lost and been deprived of the freight and reward, and the port charges and pilotage, and of great gains, profits, and emoluments which might and otherwise would have become due and payable to them under and by virtue of the said charter party, amounting in the whole to a large sum of money, to-wit, the sum of ——— dollars, to-wit, at, etc. (venue) by reason of which said premises an action hath accrued to the said plaintiffs to demand and have of and from the defendant, the sum of ——— dollars, mentioned in the said charter party, parcel of the said sum of money above demanded. (Add counts for freight and for the use and hire of the ship, and the money counts and account stated). Burr. App. 282, §551; 2 Chit. Pl. 426.

B. Declaration on Charter Party for Freight and Demurrage.

For that whereas heretofore, to-wit, on, etc., at, etc. (venue) by a certain charter party of affreightment, then and there indented, made, and concluded between the said plaintiff, by the name and description of, etc., master of the good brig or vessel called, etc., of the burthen of ——— tons per register, or thereabouts, then riding in the river Hudson, of the one part, and the said defendant, by the name and addition of, etc., merchant and freighter of the said vessel, of the other part (one part of which said charter party, sealed with the seal of the said defendant, the said plaintiff now brings here into court, the date whereof is the same day and year aforesaid) it was witnessed that the said plaintiff, for the consideration thereafter mentioned, did thereby covenant, promise and agree, to and with the said defendant, his executors, administrators and assigns, that the said vessel being tight, staunch, and strong, etc. (here set out the charter party, verbatim in the proper tense), as by the said charter party, reference being thereunto had, will amongst other things, more fully and at large appear, to-wit, at, etc. (venue). And the said plaintiff in fact saith, that afterwards, to-wit, on, etc., the said vessel being then and there tight, staunch, and strong, and every way properly fitted and manned for the voyage in the said charter party mentioned, the said master did then and there take, load, and receive, on board of the said vessel, a full and complete cargo of lawful goods, which, having received, and being despatched, did then and there, wind and weather permitting, immediately set sail and proceed to the island of Heligoland, where, being afterwards, to-wit, on, etc., arrived, did then and there make a right and true delivery of the whole of the said cargo to the agents or consignees of the said freighter, agreeably to bills of lading that were signed for the same, to-wit, at, etc. (venue), which cargo being then and there so delivered, the said master of the said vessel did afterwards, to-wit, on, etc., take on board the said vessel another full and complete cargo of lawful goods, not exceeding what she could reasonably carry and stow, and being so laden and despatched as last aforesaid, the said vessel did afterwards, to-wit, on, etc., set sail and proceed direct from thence to New York, where, being afterwards, to-wit, on, etc., arrived, she did then and there make a right and true delivery of the whole of the said homeward cargo to the said defendants or his agents, agreeably to bills of lading that were signed for the same, and so ended the said voyage, according to the form and effect of the aforesaid charter party, to-wit, at, etc. (venue), of which said several premises the said defendant then and there had notice. And the said plaintiff in fact saith, that the said defendant did not nor would send, or cause to be sent, alongside of the said vessel in the river Hudson, such goods as he thought proper to ship, and receive the same from alongside of her at Heligoland, and send alongside of her at Heligoland such goods as he thought fit, and receive the same from alongside of her at New York, within the time limited for those purposes, and days of demurrage in the said charter party mentioned, but wholly refused and neglected so to do, and on the contrary thereof, kept and detained the said vessel for a much longer space of time, to-wit, the space of ten days, over and above the time limited for the purpose last aforesaid, and the days of demurrage as aforesaid, contrary to the form and effect of the said charter party, and of the covenant of the said defendant so made as aforesaid, to-wit, at, etc. (venue). And the said plaintiff further saith, that on the delivery of the said homeward cargo at New York as aforesaid, to-wit, on, etc., at, etc. (venue) aforesaid, a large sum of money, to-wit, as well the sum of _____ dollars, in the said charter party mentioned, as another sum of money, to-wit, the sum of _____ dollars, being five per centum on the amount of the freight aforesaid, in lieu of port charges, and _____ dollars hat money to the master, amounting in the whole to a large sum of money, to-wit, the sum of _____ dollars, became and was due and payable from the said defendant to the said plaintiff, according to the form and effect of the said charter party, and of the said covenant of the said defendant, so by him made as aforesaid, yet the said defendant did not nor would (although often requested so to do), pay to the said plaintiff the said sum of money last mentioned in manner directed by the said charter party, to-wit, the sum of _____ dollars, being one-half in money, or any part thereof, on the delivery of the homeward-bound cargo at New York as aforesaid, or before or since, nor did nor would pay the other half, or any part thereof, by the said defendant's accepted bill, payable in New York aforesaid, at two months after the date of the said delivery of the said homeward cargo, or otherwise, however, but wholly refused and neglected so to do, contrary to the form and effect of the said charter party, and of the said covenant of the said defendant, so made as aforesaid, and the said sum of _____ dollars is still in arrear and unpaid. And the said plaintiff further saith, that the said defendant did keep the said vessel on demurrage during divers, to-wit, _____ days, over and above the said lay days in the said charter party mentioned; yet the said defendant did not nor would (although often requested), pay for the said _____ days to the said plaintiff, the said sum of _____ dollars per day, day by day, as the same became due and payable, according to the tenor and effect of the said charter party, but wholly refused so to do; and the sum of _____ dollars for the said last mentioned _____ days, at and after the rate aforesaid, became and was due and owing from the said defendant to the said plaintiff, and still is in arrear and unpaid, contrary to the form and effect of the said charter party, and of the said covenant of the said defendant, so by him made as aforesaid, to-wit, at, etc., aforesaid. (Common conclusion in covenant.) Burr. App. 294, §560; Yates' Forms 441.

C. Declaration Against Owner of Steamboat for Negligence.

For that whereas the said defendants, before and at the time of committing the grievances next hereinafter mentioned, were owners and proprietors of a certain steamboat, moved and propelled by steam, called the (Advocate), by them used and employed in carrying and conveying passengers, and goods, wares and merchandises (on the waters of the Hudson river, from Albany to Stuyvesant, in the county of Columbia, and to divers other places on and adjacent to the said river) and being such owners and proprietors of the said steamboat, the said defendants on the (fourth day of May), in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and (thirty-five), at (Albany, to-wit, at the city and in the county of Albany), received into the said steamboat (Maria, the wife, and Mary Ann, Janett, Lydia Maria, Emeline, and Edward, the children and servants of the said plaintiff), as passengers therein, from (Albany) aforesaid to (Stuyvesant) aforesaid, for certain fare and reward, and by reason thereof, the said defendants ought carefully to have conveyed the said wife and children of the said plaintiff in the said last mentioned steamboat, from (Albany) aforesaid, to (Stuyvesant) aforesaid; yet the said defendants not regarding their duty in this behalf, conducted themselves so carelessly, negligently and unskilfully in this behalf, that by and through the carelessness, negligence, unskilfulness, and default of themselves and their servants, in generating the steam for propelling the said steamboat, and in managing, regulating, and securing the same, and for want of due care and attention to their duty in that behalf afterwards, and whilst the said last mentioned steamboat was carrying and conveying the wife and children aforesaid, of the said plaintiff, as aforesaid, and before the arrival thereof at (Stuyvesant) aforesaid, to-wit, on the day and year last aforesaid, at (Coeymans), to-wit, at the city and in the county of (Albany), divers large quantities of steam escaped from the boiler and apparatus wherein the same was generated connected with the said boat, and drove into and fell upon the said wife and children of the said plaintiff, by means whereof the said wife and children of the said plaintiff, were respectively greatly hurt and injured, burned and scalded, and thereby then and there became and were very sick, sore, weak, and distempered. And the said wife of the said plaintiff, and the said (Mary Ann and Emeline), have each remained and continued so sick, weak and distempered, for a long space of time, to-wit, from thenceforth hitherto at (Coeymans), to-wit, at the city and in the county of Albany aforesaid during all which last mentioned time the said plaintiff hath lost and been deprived of the aid and assistance of his said wife, and of the said (Mary Ann and Emeline), in the management of his domestic affairs and business, and hath been forced and obliged to lay out and expend, and did actually lay out and expend, divers sums of money, in the whole amounting to a large sum of money, to-wit, the sum of (five hundred) dollars, in and about the attempting the cure of his said wife and his said several children, and the procuring necessary medicines, attendances, means of cure and assistance for them, during their said several sicknesses, weaknesses and disorders, which ensued as aforesaid from the burning and scalding, hurts and injuries, occasioned by the escape and driving of the said steam into and upon them, and each of them, as aforesaid; and the said plaintiff was thereby prevented from pursuing and prosecuting his necessary affairs and business for a long space of time thereafter, to-wit, for the space of (six weeks) thence next ensuing, and was otherwise greatly damnified and injured, to-wit, at the city and county of Albany aforesaid. (Add other counts if necessary.) Burr. App. 311, §580; Yates' Forms 383.

For that whereas the said plaintiff, before and at the time of the committing of the grievance by said defendant as hereinafter next mentioned, was lawfully possessed of a certain (barge or vessel) of great value, to-wit, of the value of ten thousand dollars, then lawfully being in the river (Hudson), to-wit, at, etc. (venue) and the said defendant was also then possessed of a certain other (barge or vessel) in the river aforesaid, to-wit, at, etc. (venue), and then and there had the care, direction and management of the same; yet the said defendant not regarding his duty on that behalf, whilst the said barge or vessol of the said plaintiff so was in the said river, to-wit, on, at, etc. (venue), took so little and such bad care of his said (barge or vessel), in the direction and management of the same, that the same, by and through the carelessness, misdirection, and mismanagement of the said defendant (or if he were not on board, "by his servants in that behalf"), then and there, with great force and violence, ran foul of and struck against the said (barge or vessel) of the said plaintiff, and thereby then and there, greatly broke, damaged, and injured the same, and thereby * divers goods and chattels, to-wit, etc. (specify them according to the exact description, or as in trover), of the said plaintiff of great value, to-wit, of the value of one thousand dollars, then being on board of the said (barge or vessel) of the said plaintiff, then and there became and were greatly wetted, damaged and spoiled; and also by reason of the premises, the said plaintiff hath been forced and obliged to pay, lay out, and expend, and hath necessarily paid, laid out and expended, a large sum of money, to-wit, the sum of one thousand dollars, in and about the repairing the said damage so done to the said (barge or vessel) as aforesaid, and also by means of the premises, the said plaintiff lost and was deprived of the use of the said (barge or vessel) of the said plaintiff for a long space of time, to-wit, for the space of _____ and thereby lost and was deprived of all the profits and advantages which during that time he might, and also otherwise would have derived and acquired from the use of his said (barge or vessel), to-wit, at, etc. (venue).

And whereas also the said plaintiff, before and at the time of the committing of the grievance by the said defendant as hereinafter next mentioned, was lawfully possessed of a certain other (vessel) of great value, to-wit, of the value of ten thousand dollars, to-wit, at, etc. (venue); and the said defendant was also then possessed of a certain other (vessel), to-wit, at, etc. (venue), and then and there had the care, direction and management of the same; yet the said defendant not regarding his duty in that behalf, heretofore, to-wit, on the day and year aforesaid, at, etc. (venue), took so little and such bad care of his said (vessel) in the direction and management of the same, that the same, by and through the carelessness, misdirection, and mismanagement of the said defendant in that behalf, then and there greatly broke, damaged, and injured the said (vessel) of the said plaintiff, and thereby, etc. (Conclude as in the first count from the asterisk. Add other counts if the case suggests any, varying the statement of the injury according to the circumstances of the case, as they may be probably established in evidence, and conclude in the usual form.) SPECIAL ASSESSMENT.

I. Complaint To Enjoin a Municipal Corporation From Deeding Land Sold for Illegal Special Assessment, 1157

II. Answer, Pleading Illegality of Assessment, 1158

III. Answer, Pleading Exemption From Special Assessment, 1158

I. Complaint To Enjoin Municipal Corporation From Deeding Lands Sold for Illegal Special Assessment.

I. That the plaintiff is the owner in fee simple of (designate his estate, e. g., thus) one undivided seventh part of four lots of land on 25th and 26th streets, in the sixteenth ward of the city of New York, bounded and described as follows—(description); the other six-sevenths being owned in fee simple by the defendants (designating which).

II. That the defendants W. and X. are the owners in fee of two lots adjoining the four above described lots; which said two lots are bounded, taken together, as follows: (description).

III. That the two lots last above described, and the two of the other four lots which front on 26th street, were sold in one parcel on the ——— day of ———, 18——, by the defendants, the mayor, aldermen, and commonalty of the city of New York, to satisfy two alleged assessments for local improvements,—one for the opening of 26th street from the Hudson river to the Bloomingdale road, and the other for setting curb and gutter in the 8th avenue from 24th street to 42d street.

IV. That the other two of the first described lots, fronting on 25th street, were sold in one parcel on the said _____ day of _____, 18____, by the said mayor, alderman, and commonalty, to satisfy two alleged assessments for local improvements,—one for opening 25th street, and the other for setting the curb and gutter aforesaid.

V. That in the proceedings relative to all the said assessments, and in the proceedings to collect the same, both fraud and legal irregularity have been committed.

VI. That the following, among others, are the frauds and legal irregularities committed, in respect to the assessment for opening 26th street:

1. That the land in the street, to the middle thereof, fronting on the said lots, belonged to the same owner as the said four lots, which owner was wrongly stated to be one M. N.

2. That the benefit above the damage was assessed at _____ dollars, for the said four lots with two adjoining lots, thus charging the owner with a large sum for taking his own property.

3. That the petition of the said mayor, aldermen, and commonalty, and the order of the supreme court thereon made, appointing commissioners of estimate and assessment, appointed them for the opening of 26th street from Hudson river to the Fourth avenue, instead of to the Bloomingdale road.

VII. That the following, among others, are the frauds and legal irregularities committed in respect to the proceedings to collect all the said assessments:

1. That notices were not left before the advertisement of sale at the residence of the owners or with the tenants on the property, which property was then occupied.

2. That the advertisement described the assessment for opening 26th street as confirmed on the _____ day of _____, 18____; whereas, if it was ever confirmed, it was confirmed on the _____ day of _____, 18____.

VIII. The plaintiff further alleges, that upon the said sales the property was bid in by the said mayor, aldermen, and commonalty, who shortly afterwards assigned the said bid for the lots on 26th street to the defendant W., and for the lots on 25th street to the defendant X.; but that no lease has yet been executed, pursuant to the said sale.

Wherefore, the plaintiff demands judgment:

1. That the said mayor, aldermen, and commonalty be enjoined from executing or delivering any lease pursuant to the sales above mentioned.

2. That the said assessments, and all proceedings to collect the same, be declared void, and set aside.

3. For costs of this action.

1 Abb. Forms. 564.

II. Answer, Pleading Illegality of Assessment.

“1. The above claim is on a municipal assessment purporting to be made by the city of Scranton against defendant's lot on Luzerne street, for the cost and expense of grading the said street, by ordinance passed Sept. 4, 1889. The said assessment against defendant's lot, as described on the lien on which the scire facias in the above entitled case was issued, was wholly illegal and void, for the reason that it was made by the foot front on measurements made by the city engineer, and not according to benefits, as required by law. That no assessments according to benefits were ever made by the city of Scranton against defendant's lot for the cost of grading, for which the above entitled action is brought to recover.

“2. The work done by the plaintiff in the grading of said Luzerne street was without authority of law or ordinance, because the grading was not done according to the grade established by ordinance, but according to another grade established by the city engineer, without authority.” Scranton v. Bush, 160 Pa. 499, 28 Atl. 926.

III. Answer, Pleading Exemption of Property From Special Assessment.

“The claim on which this writ issued seeks to enforce a charge against the property therein described, to-wit, on the south side of Spring Garden street, between Tenth street and Eleventh street, of which the defendant is the owner, for paving so much of the unpaved space of Spring Garden street as was reserved for market purposes and occupied by the old Spring Garden market sheds, and as was in front of the defendant's property.

“Deponent further saith that at the time the paving of the market plots was authorized, and when the same were paved, Spring Garden street was occupied in front of defendant's property, and for a great distance east and west thereof by the tracks of the Union Passenger Railway Company, which company was incorporated by the act of April 8, 1864, P. L., 297, which act authorized said company to lay its tracks from Seventh street along Spring Garden street to Twenty-third street. Said act, by its 8th section, provided that the said company shall be at the entire cost and expense of paving, repaving, and repairing that may be necessary upon any street where the tracks of said company may be laid.

"And deponent says that by reason of said act of assembly the ground of defendant is relieved of the cost and charge of the paving, if otherwise it was liable, and that the said railway company is, and that defendant is not, liable therefor." Dietrich v. Dietrich, 154 Pa. 92, 25 Atl. 1080.

I. Bills.

- A. Bill for Specific Performance by Vendor Against Vendee, Title in Question.

Humbly complaining, sheweth unto your honors your orator, J. C., of, etc., that your orator being seized or well entitled in fee simple of and to a certain messuage or dwelling-house with the appurtenances situate at ———, and, hereinafter described, and being desirous of selling such premises, and D. E., of, etc., being minded to purchase the same, your orator and the said D. E., on or about the ——— day of ———, entered into and signed a memorandum of agreement respecting the said sale and purchase in the words and to the purport and effect following, that is to say (stating the agreement verbatim), as by the said memorandum of agreement, to which your orator craves leave to refer, when produced, will appear. And your orator further shows that the said D. E. paid to your orator the sum of $1500, part of the said purchase-money at the time of signing the said agreement. And your orator has always been ready and willing to perform his part of the said agreement, and on being paid the remainder of his said purchase-money with interest, to convey the said messuage to the said D. E., and his heirs, and to let him into the receipt of the rents and profits thereof, from the time in the said agreement in that behalf mentioned; and your orator hoped that the said D. E. would have performed the said agreement on his part as in justice and equity he ought to have done. But now so it is, may it please your honors, that the said D. E. alleges that he is, and always has been, ready and willing to perform the said agreement on his part in case your orator could have made, or can make a good and marketable title to the said messuage and premises, but that your orator is not able to make a good title thereto; whereas your orator charges that he can make a good title to the said messuage and premises. To the end, therefore, that the said D. E. may true answer make to the premises aforesaid, and more particularly that he may answer and set forth in manner aforesaid, whether, etc. (interrogating to the stating and charging parts). And that the said D. E. may be compelled by the decree of this honorable court specifically to perform the said agreement with your orator, and to pay to your orator the remainder of the said purchase-money with interest for the same from the time said purchase-money ought to have been paid, your orator being willing, and hereby offering specifically to perform the said agreement on his part, and on being paid the said remaining purchase-money and interest to execute a proper conveyance of said messuage and premises to the said D. E., and to let him into possession of the rents and profits thereof from the said ——— day of ———. And that your orator may have such further and other relief in the premises as to your honors shall seem meet and this case may require; may it please your honors, etc. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 1907.

- B. Bill Praying Specific Performance by Vendee Against Vendor.

And your orator further sheweth, that previously to the signing of the said agreement, your orator paid unto the said S. B. the sum of $500, as a deposit and in part of his said purchase-money or sum of $2,900; and the said S. B. has since delivered up possession of the said purchased premises to your orator. And your orator further sheweth unto your honors, that he has always been ready and willing to perform his part of the said agreement, and, on having a good and marketable title shown to the said estate and premises, and a conveyance of the fee-simple thereof discharged of all incumbrances made to him, to pay the residue of the said purchase-money or sum of $2,900, to the said S. B. And your orator hoped that the said S. B. would have specifically performed his part of said agreement as in justice and equity he ought. But now so it is, etc., the said S. B. refuses to perform his part of the said agreement, and to color such refusal, he gives out and pretends that he is unable to make out a good and marketable title to the said estate and premises, and that he is willing to cancel the said contract or agreement, and to repay the said deposit or sum of $500 to your orator. Whereas your orator charges that the said S. B. is able to make out a good and marketable title to the said estate and premises, if he thinks proper to do so, but that the said S. B. refuses and declines to make out a good and marketable title to the said premises, notwithstanding your orator has required him so to do, and offered to pay him the residue of the purchase-money upon having the title made out and a proper conveyance of the said premises executed to your orator, his heirs and assigns, by the said S. B. And your orator charges that the whole of the residue of the purchase-money of the premises has been ready and unproductive in his hands for completing the said purchase from the time it ought to have been completed by the terms of the said agreement. All which actings, etc. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 1908.

C. Bill for Specific Performance by Vendor Against Vendor and Subsequent Purchaser.

(Charge of agreement to convey to third person who has notice.)

And your orator charges that the said G. K. has since contracted for the sale of the said premises to the said T. P., at an advanced price, and has actually conveyed the said premises or entered into an agreement to convey the same to the said T. P., or to some other person or persons by his order, or to his use, or in trust for him. And your orator charges that the said T. P., at the time he entered into the said contract for the purchase of the said premises, or at the time of the conveyance thereof to him, if the same have been conveyed to him, or at the time of the payment of the purchase-money for the same, if he has actually paid such purchase-money, well knew or had been informed, or had received some intimation, or had some reason to believe or suspect that the said G. K. had entered into such agreement as aforesaid with the said A. B., or into some agreement with your orator, or with some person on his behalf for the sale of said premises to your orator. And the said T. P., or the agent employed by him in the said purchase or contract, had at some or one of the times aforesaid some knowledge or intimation of the several circumstances aforesaid respecting the said premises, which had passed between your orator and the said G. K., or their solicitors. And your orator charges that the said J. F. was in fact the agent employed in the contract or sale by the said G. K. to the said T. P., as well on the part of the said G. K., as of the said T. P. And your orator further charges that, if, in fact, the said T. P. has paid the purchase-money for the said premises or any part thereof, to the said G. K., the said T. P. has had or taken some indemnity from the said G. K., or some other person in respect of such payment or of such purchase. And your orator further charges that after your orator, by the said A. B., had entered into such agreement with the said G. K., as aforesaid, and after the hay season of this year, your orator verbally agreed with the said G. K., that the hay on the farm should be left by the said G. K., and taken by your orator at an appraisement but the said G. K. has nevertheless sold and removed the said hay from the farm, to the great injury thereof, and the said G. K. has, since his said agreement with the said A. B., ploughed up more than sixty acres of land, which according to the usual course of husbandry ought to have been laid down with grass. And the said G. K. has also cut down many timber and other trees upon the said premises, and has committed and done waste and injury thereto. And the said G. K., and also the said T. P., threaten and intend to cut down other trees on and from the said premises, and to commit other waste and injury thereto. All which actings, etc. And that the said defendants may answer the premises; and that the said defendant, G. K., may specifically perform the said agreement so made and entered into by him as aforesaid with the said A. B. as the agent of your orator, your orator being ready and willing, and hereby offering specifically to perform the said agreement in all things, on his part and behalf. And that the said G. K. may be decreed to make compensation to your orator for the waste and other damage done by him to the said premises since the making of the said agreement. And that in the meantime the said defendants, G. K. and T. P., may be restrained by the order and injunction of this honorable court from cutting down any timber or other trees upon the said premises, or from committing any other waste thereon. (And for further relief, etc.) May it please, etc. (Pray subpoena and injunction against G. K. and T. P.) 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 1909.

*D. Bill for Specific Performance,

Humbly complaining, sheweth unto your honors your orator A. B., of, etc.; that C. D., of, etc. (the defendant hereinafter named), being or pretending to be seized or possessed of a message or tenement situate, etc., and being willing and desirous to let the same, he, in the month of, etc., proposed and agreed to grant unto your orator a lease of the aforesaid premises with the appurtenances, and thereupon your orator and the said C. D. duly executed or subscribed a certain memorandum or agreement bearing date, etc. (stating the agreement) as in and by, etc. And your orator further sheweth that in expectation and full confidence that a lease would have been made and executed to him of the said message or tenement and premises, pursuant to the terms of the said agreement, your orator has laid out sundry sums in repairs on the said premises to a considerable amount. And your orator further sheweth that your orator has been always ready to perform his part of the said agreement, and to accept a lease of the said premises pursuant to the terms thereof. And your orator for that purpose caused a draft of a lease to be drawn pursuant to the terms of the aforesaid agreement, and tendered the same to the said defendant for his perusal and approbation, but he refused to accept or peruse the same. And your orator further sheweth that he has frequently by himself and his agents applied to the said C. D., and in a friendly manner requested him to make and execute unto your orator a lease of the said message or tenement and premises conformably to the said agreement. And your orator well hoped, etc. (But now so it is, etc.) defendant pretends that no such agreement as aforesaid was ever made or entered into by or between the said defendant and your orator, or any agreement, or that he consented to grant a lease to your orator of the aforesaid message or tenement and premises. Whereas your orator charges the contrary of said pretences to be the truth, and so the said confederate will at other times admit; but then he pretends that he has been always ready and willing to make and execute a lease of the said message or tenement and premises, pursuant to the terms of the said agreement and in all respects to perform the same on his part. Whereas your orator charges the contrary thereof to be the truth. But nevertheless the said defendant refuses to comply with your orator's aforesaid requests to perform or fulfil the aforesaid agreement. All which actings, etc. And that the said agreement may be specifically performed and carried into execution, and that the said defendant may be decreed to execute a lease of the aforesaid message or tenement and premises to your orator according to the terms of the aforesaid agreement, your orator hereby offering to execute a counterpart thereof, and in all other respects to perform his part of the said agreement. May it please your, etc. (Pray subpoena against C. D.) 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 1911.

And the plaintiff further shows that, pursuant to the said agreement, he has paid the taxes on the said premises for the year, etc., amounting to the sum of $———. And the plaintiff further shows, that, since the making of the said agreement, to-wit, on the, etc., the said C. D. died intestate, and that during his lifetime he never made any conveyance of the said premises to the plaintiff, that the said C. D. left a widow, M. A. D., and four children, viz.: M. D., L. D., M. A. D., and J. D., all of whom are minors under the age of twenty-one years, and the sole heirs of the said C. D. That S. K., of, etc., esq., has been duly appointed administrator of the goods and estate, which were of the said C. D.; but no person, as yet, has been appointed guardian of the said minor children. And the plaintiff further shows that he is desirous of obtaining a conveyance of the said real estate, pursuant to the terms of said agreement between the plaintiff and the said C. D., deceased, and is willing and ready to pay therefor the price stipulated in the said agreement in cash, or to give his note of hand, secured by mortgage of the premises, as is provided in the said agreement, and further that he is willing to waive any claim which he has upon the heirs of the said C. D., or upon his administrator, to advance the sum of $———, upon the erection by him of the two dwelling houses on the said real estate, as the said C. D. agreed that he would do. And the plaintiff further shows that he has made application to the said M. A. D., the widow of said C. D., and ascertained that she is willing to release to the plaintiff her dower in the premises, upon having the interest of one-third part of the purchase-money secured to and paid to her during the period of her natural life, or having paid to her an amount equal to the present value of her said life interest. But by reason that the said C. D. died intestate, there is no person who has legal authority to execute a deed, whereby to convey to the plaintiff the fee of the said real estate, of which the said C. D. died seized. F. Bill for Specific Performance of Parol Agreement, Relying on Part Performance.

(The bill stated the lease under which the plaintiff claimed, and negotiations for purchase by the defendant.)

On the ——— day of ———, it was agreed by and between the plaintiff and defendant, that the defendant should give the plaintiff $——— for the purchase of the plaintiff's term and interest in the said leasehold premises under the said lease, he, the defendant, taking the plaintiff's title, such as it was, and the plaintiff consenting to do certain works to the premises, which the defendant then specified (that is to say), etc.

(Subsequent correspondence and statement of the works required by the defendant to be performed to the premises.)

The plaintiff, in pursuance of the said agreement so entered into between the plaintiff and defendant as aforesaid, performed all the works so agreed to be performed by him to the premises; and the plaintiff, in pursuance of the said agreement, and in full faith and reliance that it would be performed on the part of the defendant, permitted the defendant to enter into, and he did accordingly on, etc., enter into and remain in possession of the said premises.

The defendant, however, now refuses to perform the said agreement on his part, and he alleges that no contract has been entered into by or between the plaintiff and defendant for purchasing the said premises for the term and interest of the plaintiff therein, under and by virtue of the said indenture of lease; whereas the plaintiff charges the contrary thereof to be truth.

The defendant, at other times, alleges that he has not accepted the title of the plaintiff as shown by said indenture of lease; whereas the plaintiff charges that the defendant has accepted the plaintiff's title to the premises, and has so admitted to the plaintiff and to other persons. (Charge as to documents.) 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 1913.

G. Prayer for Specific Performance.

The plaintiff prays as follows:

1. That the agreement so made or entered into by or between the plaintiff and defendant for the purchase of the term and interest of the plaintiff in the said leasehold messuage and premises may be specifically performed by the defendant, the plaintiff being willing to perform the same so far as it remains on his part to be performed.

2. That proper directions may be given for settling an assignment of the said premises to the defendant for the remainder of the plaintiff's term therein, with a proper covenant therein to indemnify the plaintiff against the payment of the rent and observance of the covenants respectively reserved and contained in the said indenture of lease; and that the defendant may be decreed to execute such assignment or a counterpart thereof, and that upon the execution of the assignment by the plaintiff, the defendant may be decreed to pay the said purchase money of $_____ to the plaintiff, together with interest at the rate of $_____ per centum per annum, from, etc., together with the costs of this suit.

3. (For further relief, etc.) 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 1914.

H. Bill for Specific Performance of Agreement of Compromise.

The bill alleged that J. F. died on the 22d day of June, 1855, leaving the female plaintiff his sole daughter and heiress, and the defendant, her step-mother, his widow; that on the 9th day of April preceding, he had executed an instrument purporting to be his last will and testament, giving most of his property, real and personal, to the defendant, the provisions of which, as the plaintiffs then and now believed, and had good reason to believe, were induced and brought about by undue influence exercised over him in his last illness, and while he was very weak in body and mind, and the plaintiffs thereupon objected to its probate as his will; that while the probate was pending, on the 3d day of July, 1855, the plaintiffs and defendant compromised the matter by agreeing that the provisions of the will as to them should be set aside, and the testator's real estate, shares in corporations and other personal property be divided between the defendant and the female plaintiff, according to an agreement then executed by them under seal; that the plaintiffs offered to perform their part of the agreement, and to make conveyance and transfers to the defendant according to it, and requested the defendant to convey, according to the agreement, to the female plaintiff the rest of the testator's real estate, stocks, and other personal property; but the defendant declined to accept the conveyances tendered by the plaintiffs, or to execute any herself. (Prayers for relief, etc.) 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 1919; Leach v. Forbes, 11 Gray (Mass.) 506.

I. Prayer by Surety To Compel Specific Performance by Principal With Obligee, and for Writ of Ne Exeat.

And that the defendant may be decreed specifically to perform the said agreement, and to make a mortgage to the plaintiff of the said estate and premises to indemnify him against the obligation he has entered into in the admiralty court as hereinbefore mentioned. And that it may be referred to a master to settle such conveyance if the parties should differ about the same. And that the defendant may be restrained from going out of the jurisdiction of this honorable court, into parts beyond the seas or into _____, and for that purpose a writ of ne exeat regno may be issued out of and under the seal of this honorable court to restrain the defendant from going out of the state (or commonwealth) of, etc. (or into parts beyond the seas, or out of the jurisdiction of this honorable court). (General relief.) 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 1914.

It is declared that the sale and purchase, in the documents and proofs stated and shown, were fair, and that the quantity of land existed, and the title, as declared, existed, and that the description given of the premises was substantially true; and that the fact that the buildings, stated to be on lot 42, being part and parcel of the premises which were sold entire, and for one entire price, do project, in a small degree, on lot 43, being another part and parcel of the said premises, is not sufficient, nor are any of the circumstances stated in the case sufficient, to set aside the sale, or to exempt the purchaser from being holden to the performance of the contract of sale. But as the circumstance of that projection may diminish the value of the purchase below what would be its value if such projection did not exist, and may entitle the purchaser to compensation by deduction from the price he gave; it is, thereupon, ordered, that it be referred to G. F. C., esq., one of the masters of this court, to ascertain and report what, in his opinion, under all the circumstances of the case, is the diminution in value (if any) of the premises, as one entire parcel, by means of the projection below what it would be if no such projection existed, and assuming the value thereof, if the projection did not exist, at $1,400; and the question of costs is reserved. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2262; King v. Bardeau, 6 Johns. Ch. (N. Y.) 38.

"And it is ordered, that the said master do inquire whether the lease of the messuage, etc., in question, executed by the plaintiff and tendered by him to the defendant, is a proper lease; and if it shall be found that the same is a proper lease; it is ordered that the defendant accept the same, and execute to the plaintiff a counterpart thereof; but if not, that a proper lease be settled by the said master (or by the judge or by the court)." 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2263.

F. C., esq., one of the masters, etc., to settle the same; and it is ordered, that the said plaintiff do execute a counterpart of such lease to the said defendants, and that such lease and counterpart be at the equal expense of the said plaintiff and defendants. And it is ordered, that the plaintiff do pay the said defendants their costs of this suit, to be taxed by the said master. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2263; 1 Seton Dec. (Eng. ed. 1862) 620, 621.

O. Decree for Specific Performance of Agreement to Execute Mortgage.

Declare, that the agreement made, etc., and dated, etc., ought to be specifically performed and carried into execution; and decree the same accordingly; and let the defendant execute to the plaintiffs a proper deed of mortgage of the estate mentioned in the said agreement, according to the terms of the said agreement; and let all proper parties join therein as the judge (this court, or the master) shall direct; and let such indenture of mortgage be settled by the judge (this court, or the master), etc., in case the parties differ; and let the defendant deliver upon oath to the plaintiff the title deeds and documents of title relating to the said estate which are now in his possession or power; and let the defendant pay to the plaintiff his costs of this cause (including the costs of such deed of mortgage), such costs to be taxed, etc. Liberty to apply. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2225.

P. Decree Against Specific Performance, Causes Stated.

"It is declared, that from the great inadequacy in value of the lots in the village of N., which the plaintiff contracted to convey to T. E., deceased, for the two farms in the county of O., which the said T. E. contracted to convey to the plaintiff, and also from the habits of intoxication in which the said T. E. had indulged, in the last years of his life, and the mental debility produced thereby, and also from the want of readiness and ability in the plaintiff to convey a good and unincumbered title to the said lots, at the time fixed for the performance of the said contract, or at any time thereafter during the life of the said T. E., the articles of agreement mentioned in the pleadings ought not, in equity and good conscience, to be decreed to be carried into specific execution by the defendants. It is, thereupon, ordered, etc., that the bill be dismissed without costs." 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2269; Seymour v. Delancy, 6 Johns. Ch. (N. Y.) 222.

CROSS-REFERENCE:

WINDING UP CORPORATIONS:

Complaint, Action by Stockholder To Wind Up Corporation.

I. Statements of Bill by Minority Stockholders of Unfair Management, and To Enjoin Pooling in Interest of Majority.

The complainants in the bill represent that they were the owners of 203.5 shares of the capital stock of the American Glucose Company, a corporation organized under the laws of the state of New Jersey, with its general offices in Buffalo, New York, and office situate, and plant and property operated, in Peoria, Illinois; that such shares of stock are represented by a certificate issued to said Harding, July 1, 1885; that the Chicago Real-Estate Loan & Trust Company is the equitable owner of said stock as pledgee for the security of a loan, but that said Harding is the owner thereof, subject to the rights of said pledgee; that the capital stock of the American Glucose Company is $1,500,000, the shares being $100 each, but the original issue of said stock (of which the present certificate represents the reduced issue) made the said shares of said Harding 2,035 in number, and of the par value of $203,500, instead of $20,-

350; that Harding paid in property $203,500 for the original stock; that, by reason of these facts, orators became, and now are, the owners of one sixty-second part of the entire capital stock of the said American Glucose Company, if all of the stock had been issued but about $400,000 of it never was issued, but is owned by the corporation itself; that the American Glucose Company has, for many years past, been engaged in the manufacture and sale of glucose and grape sugar in Peoria; that the management during that period has been in the hands of the said Cicero J. Hamlin, late president, and his two sons, William and Harry Hamlin, and the board of directors have been and are now controlled by said Hamlin and sons; that your orators are unable to give a detailed statement of the management and administration of the affairs of the company, because the details thereof have been and are persistently, wilfully, and fraudulently concealed by the said Hamlins and their co-defendants from your orators; that the defendants have fraudulently manipulated and controlled the board of directors of said company, and conducted the affairs and business thereof fraudulently, for their own interest and profit, and in gross disregard of the interest of your orators as stockholders, and have fraudulently paid, and still pay, enormous salaries to themselves and others in the business of said company, and, by these and other fraudulent expenditures and practices, have diverted to their own use the profits of said business, and prevented the payment to your orators of such dividends as they were entitled to receive; that, during that entire period, said Hamlins and said defendants have fraudulently controlled, and still fraudulently control, all the capital stock of said company, except that owned by your orators, and a few hundred dollars of stock owned by minority stockholders; that your orators file this bill, not only in their own behalf, but also on behalf of all other stockholders similarly situated, who may see fit to come into this suit and join therein; that said fraudulent salaries paid have been more than ten times the value of the services rendered, and said sums so diverted have amounted to the sum of $100,000 a year during that period, and thereby your orators have been greatly defrauded and injured. The bill further represents that a giant pool, trust, or combine has been recently formed, for the purpose of unlawfully regulating and fixing the price of glucose and grape sugar, being articles of merchandise and commodities manufactured and sold throughout the United States and in this country.

(The bill is further set out at length in the report but is too long for insertion here. It particularly sets out the purpose to fraudulently transfer to the parties forming the pool, the plant and property of the corporation, to the injury of the minority of stockholders, by which transaction "large sums as a bonus for such unlawful and fraudulent sale go to them [the holders of the majority of stock] individually, and none of which will accrue to the benefit of your orators or the other stockholders of said company, or to the said company, and your orators, if possible, are to be frozen out and defrauded by the carrying out of said contract of sale," etc.)

The prayer of relief is as follows: "To the end, therefore, that your orators may have equity in the premises; and that the American Glucose Company, Cicero J. Hamlin, William Hamlin, Harry Hamlin, Joseph Firmenich, George Firmenich, C. H. Matthieson, F. O. Matthieson, the officers, directors, and stockholders of the American Glucose Company, the unknown owners or holders of the option given by the president of the American Glucose Company for the sale of the plant in Peoria, the unknown persons having any interest in said option or under it, all of whom are made parties defendants, may be duly summoned to answer (but not under oath, their oaths being waived); that there may be an accounting, under the order of the court; and that your orators may have decreed to them such dividends or sums as they may be found entitled to as stockholders of said stock; and to the end that all of the said defendants and agents may be restrained and enjoined from closing up the business of manufacturing glucose and grape sugar, and such other business as said American Glucose Company has hitherto engaged in in the city of Peoria, and from changing the business, and from relinquishing this branch of the business and from carrying out in any way said option for sale or transfer of said property, or any part thereof, and from aiding or assisting any of the said acts, and from selling or transferring the said plant to any pool, trust, or combine, or any association, corporation, or individual, in violation of the laws of Illinois, or to any person, or corporation or pool, or trust, or association, etc., to enable them to regulate or fix the price of glucose, or grape sugar, or by-products, or to fix the amount to be manufactured of same, and from any other violations of said acts of the general assembly of Illinois, approved June 11, 1891, and amended in 1897, and also act approved June 20, 1893; and that a receiver may be appointed of the said American Glucose Company to take charge of and protect and preserve its plant and property, and manage same, under the orders of this court; and that such injunction may be made perpetual; and to the end that your orators may have such other and further and different relief in the premises as equity may require." Harding v. American Glucose Co., 182 Ill. 551, 55 N. E. 577, 64 L. R. A. 738, 746.

II. Statement of Allegations by Minority of Gross Mismanagement.

"The petitioners alleged that the Webbs voted enormous and exorbitant salaries to each other, and voted and paid over to S. J. Webb and to Webb & Bro. large sums of money by way of royalties for the use of so-called improvements, which allowances were unauthorized and unjustifiable under the charter, but were grossly excessive; and that all this was done for the sole purpose of absorbing the revenues of the company and defrauding the petitioners. They alleged, further, that the Webbs were holders of a majority of the stock of the company, and had the management of its affairs entirely in their own hands, as well as all the funds of the company, and were so conducting the business of the company as to divert to themselves all the profits of the company, which were large, and so as to defraud the petitioners of their rights, all of which amounted to gross mismanagement of the affairs of the company and made the appointment of a receiver necessary. *Crichton v. II. Complaint by Vendor of Land Subject to Mortgage, 1180

III. Complaint by Purchaser Where Foreclosure Was Set Aside, 1181

I. Complaint by Fire Insurance Company To Be Subrogated to Insurer's Rights, by Statute.

"Plaintiff alleges that the T. A.

Miller Lumber Company is and at all times herein stated was a corporation duly organized and existing by law. That plaintiff Lumbermen's Mutual Insurance Company is, and at all times herein stated was, a corporation duly organized and existing by virtue of the laws of the State of Illinois and engaged in the business of insuring property owners against loss or damage by fire. That defendant, Kansas City, Fort Scott and Memphis Railroad Company, is, and at all times herein-after stated was, a corporation, and was engaged in operating a railroad through the town of Ash Grove, in the State of Missouri, and was using and operating thereon steam engines and locomotives.

"That at the time of the issuing of the policy of insurance, hereinafter mentioned, and on the 6th day of April, 1894, the T. A. Miller Lumber Company was the owner of a certain stock of lumber, lath, shingles, sash, doors and other stock such as is usually kept for sale in country lumber yards, also of a certain brick office building and certain office furniture and fixtures therein contained, and also of certain lumber sheds, all situated on lots 2, 3, 4, 5, in Brok and Ralph Watkin's Railroad Addition to the town of Ash Grove, Missouri. That on the 13th day of December, 1893, in consideration of a certain premium to it paid by said T. A. Miller Lumber Company, the Lumbermen's Mutual Insurance Company issued to said T. A. Miller Lumber Company a certain policy of insurance, insuring it against loss or damage by fire to the property hereinbefore specified, for the period of one year from said date, to the amounts and as follows: $2,000 on said described stock of lumber; $250 on said described brick office building and the furniture and fixtures therein contained, and $250 on said described lumber sheds.

"That on the 6th day of April, 1893, and while said policy of insurance was in full force and effect, the said stock of lumber, laths, shingles, sash, doors and other stock in trade, being of the reasonable cash value of $2,517.24, was wholly destroyed by fire, and said brick office building was damaged by fire to the amount of $150, and said lumber sheds, being at the time of the reasonable cash value of $395.60, were wholly destroyed by fire.

"That the fire which destroyed and damaged said property was communicated thereto by a locomotive engine being used by defendant upon its said railroad.

"That by reason of said fire said Lumbermen's Mutual Insurance Company became liable to pay to said T. A. Miller Lumber Company the sum of $2,400, and by virtue of the terms of said policy of insurance, which sum said Lumbermen's Mutual Insurance Company has long since paid. That upon the payment of said sum the said Lumbermen's Mutual Insurance Company became and was subrogated to all the rights of the said T. A. Miller Lumber Company against said defendant for the recovery of said sum of money, twenty-four hundred dollars, by reason of the destruction of said property by fire, communicated thereto by a locomotive engine of defendant as aforesaid.

"That by reason of all the premises aforesaid, an action has accrued to plaintiff against defendant, and plaintiff alleges that it has sustained damages in the sum of $3,013.42, for which it asks judgment, and for costs." Lumbermen's M. Ins. Co. v. Kansas City, etc. R. Co., 149 Mo. 165, 50 S. W. 281

II. Substance of Complaint for Subrogation by Vendor of Land Subject to Mortgage, Compelled To Pay.

"That, on the 20th day of September, 1861, the plaintiff was the owner of certain lands in Ripley county, which are described; that on said day he executed a mortgage of the same to Stephen C. Prebble, to secure a certain indebtedness, set forth in the mortgage; that on the 20th day of April, 1864, the plaintiff and his wife sold and conveyed said lands to Henry H. Wise, who, as a part of the purchase money therefor, assumed the payment of said indebtedness set out in the mortgage to Prebble, which agreement was set forth in the conveyance to Wise; that said Wise, on the 31st day of August, 1864, sold and conveyed said real estate to Joshua Buchanan, who, also, as a part of the purchase money, agreed to pay said indebtedness secured by the mortgage of plaintiff to Prebble, which agreement was inserted in the conveyance from Wise to Buchanan; that Buchanan, on the 15th day of December, 1866, sold and conveyed said real estate to James M. Risk, the appellant, and said Risk agreed, as a part of the purchase money, to pay off and satisfy the indebtedness secured by said mortgage, which agreement was inserted in the conveyance he received from Buchanan. The mortgage and the several conveyances, containing the agreements as above averred, are made exhibits.

The plaintiff further avers that, on the 6th day of October, 1875, Prebble, the mortgagee, recovered judgment against the plaintiff, in the Jennings circuit court, for eighty-three dollars and seventy cents, which was a part of the indebtedness secured by the mortgage; that the plaintiff, on the 26th day of May, 1876, paid said judgment and the costs thereon, which amounts are still due and unpaid. Prayer to be subrogated to the rights of Prebble under the mortgage, and for judgment and decree of foreclosure," etc. Risk v. Hoffman, 69 Ind. 137.

III. Substance of Complaint for Subrogation by Purchaser, Where Previous Foreclosure Was Set Aside.

John Radley, in 1839, being seized of the land in question, mortgaged it to Jesse L. Holman, school commissioner, to secure the payment of one hundred dollars, borrowed from the school fund, with interest. In default of payment, the school commissioner, in 1842, sold the land at public sale, to pay the debt. James Muir became the purchaser of the land at this sale. In 1848, Muir sold and conveyed the land to John Mullen, with covenants of warranty. Mullen took possession of the land and made lasting and valuable improvements thereon. In 1862, the heirs of James Radley, who had died in the meantime, brought suit against Mullen to obtain possession of the land. In this suit the sale made by Holman to James Muir was declared void for want of proper notice, and, in 1864, the Radley heirs recovered judgment and obtained possession of the land against Mullen, who then sued the appellants as heirs at law of James Muir on the covenants of warranty in the deed of James Muir to him, and recovered judgment against them, which they paid. The Radley heirs then conveyed the land to John G. Berkshire, and Berkshire to George W. Hunter, who now claims to be the owner, of all of which proceedings Berkshire and Hunter had notice. Muir v. Berkshire, 52 Ind. 149.

I. Bills.

A. Supplemental Bill To Restrain Action at Law.

Humbly complaining, sheweth unto your honors your orator J. K., of, etc., that in or as of _____ term _____, your orator exhibited his original bill of complaint in this honorable court against H. B. S., and which said bill has been amended by order of this honorable court, thereby praying that the said defendant might be decreed specifically to perform his agreement with your orator, touching the lease of the farm and premises in the said bill mentioned, and to grant your orator a lease thereof for _____ years, commencing from the expiration of his former lease, at the yearly rent of $_____, your orator being ready and willing to do and perform everything on his part required to be done and performed in pursuance of the said agreement. And your orator further sheweth that the said defendant appeared and put in his answer to the said original bill; as by the said bill and answer now remaining as of record in this honorable court, reference being thereto had, will appear. And your orator further sheweth, by way of supplement, that since the filing of the said original bill the said defendant has caused an action of ejectment to be commenced in the _____ court _____, for the purpose of turning your orator out of possession of the said farm and premises, and the said action is still depending in the said court. And your orator being advised that the said defendant cannot support such action, and that your orator is entitled to a specific performance of the said agreement as prayed by his said amended bill, he has by himself and his agents several times applied to and requested the said defendant to desist from proceeding in the said action, and he was in hopes that he would have complied with such fair and reasonable requests, as in justice and equity he ought to have done. But now so it is, etc., the said H. B. S. refuses, etc., and insists upon proceeding in his said action, and to turn your orator out of possession of the said farm and lands, to the manifest wrong and injury of your orator in the premises. To the end, therefore, etc.

And that the said defendant may be restrained by the injunction of this honorable court from proceeding in the said action, and from commencing any other action or proceeding at law for the purpose of turning your orator out of possession of the said farm and lands. May it please, etc. (Pray subpoena and injunction against H. B. S.) 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2085.

B. Supplemental Bill, Extension of Patent.

E. H., Jr., of B., in the state of N. Y., and a citizen of the state of N. Y., brings his supplemental bill against C. W. W., of said Massachusetts.

And thereupon your orator complains and says, that he filed his original bill against the defendants in this court, August 9th, 1859, wherein he prayed for a discovery, account, payment of profits, and an injunction to restrain the said defendants from infringing your orator's patent, granted to him by the United States of America, for improvement in sewing machines, dated September 10th, 1846, and for other relief, as stated in his said original bill.

And your orator further shows, that since the filing of his said original bill, namely, on the eighth day of September, in the year eighteen hundred and sixty, upon the application of your orator, and after due proceedings had in all respects as required by law, the commissioner of patents granted the extension of said patent for the term of seven years from and after the expiration of the first term thereof, viz.: the tenth day of September, 1860, and made a certificate of such extension thereon, and entered the same on record in the patent office in due form of law; and thereupon the said patent was renewed and extended, and now has the same effect in law as though it had been originally granted for the term of twenty-one years, as in and by said certificate or a certified copy thereof here in court to be produced, will more fully appear. Yet the said defendant, well knowing the premises, but contriving how to injure your orator, and without his consent or allowance, and without right and in violation of said letters patent and your orator's exclusive rights, secured to him as aforesaid, from September 1st, 1857, has made, used, or vended, and still does make, use, or vend to others to be used in said district and in other parts of the United States, a large number of sewing machines, but how many your orator cannot state, but prays that the defendant may discover and set forth, each embracing substantially the improvement in sewing machines, or a material part thereof, patented by your orator as aforesaid, and thereby the said defendant has infringed, and still does infringe, and cause your orator to fear that in the future he will infringe upon the exclusive rights and privileges intended to be secured to your orator in and by his said letters patent.

To the end, therefore, that the said defendant may, if he can, show why your orator should not have the relief herein and in his said original bill prayed; and may, under oath and according to his best and utmost knowledge, remembrance, information, or belief, full, true, direct, and perfect answer make to all and singular the premises, and more especially, may answer, discover, and set forth, whether during any and what period of time since September 1st, 1857, and where he has made, used, or vended to others to be used; for any and what consideration, if any, and how many sewing machines; and whether or not the same embraced the said improvement in sewing machines, or any substantial part thereof, patented to your orator as aforesaid, or how the same differed from your orator's said patent, if at all.

And that the said defendant may answer the premises, and may be decreed to account for and pay over to your orator all gains and profits realized from his unlawful making, using, or vending of sewing machines, embracing said improvement patented to and vested in your orator as aforesaid; and may be restrained, by an injunction to be issued out of this honorable court, or by one of your honors, according to law in such case provided, from making, using, or vending any sewing machines embracing said improvement, or any substantial part thereof, patented to your orator as aforesaid, and that the infringing machines, now in possession or under the control of the defendant, may be delivered up to your orator or be destroyed; and for such further and other relief in the premises as the nature of the case may require, and to your honors may seem meet. May it please your honors, etc. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2079.

Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2352.

B. Order To Carry on Suit Against Assignees of Bankrupt or Insolvent Defendant.

like manner as, etc. 3 Dan. Ch. PL & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2352; 2 Seton Dec. (Eng. ed. 1862) 1175.

E. Order for Leave To Make Supplemental Pleading.

(Recitals as in III, D.)

Ordered, that the defendant (or, plaintiff) be allowed to make a supplemental answer (or, complaint) herein, setting up payment of the note in suit (or, as proposed by him); such answer (or complaint) to be served upon the attorney for the plaintiff (or defendant) within _____ days from the entry of this order (the issue to stand as of the _____ day of _____, 18____). 2 Abb. Forms 206.

IV. Complaints.

A. Supplemental Complaint in Creditor's Suit To Set Aside Assignment.

(Title of the cause, naming among the defendants the assignees now joined as parties.)

The plaintiff, by way of supplement to their original complaint, and on behalf of themselves, and all other creditors of M. N. & Co., entitled under the original complaint to come in, and who may come in and contribute to the expenses of this suit, complain and allege:

First. That on the _____ day of _____, 18____, they commenced their action in this court against the defendants (naming the debtors) by the service of a summons and copy of complaint, to which complaint the plaintiff's refer as if the same were herein repeated, and as part of this supplemental complaint.

Second. That an injunction was granted, pursuant to the said complaint, restraining the said defendants from making any assignment or disposition of the property owned by the firm of M. N. & Co. in the month of ———, 18——, or the proceeds thereof. That at the time of service of the said summons and complaint, the said injunction was duly served on all the said defendants.

Third. That after the service of the said injunction, the said defendants, in violation thereof, executed an assignment to the present defendants (naming assignees) of all the property of the firm of M. N. & Co., including a large amount of property owned by the said firm in the month of ———, 18——, and a large amount of the proceeds of other property also belonging to the said firm in the said month.

Fourth. That, as the plaintiffs are informed and believe, the said (assignees) had notice of this action and of the said injunction at the time of the execution and delivery of the said assignment.

Fifth. That, as the plaintiffs are informed and believe, the said assignment was upon some trust for the payment of creditors of the said firm, with certain preferences to a large amount to a part of their creditors, not including the plaintiffs, and in violation of the agreement alleged in the said original complaint; and the property thus assigned is not sufficient to pay the debts which the said firm owed in said month of ——— last, and still remaining unpaid.

Sixth. That the said (debtors) have recently, in the most public manner, stated that they owed, at the time of their failure in ——— last, three million dollars, two millions of which they claim to have satisfied; they also as openly state their losses in disposing of a portion of their stock of goods, and their store expenses, and expenses in making collections, at six hundred thousand dollars since their failure in ——— last, and the plaintiffs believe and insist that there has been an unwarrantable sacrifice of their best assets.

Seventh. That, as the plaintiffs are informed and believe, the said firm, and all the members thereof, were, in ——— last, when they obtained the extension mentioned in the original complaint, and have ever since been, largely insolvent.

Eighth. That it was a condition of the said extension that all the creditors of the said firm should come into it, and the extension given by the plaintiffs was upon that condition; but in fact only about one-third of the creditors did come into it, and this fact was concealed from the plaintiffs; they received the extended notes on the faith of the extension having been agreed to by all the creditors.

Ninth. That if the said assignment is carried into effect, the plaintiffs will receive as their dividend not more than fifty per cent. of their demands, as they are informed and believe. The said (assignees) are not of sufficient pecuniary responsibility or business experience to be intrusted with so large an amount of property; the said O. P. was formerly a clerk of the said M. N. & Co., and the said Q. N. is a son of M. N., and, as the plaintiffs believe, will be entirely under the control and direction of said M. N., and the said assignment is merely a cover to enable the said M. N. to keep the property in his own possession.

Wherefore, the plaintiffs demand judgment as in the original complaint demanded, and that the said assignment be set aside, that the property assigned be delivered to a receiver, and distributed equally among all the creditors of M. N. & Co. who were such in ——— last; and that in the meantime the defendants be restrained by injunction from disposing of any of the said assigned property. 2 Abb. Forms 177.

B. Supplemental Complaint in Action To Enjoin Violation of Agreement Not To Continue Trade.

The plaintiff, for a supplemental complaint herein alleges:

I. That, immediately after the commencement of this action by the service of the summons and complaint upon the defendant Y. Z., by the said defendant, anticipating the service of an injunction upon him to stay the proceedings complained of in the original complaint, made a pretended transfer of his business to one W. X., whose name the defendant has ever since carried on a lithographic business at No.

_____ street, in the city of New York.

II. That the said W. Z., is a roofer by trade, having a place of business at _____, in _____, and is entirely unacquainted with the business of lithography; that he is a brother of the defendant, and allows his name to be used as an accommodation to the defendant, at the request of the latter, and does not in reality carry on the said business of lithography at all.

III. That the defendant openly superintends the lithographic business so pretended to be carried on by W. Z., that he takes all the orders, makes all the estimates, directs the workmen, and collects the proceeds of the business, and does in fact wholly conduct the same; and has put up a placard announcing his presence there.

IV. That the stock, including presses, stones, drawings, and all the other property employed in the conduct of the said lithographic business, with the exception of a very few articles newly purchased, consists of the identical materials which were apportioned to the defendant, upon the dissolution of the late firm of A., B. & Z., as the defendant's share of the stock of the said firm.

V. That the defendant has thus continued, under the pretended proprietorship of his brother, the same business in the same building in which he was himself carrying on business, in violation of the agreement mentioned in the original complaint, employing the same materials and the same workmen, in the execution of the same work, including certain orders given to the defendant by his customers; and that there is no apparent change in the conduct of the said business, further than in the substitution of the name of "W." for that of "Y. Z."

VI. That this pretended change of ownership is in every respect fictitious, and is a mere fraud and trick, concerted between the defendant and his said brother, for the purpose of defrauding the plaintiff and evading the injunction of this court; they knowing that many customers of the said late firm did not know the defendant's Christian name, and would suppose that the said W. Z. was really the defendant.

VII. That the defendant resides with his family in the county of _____, in his own house, and never comes to the neighborhood of the said No. _____ street, except for business purposes, that building being occupied exclusively as a place of business, and not as a residence.

VIII. That the plaintiff has continued to carry on the business of lithography ever since the dissolution of partnership between himself and the defendant, and now continues such business at No. _____, _____ Row, in said city, being more than one and less than four blocks distant from the premises occupied by the said partnership at the time of its dissolution. That the plaintiff is abundantly able and willing to supply the public with every species of lithographic work, and that there are many other establishments of the same kind in the said city, more than enough to supply the public demand.

IX. That the acts of the defendant herein complained of have greatly damaged the plaintiff, and will, and do, injure him to an extent for which pecuniary damages will be an inadequate compensation.

Wherefore, the plaintiff demands judgment:

1. That the defendant, his agents and servants, be restrained by injunction from carrying on, superintending, working in, advising about, aiding, assisting, or attending to or upon, any business carried on at No. _____, _____ street, in the city of New York, or within one block thereof in any direction, whether such business be conducted in his own name or in the name of any other person; and also from putting or keeping up any sign or mark, or publishing any announcement, indicating his continuance in the said building or the said vicinity, or the continuance therein of any person in whose business the defendant may be interested, either as a principal or as a servant, for the term of _____ from the _____ day of _____, 18____.

2. For five hundred dollars damages, and for costs. 2 Abb. Forms 179.

C. Supplemental Complaint, Allegation of Ignorance, Matters Before Suit.

(Commencement and allegation of the new matter, as in other cases.)

II. That, to the best of their recollection and belief, the plaintiffs (or, the defendants) were ignorant of the facts stated in this supplemental complaint (or answer) when their former complaint (or answer) was made.

Wherefore, etc. 2 Abb. Forms 181.

SPECIAL ASSESSMENT:

Complaint To Enjoin a Municipal Corporation From Deeding Land Sold for Illegal Special Assessment; Answer, Pleading Illegality of Assessment.

I. Complaint for Collection of Personal Tax From Manufacturing Corporation.

In a plea of debt for that the said defendant corporation on the first day of April, A. D. 1897, was the owner of a saw-mill, wharf and landing-place in said Farmingdale; that it was also on said date the owner of certain personal property, to-wit: four million feet of logs of the value of twenty thousand dollars; that said company was then, and there occupying said saw-mill, wharf and landing-place for the purpose of employing said logs in trade, to-wit: of manufacturing said four million feet of logs into lumber, and selling the same in the open market; that said defendant company was liable to be taxed in said town of Farmingdale for said logs and the assessors of taxes of said town for the year of 1897, duly elected and legally qualified, assessed upon said defendant company on said logs the sum of two hundred and twenty-five dollars, said sum being said defendant's proportion of the town, county and state taxes of said year 1897. And the assessors did on the first day of June, 1897, make a perfect list of said taxes under their hands and commit the same to the hands of John H. Burnham, collector of said town for said year, who was duly elected and duly qualified with a warrant in due form of law for said year, under their hands of the date aforesaid; that said John H. Burnham died on the 16th day of January, 1898, without having completed the collection of taxes committed to him for the year 1897, and that Georgie T. Burnham, of said Farmingdale, was duly appointed by the selectmen of said Farmingdale, to perfect the collection of taxes of said John H. Burnham, deceased, and was duly qualified by law therefor on the 31st day of January, 1898; and the plaintiffs aver that the said tax was duly and seasonably demanded of said defendant company by said collector prior to the commencement of this suit. Said plaintiffs further aver that the selectmen of said town did, on the 6th day of January, 1899, direct in writing the collector of taxes of said town to commence an action of debt in the name of the inhabitants of said town against said Berlin Mills Company for the collection of said tax and interest due thereon; whereby and by reason of the statute in such cases made and provided, the defendant company became liable and an action hath accrued to the plaintiffs, to have and recover of the defendant company the sum of two hundred and twenty-five dollars. Farmingdale v. Berlin Mills Co., 93 Me. 333, 45 Atl. 39.

II. Complaint for Recovery of Tax Paid Under Protest.

"The plaintiff is a joint stock association duly organized and existing under the laws of the state of New York. The defendant, Frank Ratterman, is, and at the times hereinafter mentioned, was treasurer of Hamilton County, Ohio.

"The principal office of the plaintiff is, and during the time hereinafter mentioned was, in the city of New York. During said time, it has been, and now is, engaged in the express business, and is an express company within the meaning of the Revised Statutes of Ohio, sec. 2777, with an office in the city of Cincinnati and other points in said county, and doing an express business between said offices in said county and other points in the state of Ohio and in other states.

"Plaintiff's horses, wagons, furniture and other property in the state have been and are taxed like other property in said state.

"In the month of May, 1886, the plaintiff delivered to the auditor of said county a statement, as required by Rev. St. Ohio, sec. 2778, showing the receipts of said plaintiff in said county for the year next preceeding, in the carrying on of its said business, which said gross receipts amounted to the sum of $31,776.00, a large portion of which was for business done by the plaintiff between its offices in said county, and points outside of the state of Ohio. That is to say, said receipts were largely for business and transportation pertaining to commerce between the states, and not for business and transportation between different points within the state of Ohio. And thereupon, said auditor assessed a tax on said receipts for said year amounting to $805.84. And the defendant required the plaintiff to pay the same; and the plaintiff did make payment thereof, to-wit: one-half thereof, $402.92, on December 20, 1886, and a like amount on June 20, 1887.

"At the time of making said payment, the plaintiff duly protested against paying said tax, on the ground that the same was unlawful and in violation of the Constitution of the United States. And said payment was made by the plaintiff to avoid the penalties, disabilities and punishments provided by Revised Statutes Ohio, section 2843, which the defendant would otherwise have enforced, to the interference, stoppage and destruction of the plaintiff's business.

"The plaintiff says that said taxes so assessed against it and paid by it under protest, were illegal and void and in violation of the Constitution of the United States; and it prays to recover from the defendant said sum of $805.84, with interest on one-half thereof from December 20, 1886, and on one-half thereof from June 20, 1887, and for its costs, and for all other relief to which it may be entitled." Ratterman v. Express Co., 49 Ohio St. 608.

III. Judgment of Foreclosure of Lien for Back Taxes.

"Now, on this day comes plaintiff by his attorneys and this cause coming on to be heard and it being proven to the satisfaction of the court from the affidavit of John Ray, publisher of the Cassville Democrat, that defendant had been duly notified of the bringing, object and general nature of this action by publication in the Cassville Democrat, a weekly newspaper published in this county and state for four weeks successively, the last insertion thereof being at least four weeks before the first day of the present term of this court, by which said notice the defendant was required to appear at this term, and on or before the third day thereof answer to plaintiff's petition, or the same would be taken as confessed and judgment rendered accordingly and it further appearing to the court that the defendant herein has failed to appear in anywise, but herein makes default and the court proceeding to hear the cause finds from the evidence adduced by plaintiff that this is an action founded on a duly certified tax bill filed with plaintiff's petition whereby it appears that the back taxes for the years in the amounts hereinafter mentioned inclusive of interests, costs, etc., now due and constituting a charge and lien upon the following described tract of land, to-wit: (description and itemized statement of taxes by years).

It is, therefore, considered, ordered and adjudged by the court that plaintiff have judgment for and recover the said sums amounting, in the aggregate, to $33.11, together with ten per cent. thereon as costs for attorneys' fees in this suit amounting to $3.31, and his other costs. It is further adjudged and decreed that the said lien of the state of Missouri upon said land be foreclosed, and that the real estate above described, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy this judgment and costs be sold: that to that end a special fieri facias issue in the usual form to the sheriff of this county against the said land." Gibbs v. Southern, 116 Mo. 204, 22 S. W. 713.

TELEGRAPHS AND TELEPHONES.

Complaint by Addressee for Failure To Deliver Message.

"That the defendant, the Western Union Telegraph Company, was, at the time of the grievances hereinafter stated, and is now, a corporation duly organized and incorporated under the laws of the state of New York, and as such was and is doing business in the state of Kansas, and was and is owning and operating a telegraph line in the state of Kansas, between the city of Topeka, in and through Shawnee county, and the city of Delphos, Ottawa county, in the state of Kansas, and was then and is now engaged as a common carrier for hire, in sending messages for the public, by means of such telegraph between said points.

"Plaintiff further states, that on or about the 14th day of September, 1885, he was temporarily at the city of Delphos, in the state of Kansas, and that on or about said date the plaintiff, by his agent, John G. West, made and entered into a contract with defendant, its agents and employees, at the city of Topeka, which, in consideration of the sum of forty cents to it paid by plaintiff, undertook, promised and agreed to transmit and deliver, without unnecessary delay, a certain telegraphic message to plaintiff, at the city of Delphos, state of Kansas, where plaintiff was temporarily residing as aforesaid, which message was in words and figures following, to-wit:

"'North Topeka, Kansas, September 14, 1885.—To George West, Delphos, Kansas, care of post office: Uncle Sam died last night; funeral Wednesday.'

John G. West.'

"That plaintiff, by his agent as aforesaid, then and there paid defendant forty cents, the regular consideration and price by it charged for transmitting and delivering said message from the city of Topeka to the city of Delphos in the state of Kansas, which consideration was then and there accepted by defendant, and for which it agreed, without unnecessary delay, as aforesaid, to transmit said message to plaintiff at the city of Delphos as aforesaid, and deliver the same to plaintiff in person, or in care of the post office, at said city of Delphos; that although defendant well knew the whereabouts of plaintiff, and the post office, in the care of which said message was sent at said city of Delphos, state of Kansas, and could and should have delivered the same to plaintiff as aforesaid at the same time it was sent, yet defendant, its agents and employees, willfully and in gross neglect of duty failed and refused to deliver the same to plaintiff, or to the post-office as aforesaid, within a reasonable time, but grossly and maliciously neglected and failed to deliver said message to plaintiff when called for by him in person, and never delivered the same to plaintiff or in care of the said post-office as by its contract it had obligated itself to and was bound to do.

"Plaintiff further avers, that at the time of the said grievances he was seventy-three years of age, and had an only brother, Samuel C. West, who was seventy-six years of age, and who resided in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and that said telegram was to notify plaintiff of the death of his said brother Samuel, which was then and there to the defendant, its agents and employes, well known, and whose funeral the plaintiff desired to and would have attended, but for the gross negligence of defendant, its agents and employes, to deliver said message to plaintiff, as by the contract it obligated and bound itself to do; that the funeral of the said Samuel C. West, deceased, was deferred so that plaintiff could attend the same, and which the plaintiff intended to and would have done, if said telegram had been delivered within a reasonable time, in accordance with said contract, but in consequence of the failure and gross and malicious negligence of the defendant, its agents and employes, to deliver said dispatch, as by its said contract it had obligated itself, and was bound to do, the plaintiff was deprived of the satisfaction and pleasure of seeing his said brother, and being present at his funeral, and because of which plaintiff suffered great and irreparable injury, distress and mental pain and anguish, and which was great and overpowering, and was due and caused by the failure and gross and malicious neglect of the defendant, its agents and employes, to comply with, and in breach of, its said contract. And thereby also, because of the failure of defendant to transmit and deliver said telegram to plaintiff, as it was bound to do, the plaintiff was forced to and did then and there lay out and expend large sums of money, and performed labor, to-wit, ten dollars, in and about making search for, and attempting to find said telegram, caused by the failure and gross and malicious neglect of the defendant, its agents and employes, to comply with, and in breach of, its said contract, and by its negligence.

"Wherefore, the said damage sustained, as aforesaid, by reason of the breach of contract and gross negligence of the defendant, through its agents and employes, was and is in the sum of ten thousand dollars, for which plaintiff demands judgment, costs, and other relief." West v. Western Union Tel. Co., 39 Kan. 93, 17 Pac. 807.

with the intention of causing the said Jim Owens to abandon his said premises, and to abandon the said county and precinct in which he, the said Jim Owens, then resided, to-wit, in justice precinct No. 4, and in Coryell County, State of Texas, did then and there unlawfully, wilfully, and knowingly cause to be sent to the said Jim Owens by the United States mail service, and by mailing and posting the same for transmission and delivering in the United States postoffice at Leon Junction, a town and United States post-office in Coryell County, Texas, an anonymous notice, threats, and signs of the tenor following:

I. Complaints.

A. Complaint To Restrain Infringement of Trade-Mark, and for Damages.

I. That the plaintiff is, and for a long period previous to the committing of the grievances hereinafter mentioned, had been, the manufacturer (or the vendor) of an article (describe commodity) known as ———, which he has for ——— years last past, offered for sale and sold (in packages, describing them, if the defendant's are similar), labeled with his own proper device and trade-mark, adopted by the plaintiff for that purpose in the year 18——, of which the following is a copy (or specimen: copy or specimen of label; or, in a similar manner, state other trade-mark).

II. That by reason of the long experience and great care of the plaintiff in his said business, and the good quality of said (commodity), the same has become widely known in the community as a valuable and useful article, and acquired a high reputation as such, and has commanded and still commands an extensive sale at ——— (and elsewhere), which is and has been a source of great profit to this plaintiff.

III. That it is known as such article, to the public and to the buyers and consumers thereof, by the said name of ———, and by the plaintiff's own proper device and trade-mark aforesaid.

IV. That notwithstanding the long and quiet use and enjoyment by the plaintiff of said name and trade-mark, the defendant, well knowing the premises, but wilfully disregarding the plaintiff's rights, thereafter, and in the year 18——, wrongfully (and fraudulently) prepared and offered for sale, and now does offer for sale and sell, at ———, and elsewhere, an article in imitation of the plaintiff's article, which (with intent to deceive and defraud the public and the buyers and consumers thereof), he has caused to be put up in similar packages, and labeled with a precisely (or nearly) similar label, of which false label the following is a copy (or specimen: copy or specimen of the false label).

V. That such imitation is calculated to deceive the purchasers and consumers of plaintiff's said article, and actually has and still does mislead many of them to buy the article sold by the defendant, in the belief that it is the article manufactured by the plaintiff, greatly to the diminution of the said business and profits of this plaintiff.

VI. That the article so put up and sold by the defendant in imitation of the plaintiff's article is of a greatly inferior quality (state in what respects); and that by reason of the premises the general esteem and reputation of the said article manufactured by the plaintiff has been injured, greatly to the diminution of the said business and profits of the plaintiff.

VII. That before this action, and on the _____ day of _____, 18—, the plaintiff requested the defendant to desist from his infringement of the plaintiff's trade-mark as aforesaid, and to pay to the plaintiff what, upon a just accounting, there would be due to him therefor; yet the defendant refuses so to do.

VIII. That by reason of the premises the plaintiff has been injured, to his damage _____ dollars.

Wherefore the plaintiff demands judgment against the defendant:

1. That the defendant and his servants and agents be forever restrained from preparing, putting up, selling or offering for sale said imitation of the plaintiff's article, or any article bearing the name of _____, or any imitation of said name, or bearing said false trade-mark or any imitation of the label or trade-mark of the plaintiff.

2. That the defendant account for and pay over to the plaintiff all the profits realized by him upon sales of said (commodity), sold by him with any imitation of plaintiff's trade-mark.

3. For _____ dollars damages.

4. And for the costs of this action.

owners and proprietors thereof, since the original establishment of the same in the year _____, under that name.

(Continue substantially as in preceding form, giving copy of the headings or title pages, if defendant has imitated the appearance of plaintiff's, and substituting "publication" for "commodity," and "subscribers and readers" for "consumers," etc.) 1 Abb. Forms 548.

Burr. App. 301, §569; 2 Chit. Pl. 858; Yates' Forms 574.

II. Pleas.

A. Plea of License in Trespass.

(First plea, general issue; second plea as follows): And for a further plea in this behalf, the said defendant, by leave of the court here, for this purpose first had and obtained, according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, says that the said plaintiff ought not to have or maintain his aforesaid action thereof against him, because he says that he the said defendant, at the said several times, when, etc., by the leave and license of the said plaintiff to him for that purpose first given and granted, to-wit, at, etc., aforesaid, committed the said several supposed trespasses in the said declaration mentioned; as he lawfully might for the cause aforesaid. And this, etc. (Conclude with a verification.) Burr. App. 366, §664; 3 Chit. Pl. 1106.

B. Plea of Damage Feasant in Trespass for Removal of Goods.

And the said C. D., defendant in this suit, by G. H., his attorney, comes and defends the force and injury when, etc., and says that he is not guilty of the said supposed trespasses above laid to his charge, or any part thereof, in manner and form as the said plaintiff hath above thereof complained against him. And of this he the said defendant puts himself upon the country. (And the said plaintiff doth the like, etc.) And for a further plea in this behalf (as to the seizing, taking, removing and carrying away the said goods and chattels in the said declaration mentioned), the said defendant, by leave of the court here, for this purpose first had and obtained, according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, says that the said plaintiff ought not to have or maintain his aforesaid action thereof against him, because he says that before, and at the said time when, etc., he the said defendant was lawfully possessed of a certain close or piece or parcel of land, called ——— (or of no name), situate at, etc., and because of the said goods and chattels in the said last count mentioned, before and at the said time when, etc., in the said last count mentioned, were wrongfully in and upon the said close or piece or parcel of land, encumbering the same, and doing damage there to the said defendant, he the said defendant, at the said time when, etc., in the said last count mentioned, seized and took the said goods and chattels in the said last count mentioned, in the said close, piece or parcel of land, so incumbering the same as aforesaid, and removed and carried away the same to a small and convenient distance, to-wit, in the town aforesaid, and there left the same for the use of the said plaintiff, doing no unnecessary damage to the said goods and chattels on the occasion aforesaid; and as he lawfully might for the cause aforesaid; which are the said supposed trespasses in the introductory part of this plea, and in the said declaration mentioned, and whereof he the said plaintiff hath above thereof complained against him, the said defendant. And this he is ready to verify. Wherefore he prays judgment, if the said plaintiff ought to have or maintain his aforesaid action thereof against him, etc.

G. H., attorney for deft.

Burr. App. 363, §660; 3 Chit. Pl. 1094.

C. Plea of Private Way in Trespass.

(First plea, general issue; second plea same as the next form to the first *, and then proceed as follows): And the said defendant further saith that he the said defendant, long before, and at the several times when, etc., was and still is seized in his de mesne as of fee, of and in a certain close, called ———, contiguous and next adjoining to the said close, in which, etc., and that he the said defendant, and all those whose estate he now hath, and at the time whereof the memory of man is not to the contrary, have had and used, and have been accustomed to have and use, and of right ought to have had and used, and the said defendant at the said times when, etc., of right ought to have had and used, and still of right ought to have and use a certain way for himself and themselves, and his and their servants, farmers and tenants, occupiers of the said close, called ———, to pass and repass on foot and with horses, mares, geldings and other cattle, from a certain common and public highway, in the town of ———, aforesaid, into, through, over and along the said close of the said plaintiff, called ———, in which, etc., unto and into the said close now of the said defendant, and so from thence back again, unto, into, through and over and along the said close of the said plaintiff called ———, in which, etc., unto and into the said common and public highway, at all times of the year, at his and their free will and pleasure as to the said close of the said defendant, with the appurtenances belonging and appertaining. And the said defendant being so seized of his said close, and also being in the possession thereof, and having occasion to use the said way, did, with his servants and horses and mares and geldings and carriages, at the said several times, when, etc., pass and repass, in, by, through and along the said way from the said common and public highway, into, through, over and along the said close of the said plaintiff called ———, in which, etc., unto and into the said close now of the said defendant, and so from thence back again, in, by, through and along the said way, unto and into the said common and public highway, using the said way there for the purpose and on the occasion aforesaid, as he lawfully might for the cause aforesaid, and in so doing, etc. (as in next form from the second * to the end, justifying the trespasses according to the facts, observing the introductory part of this plea). Burr. App. 368, §666; 3 Chit. Pl. 1118.

D. Plea of Public Way in Trespass.

(First plea, general issue; second plea as follows): And for a further plea in this behalf, as to the entering the said close of the said plaintiff in the said first count in the said declaration mentioned, and in which, etc., and with feet in walking, and with the said cattle and carriages in the said declaration mentioned, treading down, trampling upon, crushing, consuming and spoiling the grass and herbage then growing and being in the said close, and subverting, damaging and spoiling the soil of the said close, and digging up, pulling up, tearing up, prostrating and destroying the said stakes and posts in the said first count mentioned, and with the said cattle in the said declaration mentioned, eating up and depasturing the said other grass of the said plaintiff, there also growing and being, and also as to the breaking down, throwing down, prostrating and destroying the said banks, mounds and fences in that count mentioned, and also as to digging up, pulling up, prostrating, damaging and destroying the said gate-posts and other posts in the said last count of the said declaration mentioned, and taking and carrying away the same, above supposed to have been done by the said defendant, he the said defendant, by leave of the court here, for this purpose first had and obtained, according to the form of the statute in that case made and provided, saith that the said plaintiff ought not to have or maintain his aforesaid action thereof against him, because he says that the said posts in the said first count mentioned, and the said posts in the said last count mentioned, were and are the same, and not other or different posts. * And the said defendant further saith that before and at the said several times, when, etc., there was, and of right ought to have been, a certain common and public highway, into, through, over and along the said close, in which, etc., for all the good citizens of the state of New York to go, return, pass and repass on foot, and with cattle and carriages at all times of the year, and at their free will and pleasure. Wherefore the said defendant being a good citizen of the said state of New York, and having occasion to use the same way, at the said several times, when, etc., went, passed and repassed on foot, and with the said cattle and carriages, into, through, over and along the said close, in which, etc., in, by and along the said highway there, using the same as he lawfully might for the cause aforesaid. * And in so doing he the said defendant, with his feet in walking, and with the said cattle and carriages unavoidably a little trod down, trampled upon, consumed and spoiled the grass and herbage then growing and being in the said close, in which, etc., and subverted, damaged and spoiled the soil of the same close, and the said cattle at the said several times when, etc., in passing and repassing along the said way, by stealth and morsels, and against the will of the said defendant, eat up and depastured a little other of the grass there then growing in the said way. * And because the said stakes, banks, mounds, fences, gate-posts and other posts in the said declaration mentioned, before the said several times, when, etc., had been wrongfully erected, and were then standing and being in and across the said highway, and obstructing the same, so that without digging up, pulling up, tearing up, breaking down, throwing down, prostrating and destroying the said stakes, banks, mounds, fences, gate-posts and other posts, respectively, the said defendant could not then pass and repass with the said cattle and carriages, into, through, over and along the said close, in which, etc., in the said highway there, as he ought to have done, the said defendant at the said several times, when, etc., in order to remove the said obstructions, dug up, pulled up, tore up, broke down, prostrated and destroyed the said stakes, mounds, fences, gate-posts and other posts in the said declaration mentioned, and took and carried the said gate-posts and other posts to a small and convenient distance, and there left the same for the use of the said plaintiff, doing no unnecessary damage to the said plaintiff on those occasions, which are the same supposed trespasses in the introductory part of this plea mentioned, and whereof the said plaintiff hath above complained against him the said defendant. And this, etc. (Conclude with a verification.) Burr. App. 367, §665; 3 Chit. Pl. 1116.

III. Replication, Traverse to Plea of License.

And the said plaintiff, as to the said plea of the said defendant by him (secondly) above pleaded, says that the said plaintiff, by reason of anything by the said defendant in that plea alleged, ought not to be barred from having and maintaining his aforesaid action thereof, against the said defendant, because he says that the said defendant at the said time when, etc., of his own wrong, and without the leave and license of the said plaintiff, to him the said defendant first given and granted in that behalf, committed the said several trespasses in the introductory part of the said second plea mentioned, in manner and form as the said plaintiff hath above thereof complained against him the said defendant. And this he the said plaintiff prays may be inquired of by the country, etc. Burr. App. 378, §691; 3 Chit. Pl. 1209.

I. Plea of Escape of Cattle by Defect of Fences.

(First plea, general issue; second plea as follows): And for a further plea in this behalf, as to the breaking and entering of the said close in the said first count of the said declaration mentioned, and in which, etc., and with the feet in walking, treading down, trampling upon and spoiling the grass in the said close, and with the said cattle in the said first count mentioned, eating up, and treading down, depasturing, consuming and spoiling, other the grass, growing in the said close, and with the said cattle tearing up, eating off, and pulling up, plucking off, consuming, spoiling, biting off, topping and destroying the spring wood and underwood in the said first count mentioned, and growing and being in the said close, and breaking down, throwing down, and destroying the said hedge and fence in the said first count mentioned, growing, standing and being round and upon the said close, and as to the breaking and entering the said close in the said last count of the said declaration mentioned, and in which, etc., and with the said cattle in the said last count mentioned, treading down, depasturing, eating up, biting off, tearing off, topping, consuming, and destroying the spring wood and underwood in the said last count mentioned, growing and being in the said last mentioned close, above supposed to have been committed by the said defendant, he, the said defendant, by leave of the court here, for this purpose first had and obtained, according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, says that the said plaintiff ought not to have or maintain his aforesaid action against him, because he says that the said close in the said first count of the said declaration mentioned, and in which, etc., and the said close in the said last count of the said declaration mentioned, and in which, etc., now are, and at the said several times when, etc., were one and the same close, and not other or different closes. And the said defendant further saith, that he, the said defendant, before and at the said several times, when, etc., was lawfully possessed of a certain close called ——— with the appurtenances, situate, lying and being in the town aforesaid, in the county aforesaid, and contiguous and next adjoining to the said close of the said plaintiff, in which, etc.; and that the said plaintiff and all other the tenants and occupiers of the said close, in which, etc., for the time being, from time whereof the memory of man is not to the contrary, have repaired and amended, and have used and been accustomed to repair and amend, and of right ought to have repaired and amended, and the said plaintiff before and after the said several times, when, etc., of right ought to have repaired and amended, and still of right ought to repair and amend, the hedge and fence between the said close of the said defendant, and the said close, in which, etc., when and as often as occasion hath required, and shall or may require, to prevent cattle lawfully feeding and depasturing, or being in the said close of the said defendant, from erring or escaping thereout, through the defects and insufficiency of the said hedge and fence into the said close, in which, etc., and doing damage there. And the said defendant further saith, that the said hedge and fence before and at the said several times, when, etc., were ruinous, prostrate, fallen down, and in great decay, for want of needful and necessary making, repairing and amending thereof. By means whereof, the said cattle in the said first and last counts of the said declaration mentioned, at the said several times, when, etc., then lawfully feeding and depasturing in the said close of the said defendant, without the knowledge of the said defendant, and against his will, erred and escaped thereout into the said close, in which, etc., through the defects and insufficiency of the said hedge and fence, and eat up, trod down, depastured, consumed and spoiled a little of the grass there growing, and eat up, trod down, depastured, tore up, eat off, pulled up, plucked off, consumed, spoiled, bit off, topped and destroyed a little of the spring wood and underwood there also growing in the said first and last counts respectively mentioned, and in passing through the said hedge and fence the said cattle, at the said time, when, etc., in the said first count mentioned, necessarily and unavoidably a little broke down, threw down and destroyed the same, being the said hedge and fence in the said first count mentioned. And on the occasions aforesaid, he, the said defendant, at the said several times, when, etc., as soon as he had notice of the said cattle having escaped into, and being in the said close, in which, etc., as aforesaid, entered into the said close, in which, etc., to drive, and did then and there drive the said cattle from and out of the said close, in which, etc., into the said close of him, the said defendant, and in so doing he, the said defendant, at the said several times, when, etc., did necessarily and unavoidably with his feet in walking, tread down, trample upon and spoil a little of the grass there also growing, doing no unnecessary damage to the said plaintiff on the occasions aforesaid, and as he lawfully might for the cause aforesaid; which are the said several supposed trespasses in the introductory part of this plea mentioned, and whereof the said plaintiff hath above complained against him, the said defendant. And this, etc. (conclude with a verification). Burr. App. 369, §667; 3 Chit. Pl. 1103.

II. Replications.

A. Replication to Plea of Escape of Cattle Through Defective Fence.

And the said plaintiff, as to the said plea of the said defendant, by him (secondly) above pleaded, as to the said several trespasses in the introductory part of that plea mentioned, and therein attempted to be justified, says, that the said plaintiff, by reason of anything by the said defendant in that plea alleged, ought not to be barred from having and maintaining his aforesaid action thereof against the said defendant, because he says, that the said banks, mounds and fences, between the said closes of the said defendant, and the said close or piece or parcel of land of the said plaintiff, before and at the said several times when, etc., in the said plea of the said defendant, and in the said declaration above respectively mentioned, at, etc., aforesaid, were well and sufficiently maintained and repaired to prevent cattle feeding and being in the said close of the said defendant, from escaping from and out of the same into the said close of the said plaintiff, and that the said cattle of the said defendant in the said second plea mentioned, at the said several times when, etc., were wild, ungovernable and unruly, and used to break down banks, mounds and fences in good repair, and that the said cattle of the said defendant, at the said several times when, etc., at, etc. (the venue), aforesaid, through their said wild, ungovernable, and unruly disposition, broke down the said mounds, banks, and fences, between the said close of him, the said plaintiff, and the said close of the said defendant, the same close being well and sufficiently maintained and in good repair, as aforesaid, and through the breach of the said banks, mounds and fences so made by the said cattle of the said defendant, as aforesaid, the said cattle, at the said several times when, etc., entered into the said close of the said plaintiff, and eat up the grass and herbage of the said plaintiff then growing there, and did damage there, in manner and form as the said defendant hath above, in his said (second) plea in that behalf alleged; without this, that the said cattle, so being in the said close or piece or parcel of land of the said plaintiff as aforesaid, a little before the said several times when, etc., in the said (second) plea mentioned, and against the will of the said defendant, and without his knowledge or consent escaped from the said close, or piece or parcel of land of the said defendant, through the defects and insufficiency of the said banks, mounds, and fences, between the said close of the said defendant and the said close, or piece or parcel of land of the said plaintiff, as the said defendant, hath above in his said second plea in that behalf alleged. And this he, the said plaintiff, is ready to verify. Wherefore he prays judgment and his damages by him sustained, by reason of the committing of the said trespasses, to be adjudged to him, etc.

E. F., plaintiff's atty.

Burr. App. 379, §693; 3 Chit. Pl. 1210.

B. Replication to Plea of Distress, Damage Feasant, That Defendant Turned Cattle Into Locum in Quo.

Because he says, that just before the said time when, etc., the said cattle in the said declaration mentioned, were wrongfully turned and driven by the said defendant, from and out of the said highway, into and upon the said close, or piece or parcel of land, in which, etc., and upon that occasion, and by means and in consequence thereof, the said cattle were, at the said first time, when, etc., in the said close, in which, etc., depasturing on the grass there then growing, and doing damage there, in manner and form as the said plaintiff hath above thereof complained against him, the said defendant. And this, etc. (Conclude with a verification.) Burr. App. 383, §701; 3 Chit. Pl. 1210.

C. Replication to Plea of Distress, Damage Feasant, Defect of Fences.

Because he says, that the said close in the said second plea mentioned, before and at the said time when, etc., did lie, and still doth lie contiguous and next adjoining to a certain common and public highway of the people, in the town aforesaid, and that the said defendant and all other the tenants and occupiers of the said close in which, etc., with the appurtenances, for the time being, from time, etc. (here state the obligation to repair, and the defect in the fences, and that the plaintiff's cattle being driven along the way, thereby escaped into the close, and then proceed as follows): and remained and continued in the said close, in which, etc., until the said defendant at the same time when, etc., in the said first count mentioned, and before the said plaintiff could drive the said cattle from and out of the said close, in which, etc., of his own wrong, seized, took and drove away the said cattle, and impounded the same, and kept and detained the same so impounded for the said space of time in the said first count mentioned. And this, etc. (Conclude with a verification.) Burr. App. 383, §700; Yates' Forms 591.

III. Rejoinder, That Cattle Escaped by Defect of Fences.

Because he says, that the said cattle of the said defendant escaped out of the said common or waste, in the said (second) plea in that behalf mentioned, into the said close in which, etc., called, etc., through the defect of the said fences, in the said (second) plea in that behalf mentioned, in manner and form as the said defendant hath above in his said (second) plea in that behalf alleged, and not through any breach of the said fence, occasioned as in the said replication to the said (second) plea mentioned. And of this he, the said defendant, puts himself upon the country. Burr. App. 392, §724; 3 Chit. Pl. 1233.

I. Bills.

A. Bill for Payment of Legacies and Execution of Trust.

Humbly complaining, sheweth unto your honors your orator A. B., of, etc., that W. S., late of, etc., duly made and published his last will and testament in writing, bearing date on or about ———, and thereby amongst other bequests, gave to his nephews and nieces, the children of his late sister, M. A., the sum of $——— each, to be paid to them as they should respectively attain the age of twenty-one years, and appointed E. T. F., of, etc., the defendant hereinafter named, the sole executor of his said will, as in and by the said will, or the probate thereof, when produced will appear. And your orator further sheweth that the said E. T. F., soon after the death of the said testator, duly proved the said will in the appropriate court, and hath since possessed himself of the personal estate and effects of the said testator to an amount much more than sufficient for the payment of his just debts, funeral, and testamentary expenses and legacies. And your orator further sheweth that after the death of said testator, your orator intermarried with A. A., who was the niece of the said testator, and one of the children of the said M. A., in the said will named, and by virtue of said intermarriage your orator, in right of his said wife, became entitled to demand and receive the aforesaid bequest of $———. And your orator further sheweth that your orator's said wife lived to attain her age of twenty-one years, and that she hath lately departed this life, and that neither your orator nor his said wife received any part of the said legacy. And your orator further sheweth, that, having obtained letters of administration to his said wife, he has repeatedly applied to the said E. T. F. for payment of the said legacy and interest thereon from the time of his said late wife's attaining her age of twenty-one years, and your orator hoped that such, his reasonable requests, would have been complied with, as in justice and equity they ought to have done. But now so it is, etc. To the end, therefore, that, etc.

And that an account may be taken of what is due and owing to your orator for the principal and interest of the said legacy, and that the said defendant may be decreed to pay the same to your orator, and if the said defendant shall not admit assets of the said testator sufficient to answer the same, then that an account may be taken of the estate and effects of the said testator, which have been possessed or received by the said defendant, or by any other person by his order or to his use, and that the same may be applied in due course of administration. (And for further relief.) May it please your honors, etc. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2038.

B. Bill for Payment of Legacy and Accounting.

Humbly complaining, show unto your honors the plaintiffs E. H., J. H., T. H., and M. A. H., infants under the age of twenty-one years, by J. E., of, etc., their next friend, that E. H., the elder, late of, etc., but now deceased, duly made and published his last will and testament in writing, bearing date, etc., whereby he directed that W. T., of, etc., and E. B., of, etc., the defendants hereinafter named, and C. G. of, etc., who were the trustees and executors in his said will named, should, out of the moneys which should come to their hands in manner therein mentioned, lay out and invest in or upon government or real securities at interest the sum of $—— upon trust, etc. (The trustees were to pay the dividends to E. H., the testator's wife, during her life or until her second marriage, and after her decease or second marriage, the whole of the dividends to be applied by the trustees for the maintenance and education of testator's grandchildren, the plaintiffs, to whom the principal was to be transferred, to the grandsons at twenty-one, and to the granddaughters at twenty-one or marriage), as in and by, etc. And the plaintiffs further show that the said testator departed this life in or about the month of ——, without having in any manner revoked or altered the said will, except by a codicil bearing date, etc., which did not relate to or affect the said trusts of the said sum of $——. And the plaintiffs further show unto your honors that W. T. and E. B., and the said C. G. duly proved the said testator's will, and acted in the trusts thereof, and out of the moneys which came to their hands from the estate and effects of the said testator, in or about, etc., appropriated the sum of £——, in satisfaction of the aforesaid legacy in the purchase of the sum of £—— 3 per cent. consolidated bank annuities, and the said sum of stock is now standing in their names in the books of the governor and company of the Bank of England. And the plaintiffs further show that the said C. G. has departed this life, and that the said E. H., on or about, etc., intermarried with and is now the wife of the said J. E., whereupon the interest of the said E. H., in the said sum of £—— 3 per cent. consolidated bank annuities wholly ceased. And the plaintiffs further show that the said defendants paid to the said J. E. and E., his wife, the year's dividends which became due on the said sum of stock on the —— day of ——, as well for the interest of the said E. H. in the said stock as for the maintenance and education of the plaintiffs up to that time; but the said defendants have retained in their hands the subsequent dividends which have accrued due on the said stock, and have made no payments or allowances thereout for the maintenance or education of the plaintiffs. And the plaintiffs further show that some proper persons or persons ought to be appointed as the guardians or guardians of the plaintiffs, with suitable allowances for their maintenance and education for the time past since the said —— day of ——, and for the time to come, and that the said sum of stock ought to be secured in this honorable court. To the end therefore, etc.

And that the said defendants may answer the premises, and that some proper person or persons may be appointed the guardian or guardians of the plaintiffs, with suitable allowances for their maintenance and education for the time past since the said _____ day of _____, and for the time to come, and that the said defendants may account for the dividends of the said trust stock which have accrued due since the said _____ day of _____, and may thereout pay the allowances which shall be made for the maintenance and education of the plaintiffs since the said _____ day of _____, and may pay the residue thereof into this honorable court for the benefit of the plaintiffs; and may also transfer the said sum of £_____ 3 per cent. consolidated bank annuities into the name of the accountant-general of this honorable court, to be there secured for the benefit of the plaintiffs, and such other persons as may eventually be interested therein. (And for further relief.) May it please, etc. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2039.

C. Bill Praying for Appointment of New Trustee.

Humbly complaining, show unto your honors, your orators and oratrixes, J. M. P., of, etc., and E., his wife, and A. P. and C. P., infants under the age of twenty-one years, by the said J. M. M., of, etc. (the other trustees under the settlement), that by certain indentures of lease and release bearing date respectively, etc., the release being of three parts, and made or expressed to be made between, etc. (stating the indenture of release). But the said indenture of release contained no power or authority to appoint a new trustee in the place or stead of either of the said trustees therein named, who should decline to act in the said trusts, or be desirous to be removed therefrom, as in and by the said indentures, etc. And your orators and oratrixes further show unto your honors, that the said intended marriage was soon afterwards had and solemnized between your orator J. M. P., and your oratrix E. P.; and that your orator and oratrix,

A. P. and C. P., are the only children of the said marriage. And your orators and oratrixes further show, that the said defendant, I. P. L., declines to act in the trusts of the said indenture, and is desirous to be discharged therefrom, but by reason that no power is reserved in the said indenture for the appointment of a new trustee, your orators and oratrixes are advised that he cannot be discharged from such trusts, nor any new trustee appointed without the aid of this honorable court, to the end, therefore, that the said defendant, I. P. L., may upon his corporal oath, etc.

And that the said defendants may answer the premises, and that it may be referred to one of the masters of this honorable court to appoint a new trustee under the said marriage settlement, in the place and stead of the said defendant; and that the said defendant may be directed to join in such instrument or instruments as may be necessary for conveying or releasing the said trust premises to your orator S. N. M., and such new trustee upon the trust of the said settlement; and that thereupon the said defendant may be discharged from the trusts of the said indenture. (And for further relief.) May it please, etc. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2062.

R., his attorney, comes and defends the wrong and injury when, etc., and says that the said plaintiff ought not to have or maintain his aforesaid action thereof against him, because he says that before the making of the said bill or exchange in the said first count mentioned, to-wit, on the twenty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine (day of contract, or about it), at, etc. (venue), aforesaid, it was corruptly and against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, agreed by and between the said E. F. (the acceptor) and one G. H., that he the said G. H. (here state the usurious agreement as thus): should lend and advance to the said E. F. a certain sum of money, to-wit, the sum of seven hundred and fifty dollars in manner following, that is to say, part thereof, to-wit, two hundred and fifty dollars, on the day and year last aforesaid, and the residue thereof, to-wit, five hundred dollars, at a certain time, to-wit, on the thirty-first day of December then next, and that he the said G. H. should forbear and give day of payment of the said sums of two hundred and fifty dollars, and five hundred dollars from the times of lending and advancing the same, until and upon a certain other time, to-wit, the tenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and thirty, and that for the forbearing and giving day of payment of the said sums of two hundred and fifty dollars and five hundred dollars as aforesaid, the said E. F. should give and pay to the said G. H. a certain sum of money, to-wit, the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars, and that for securing the re-payment of the said sums of two hundred and fifty dollars and five hundred dollars, so to be lent and advanced as aforesaid, together with the said further sum of two hundred and fifty dollars, on the said tenth day of April, in the year last aforesaid, the said defendant should make and draw and endorse, and the said E. F. should accept the said bill of exchange in the said (first) count mentioned, and that the said E. F. should deliver the same to the said G. H.; and the said defendant further saith that in pursuance and in part performance of the said corrupt and unlawful agreement, the said defendant, afterwards, to-wit, on the said twenty-first day of December, to-wit, at, etc. (venue), aforesaid, made and drew and endorsed, and the said E. F. to the said G. H. for such loan and forbearance as aforesaid, and so secured as aforesaid, exceeds the rate of seven dollars for the forbearing of one hundred dollars for a year, contrary to the statute in such case made and provided, whereby and by force of the statute in such case made and provided, the said bill of exchange was and is wholly void; and this he the said defendant is ready to verify. Wherefore he prays judgment, if the said plaintiff ought to have or maintain his aforesaid action thereof against him, etc. Burr. App. 346, §635; Yates' Forms 284.

II. Replication to Plea of Usury.

And the said plaintiff, as to the said plea of the said defendant by him (secondly) above pleaded, says that the said plaintiff, by reason of anything by the said defendant in that plea alleged, ought not to be barred from having and maintaining his aforesaid action thereof against the said defendant, because he says that there was no such usurious agreement or usurious consideration, as the said defendant hath above in his said plea in that behalf alleged. that time bargained, sold and released the place aforesaid, undertook, and then and there faithfully promised the said plaintiff, well and truly to pay him, the said plaintiff, the said sum of money last above mentioned, when the said defendant should be thereunto afterwards requested.

And whereas also, afterwards, to-wit,
on the same day and year last aforesaid, and at the place aforesaid, in consideration that the said plaintiff, at the like special instance and request of the said defendant, * had before that premises shortly, as in the particulars of sale), upon and subject to the following amongst other conditions, that particulars of sale, but in the past tense, as thus): that the purchaser should pay to the vendor or his agent, a deposit of _____ per cent. in part of the purchase-money, and should likewise pay one-half of the auction duty, and should also pay the remainder of the purchase-money, and complete the purchase on or before the _____ day of _____ then next, and that a good title should be made out at the expense of the vendor, and upon payment of the remainder of the purchase-money, a proper conveyance at the purchaser's expense. II. (If there are any conditions on the part of the plaintiff they should be set forth, unless the whole agreement is annexed; and add, that the plaintiff duly performed all the conditions thereof on his part.)

IV. H. and I. K. his wife, defendant, and D. R. or any or either of them situate and being, etc., together with all and singular the houses, outhouses, etc., hereditaments, and premises whatsoever, to the said messuages, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, and premises thereby granted or released, or thereby meant, mentioned, or intended so to be, belonging or in anywise appertaining to the same, then, or at any time or times theretofore usually held, used, occupied, enjoyed or accepted, reputed or known, or taken for part, parcel, or member thereof, or as belonging thereto, to have and to hold the said premises, with their and every of their appurtenances, unto and to the use of the said E. F., his heirs and assigns forever; and the said defendant did, by the said indenture now brought into court here, for himself, his heirs, executors, and administrators, covenant, promise and agree, to and with the said E. F., his heirs and assigns, amongst other things, in manner following, that is to say; that the said E. F., his heirs and assigns, should and might, from time to time, and at all times forever thereafter, peaceably and quietly enter into, have, hold, use, occupy, possess, and enjoy all and singular the said purchased hereditaments and premises, therein before mentioned to be thereby granted and released as aforesaid, or meant or intended so to be, and every part and parcel thereof, with the appurtenances, and the rents, issues, and profits thereof, and of every part thereof, should and might, from time to time, and at all times thereafter, have, receive, and take, to and for his and their use and benefit, without the lawful let, suit, trouble, claim or demand, entry, eviction, ejection, molestation, hindrance, interruption, or disturbance, whatsoever, of or by the said G. H. and I. K. his wife, defendant, and D. R. or any or either of their heirs or assigns, or for or by any other person or persons whatsoever; and that free and clear, and freely and clearly, and absolutely acquitted, exonerated, released and discharged, or otherwise by the said C. H. and I. K. his wife, defendant, and D. R. and each of them, and their and each of their heirs, executors, and administrators, well and sufficiently saved, defended, and kept harmless and indemnified of, from, and against all and all manner of former and other gifts, grants, bargains, sales, mortgages, settlements, jointures, dowers, right and title of dower, thirds at common law, entries, uses, tenements, wills, legacies, statutes merchant, and of the staple, recognizances, judgments, executions, elegits, extents, rents, arrears of rent, annuities, sums of money, yearly payments, forfeitures, re-entries, cause and causes of forfeiture and re-entry, debts upon bonds, and of record, debts due to the king's majesty, and of, from and against all other estates, titles, troubles, charges, and incumbrances whatsoever, save and except the chief rent issuing out of or payable for the said premises to the lord or lords, fee or fees of the same, if any such should be; as by the said indenture, relation being thereunto had, may more fully appear. And the said plaintiff further says, that the said E. F. in his lifetime, and the said plaintiff from the time of the death of the said E. F. (Plaintiff's general performance. Averment of defendant's general non-performance.) The said plaintiff in fact saith, that he the said plaintiff, so being the heir of the said E. F. as aforesaid, hath not been permitted, neither hath he been able, from time to time, and at all times, from the death of the said E. F. peaceably and quietly to have, hold, use, occupy, possess, and enjoy the said hereditaments and premises in the said indenture mentioned, and thereby intended to be granted and released, or any part thereof, nor hath he been permitted or been able from time to time, and at all times since the death of the said E. F. to have, receive, and take the rents, issues and profits of the said premises, to and for his own proper use and benefit, without lawful let, suit, trouble, entry, eviction, and ejection of any person, but on the contrary thereof, after the death of the said E. F. one M. H., his widow, who, at the time of making the said indenture thereinbefore set forth, and continually from thence until and at the time of the eviction, ejection, and expulsion hereinafter mentioned, had, and who still hath, lawful right and title to the said premises, with the appurtenances, did enter into the same, in and upon the possession of the said tenements, and ejected, expelled and removed the said plaintiff, against the will of the said plaintiff, by due process of law, from the possession and occupation of all and every the premises, with the appurtenances, and every part thereof, and kept and held out, and still keeps and holds out to him the said plaintiff, so thereof expelled from his possession and occupation thereof, to-wit, at, etc., contrary to the form and effect of the said indenture, and of the said covenant of the said defendant, so by him made in that behalf as aforesaid; by reason of all which said premises the said plaintiff hath not only entirely lost and been deprived of the said messuage, tenement, and land, with the appurtenances, in the said indenture particularly mentioned, and of divers large sums of money, amounting in the whole to a large sum of money, to-wit, etc., by him the said plaintiff, laid out and expended in and upon the said premises, in repairing, amending, and improving the same, but hath also been obliged to pay the costs and charges sustained by the said M. H., widow, in prosecuting a certain action of ejectment for the recovery thereof, which amounted to a large sum of money, to-wit, etc., and hath been further compelled and obliged to sustain and undergo, and hath actually sustained and undergone the payment of divers large sums of money, amounting in the whole to £——— in and about the endeavoring to defend such action of ejectment, to-wit, at, etc. (venue) aforesaid. And so, etc.

And so, the plaintiff in fact saith, that the said defendant (although often requested so to do) hath not kept the said covenant so by him made as aforesaid, but hath broken the same, and to keep the same with the said plaintiff hath hitherto wholly neglected and refused, and still doth neglect and refuse, to the damage of the said plaintiff of £———, and therefore he brings his suit, etc. 2 Chit. Pl. 546.

B. Declaration on Warranty of Horse. (Title and commencement.) For that whereas heretofore, to-wit, on, etc., at, etc., in consideration that the said plaintiff, at the special instance and request of the said defendant, would buy of him, the said defendant, a certain horse, at and for a certain price or sum of money, to-wit, the sum of ——— dollars, to be therefore paid by him, the said plaintiff, he, the said defendant, undertook, and then and there faithfully promised the said plaintiff, that the said horse then was sound. And the said plaintiff avers, that he, confiding in the said promise and undertaking of the said defendant, did afterwards, to-wit, on, etc., aforesaid, at, etc., aforesaid, buy the said horse of the said defendant, and then and there paid him for the same, the said sum of ——— dollars; nevertheless the said defendant did not perform or regard his said promise and undertaking, as by him made as aforesaid, but received and defrauded the said plaintiff in this, to-wit, that the said horse, at the time of the making of the said promise and undertaking of the said defendant, was not sound, but on the contrary thereof, was at that time unsound, whereby the said horse became and was of no use or value to the said plaintiff, and he, the said plaintiff, hath been put to great charges and expenses of his moneys, in and about the feeding, keeping, and taking care of the said horse, in the whole amounting to a large sum of money, to-wit, the sum of ——— dollars, to-wit, at, etc., aforesaid.

(Second count.) And whereas also, afterwards, to-wit, on, etc., aforesaid, at, etc., aforesaid, in consideration that the said plaintiff, at the like special instance and request of the said defendant, had then and there bought of him, the said defendant, a certain other horse, at and for a certain other price, or sum of money then and there agreed upon between him, the said plaintiff, and the said defendant, he, the said defendant, undertook, and then and there faithfully promised the said plaintiff that the said last mentioned horse, at the time of the said sale thereof was sound; nevertheless, the said defendant (as in the first count), in this, to-wit, that the said last mentioned horse, at the time of the said sale thereof was not sound, whereby the same horse then and there became, etc. (As in the first count, and add counts for horse-keep, if there were any contract to that effect, and the money counts.) Burr. App. 264, §527; 2 Chit. Pl. 279.

C. Declaration for False Warranty of Horse.

For that whereas the said plaintiff, heretofore, to-wit, on, etc., at, etc., at the special instance and request of the said defendant, bargained with the said defendant, a certain horse, at and for a certain price or sum of money, to-wit, the sum of two hundred dollars, and the said defendant by then and there falsely and fraudulently warranting the said horse to be sound and quiet in harness, then and there sold the said horse to the said plaintiff, for the said sum of two hundred dollars, then and there paid by the said plaintiff, to the said defendant for the same; whereas in truth, and in fact, the said horse was, at the time of the said warranty and sale thereof, unsteady, restive and ungovernable in harness, and hath, from thence hitherto, so remained and continued; and the said plaintiff in fact saith, that the said defendant by means of the premises on the day and year aforesaid, at, etc., falsely and fraudulently deceived him, the said plaintiff, on the sale of the said horse as aforesaid, and thereby the said horse, afterwards, to-wit, on, etc., not only became of no use or value to the said plaintiff, but also then and there greatly kicked, hurt, injured and spoiled a certain horse of him the said plaintiff of great value, to-wit, of the value of one hundred dollars, and thereby also the said plaintiff was then and there put to great expense of his moneys, in the whole amounting to a large sum of money, to-wit, the sum of one hundred dollars, in and about the feeding, and taking care of and selling and disposing of the said horse, to-wit, at, etc., aforesaid.

And whereas also, the said plaintiff heretofore, to-wit, on the day and year aforesaid, at, etc., aforesaid, bargained with the said defendant to buy of him the said defendant a certain other horse, and the said defendant by then and there falsely warranting the said last mentioned horse to be sound, falsely and fraudulently induced the said plaintiff then and there to buy, and the said plaintiff did then and there buy of him, the said defendant, the said last mentioned horse for a certain other large sum of money, to-wit, the sum of two hundred dollars, whereas in truth and fact, the said last mentioned horse at the time of the said last mentioned warranty and sale was not sound, but then was, and thence hitherto hath been, and still is, unsound, and of no use or value to the said plaintiff, to-wit, at, etc., aforesaid. And so the said plaintiff saith, that the said defendant falsely and fraudulently deceived him, the said plaintiff on the sale of the said last mentioned horse as aforesaid, to-wit, at, etc., aforesaid. (Conclusion in usual form.) Burr. App. 312, §581; 2 Chit. Pl. 680.

B. before and at the time of the committing the grievances next hereinafter mentioned, held and enjoyed the said above mentioned dwelling house, farm and garden, with the appurtenances, as tenant thereof to him the said C. and by virtue of a certain demise (or other instrument) to him the said A. B., thereof made by the said C. D. (he the said C. D. being then and yet seised in fee thereof), and which said estate of the said A. B., by virtue of the said demise, was for the term of (state the time). Yet the said A. B., contriving and wrongfully and unjustly intending to injure, prejudice and aggrrieve him the said C. D., in his reversionary interest and estate in and to the said dwelling house, farm and garden, with the appurtenances, while the same were in the possession of the said A. B. as tenant thereof to the said C. D., under and by virtue of the said demise to the said A. B., as hereinbefore mentioned, to-wit, on, etc., and on divers other days and times between that day and the commencement of this suit, at, etc., felled, etc., divers trees, to-wit, one hundred beech trees, one hundred maple trees, etc., of great value, to-wit, of the value of one thousand dollars, standing, growing and being upon the said farm, and took and carried away the same and converted and disposed thereof to his own use. (Other acts of waste may be averred, such as removing manure, or over-cropping, etc.) By means of which said several grievances, the said C. D. was and is greatly injured in his said reversionary estate and interest in the said described premises, with the appurtenances, and hath sustained damage to the amount of two thousand dollars, and therefore he brings suit, etc.

Burr. App. 568, §1106.

2. Declaration in Waste, Permissive.

For that whereas heretofore, to-wit, on, etc. (day of letting, or about it), at, etc. (venue), in consideration that the said plaintiff, at the special instance and request of the said defendant, would demise and let to the said defendant a certain messuage, garden and premises, with the appurtenances, situate in the county of _____, to hold the same to the said defendant, as tenant thereof to the said plaintiff, to-wit, from the _____ day of _____ then next, for one whole year, and so from year to year, so long as the said plaintiff and defendant should respectively please, he the said defendant undertook, and then and there faithfully promised the said plaintiff that he the said defendant would, during the continuance of the said tenancy, keep the said messuage, garden and premises, with the appurtenances, in good and tenantable repair, order and condition. And the said plaintiff avers that he, confiding in the said promise and undertaking of the said defendant, afterwards, to-wit, on the day and year first aforesaid, at, etc. (venue), aforesaid, did demise and let the said messuage, garden and premises, with the appurtenances, to the said defendant, for the time and upon the terms aforesaid, and that the said defendant was, and continued tenant to the said plaintiff of the said messuage, garden and premises with the appurtenances, under and by virtue of the said tenancy, for a long space of time, to-wit, from the time of making his promise and undertaking aforesaid, until and upon the _____ day of, etc. Nevertheless the said defendant, not regarding his said promise and undertaking, but contriving and intending to deceive and defraud the said plaintiff in this behalf, did not nor would, after the making of his promise and undertaking, and during the continuance of the said tenancy, keep the said messuage, garden and premises, with the appurtenances, in good and tenantable repair, order and condition, according to his said promise and undertaking; but on the contrary thereof, he the said defendant, after the making of his said promise and undertaking, and during the continuance of his said tenancy, to-wit, on the day and year first above mentioned, and from thence until and upon the said, etc., wrongfully and unjustly suffered and permitted the said messuage, garden and premises, with the appurtenances, to be and continue, and the same were, for and during all that time, ruinous, prostrate, foul and in bad and untenable repair, order and condition, for want of good and careful and necessary repairing, cleaning and amending thereof. And afterwards, to-wit, on the day and year first aforesaid, he the said defendant wrongfully and unjustly yielded and delivered up to the said plaintiff the said premises so ruinous, prostrate, broken down, foul and in bad and untenable repair, order and condition as aforesaid, contrary to his said promise and undertaking, to-wit, at, etc. (venue) aforesaid. 2 Carr Pl 311.

II. Proceedings in Equity.A. Bill To Restrain Waste.

Your orator A. B., of, etc. That your orator before and at the time of making the indenture hereinafter mentioned was seized in his demesne as of fee, of and in certain tenements, with the appurtenances, situate at L., in the county of N., hereinafter particularly described; and being so seized, by a certain indenture bearing date the ——— day of ———, in the year ———, and made between your orator of the one part, and C. D., of, etc. (the defendant hereinafter named) of the other part, your orator did demise, lease, set, and to farm let, unto the said C. D., his executors, administrators and assigns, all, etc.

To hold the same, with the appurtenances, unto the said C. D., his executors, administrators and assigns, from the _____ day of _____, then last past, for the term of _____ years thence next ensuing, at the yearly rent of $_____; and the said C. D. did thereby for himself, his executors, administrators and assigns, covenant, promise and agree with your orator, his heirs and assigns, that he the said C. D., his executors, administrators or assigns, would during the said term keep the said premises in good repair, and manage and cultivate said farm and lands in a proper husbandlike manner, according to the custom of the country as by the said indenture of lease, reference being thereunto had, will more fully appear. And your orator further sheweth unto your honors that the said C. D., under and by virtue of the said indenture, entered upon the said demised premises, with the appurtenances, and became, and was, possessed thereof for the said term, so to him granted thereof by your orator as aforesaid. And your orator further sheweth unto your honors that at the time the said C. D. entered upon the said premises, the same were in good repair and condition, and your orator hoped the said C. D. would so have kept the same, and have cultivated the said lands in a proper and husbandlike manner, according to the custom of the country, and that such part of the said premises as consisted of ancient meadow or pasture ground would have remained so, and not have been ploughed up, and converted into tillage; and that no waste would have been committed on the said premises. But now so it is, may it please your honors, the said C. D., combining, etc., pretends that the said premises now are in as good repair as when he entered in or to the same, and that he has cultivated the said farm and lands in a proper and husbandlike manner, and that no waste has been committed by him thereon.

Whereas your orator charges that the said premises and the buildings, out-houses, gates, stiles, rails and fences were in a good and perfect state and condition when the said C. D. entered upon the said premises, but now are very ruinous and bad, and the land very much deteriorated, from the wilful mismanagement and improper cultivation thereof by the said C. D., who has ploughed up certain fields called

_____, containing respectively _____ acres, and has otherwise committed great spoil, waste and destruction in, upon and about the said premises; and your orator further charges that the said C. D. ought to put the said premises into the same condition they were in when he entered thereon, and to make your orator a reasonable compensation for the waste and damage done or occurred thereto; and that the said C. D. ought to be restrained, by the order and injunction of this honorable court, from ploughing up the remaining pasture fields, part of the said demised premises, and particularly the fields called _____ and _____, and containing respectively _____ acres, which he threatens to do, and also restrained from committing any further or other waste, spoil or destruction in and about or to the said estate and premises, or any part thereof. All which actings, etc.

And that the said C. D. may be compelled by the decree of this honorable court to put the said premises into such repair and condition, in every respect, as far as circumstances will permit, as the same were in when he entered upon the same, under and by virtue of such demise as aforesaid; and may also be decreed to make a reasonable compensation to your orator for all waste done, committed or suffered by him on the said premises, and all damage occasioned thereby by his mismanagement or neglect (your orator hereby waiving all pains and penalties incurred by the said C. D. on account of committing waste on the said premises), and that he may be decreed to keep the said premises in good and sufficient repair and condition during the remainder of his interest therein, and to manage and cultivate the said farm and lands in a proper and husbandlike manner, according to the custom of the country, and that he may be likewise restrained, by the order and injunction of this honorable court, from ploughing up the said remaining pasture fields, forming part of the said demised premises, and particularly the said fields called _____ and _____, and from committing or permitting any further waste or spoil in, on, or to the said demised premises, or any part thereof. (And for general relief.) May it please, etc. (And by praying an injunction in the terms of the prayer, and by praying process of a subpoena.) 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2068.

B. Decree Awarding Injunction To Stay Felling Ornamental Timber and Other Waste.

This court doth order that an injunction be awarded to restrain the defendant D., her agents, servants and workmen, from cutting down any timber or other trees growing on the estate in the plaintiff's bill mentioned, which are planted or growing thereon for the protection or shelter of the several mansion houses belonging to the said estate, or for the ornament of the said houses, or which grow in lines, walks, vistas or otherwise, for the ornament of the said houses, or of the gardens or parks or pleasure grounds thereunto belonging. And it is further ordered that the injunction do also extend to restrain the defendant D., her servants, workmen and agents, from cutting down any timber or other trees, except at seasonable times, and in a husbandlike manner; and likewise from cutting down saplings and young trees, not fit to be cut as and for the purposes of timber; until, etc. 3 Dan. VI. Declaration for Damages for Diverting Stream.

The declaration alleged that the plaintiff, on the 17th day of October, 1851, was, and ever since had been, lawfully seized and possessed of a certain saw-mill, situated in the town of Glastenbury, near to a certain stream or water course there, and which said stream or water course, before and at the time of committing the grievances mentioned, had been accustomed to run and flow, and of right had run and flowed, and still of right ought to run and flow, in great abundance and plenty unto the said saw-mill of the plaintiff, for the supplying of the same with necessary water for the working thereof; yet that the defendant, well knowing the premises, on the 18th day of October, 1851, and on divers other days and times between that day and the commencement of the suit, wrongfully and unjustly diverted and turned large quantities of the water of said stream out of the same, and away from said mill, and hindered and prevented the water of the said stream from flowing along its usual course to said mill of the plaintiff, and from supplying the same with water for the necessary working thereof, as the same ought to have done and otherwise would have done; and that by reason thereof, the water of said stream, sufficient for the supplying of the said mill during that time, could not and did not flow to the same as the same ought to have done and otherwise would have done; and that the plaintiff, for want of such sufficient water, could not during that time use his said mill in so large, extensive and beneficial a manner as he ought to have done, and otherwise would have done, but was thereby, during all that time, deprived of the use and enjoyment of said mill, and of all profit which he otherwise might and would have made by the use of the same; to the damage of the plaintiff, etc. Wier & Covell, 29 Conn. 198.

VII. Complaint for Diverting Water From Plaintiff's Mill.

I. That at the times hereinafter mentioned, the plaintiff was lawfully possessed (or, if not in possession, the owner in fee) of a water-mill, called a grist-mill (or, saw-mill, or otherwise), situated upon _____ brook (naming the stream), at _____ (stating location definitely, or stating name of mill).

II. That the plaintiff then had a right to use and employ the water of said brook, and to have the same flow to and through his mill in a convenient and customary manner, according to the natural and usual flow of said brook, and without the hindrance of the defendant or any other person.

III. That on the _____ day of _____, 18____, and on various days between that time and the _____ day of _____, 18____, the defendant (knowing the premises, and intending to injure the plaintiff) wrongfully dug up and removed the banks of said brook above said mill, and for _____ days diverted the water (or, a part of the water) thereof from running to and through said mill (or, built a dam across said brook above said mill, and for _____ days stopped the water thereof from running to and through said mill).

IV. That, by reason of such acts of the defendant, the plaintiff's mill, which was able, and before was used to grind _____ bushels of wheat, &c., thereafter and during the time aforesaid could only grind _____ bushels, to the damage of the plaintiff _____ dollars. 1 Abb. Forms 472.

VIII. Complaint, Action To Restrain Destroying Water Supply for Irrigation by Mining Operations.

"Plaintiff avers, that he is a ranchman and cultivator of the soil; that on and on his said ranch a valuable garden and orchard; that there is a dwelling house and stable thereon, and was, a short time since, a good soring thereon, the water of which was used for drinking and culinary purposes; that he has also in said ranch a dam, used for the purpose of collecting water; that there is also upon said ranch a ditch connected with said dam, and which is supplied with water from said dam; that said dam and ditch are used by plaintiff to collect and supply water for irrigating the trees and vegetables on said ranch; that said garden and vegetables and trees growing thereon, would be entirely useless and worthless without said water, and that said water could not be obtained or supplied without said dam and ditch.

"Plaintiff avers that he now has, and has had for some time past, a great many vegetables and trees growing in said garden.

"Plaintiff further avers, that a short time since, and while plaintiff was the owner of said land as aforesaid, the defendants commenced mining operations upon the ravine and hillside above the land aforesaid, south of and about one hundred yards from said garden; that said mining is carried on by the process known as sluicing, and by means of using large quantities of water that said defendants by mining and using large quantities of water as aforesaid, have flooded plaintiff's premises aforesaid, injuring and filling up the dam aforesaid, so that it is worthless, cutting and injuring the ditch aforesaid, cutting and injuring the garden aforesaid, so as to destroy the vegetables and injure and damage the trees thereon.

"And plaintiff further avers, that said defendants, by their acts aforesaid, have injured and destroyed said spring, and have rendered the same entirely worthless and useless to plaintiff.

"Plaintiff charges that the acts of defendants are unlawful, and if they are permitted to continue their acts aforesaid, great and irreparable injury will be done him. That they have already by their acts aforesaid, done him injury and damage in the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars.

"Plaintiff further charges, according to his information and belief, that said defendants have no property or visible means from which an execution could be satisfied in case of the rendition of a judgment against them in favor of plaintiff for the injuries done and threatened aforesaid.

"Wherefore, plaintiff sues and prays judgment for said sum of one hundred and fifty dollars damages, and costs of suit. And he further prays that a temporary injunction be issued against the defendants, enjoining them from in any manner flowing water upon said land and premises, or any part thereof, and that upon final hearing said injunction be made perpetual." Levaroni v. Miller, 34 Cal. 231.

IX. Complaint, Action for Damages for Interfering With Floating Logs.

"For that the plaintiffs, on the first day of May, A. D. 1861, and on each and every day between said first day of May and the day of the date of this writ (October 22, 1861), owned and possessed a large quantity, to-wit: five million feet, board measure, of pine, spruce and hemlock board-logs and timber, which said logs and timber they had, on and between said days, deposited in and upon the Androscoggin River, at Milan, in the county of Coos, and State of New Hampshire, for the purpose of being floated and driven in and upon and down said river to the steam sawmills of the plaintiffs, situated on the banks of said river, in said Bethel; and the plaintiffs aver that the said Androscoggin River, from its rise to its mouth, to-wit, from the place where said logs and timber were deposited, in said Milan, to the said mills in said Bethel, on said first day of May was, ever since has been, and now is, a public highway for all persons to go upon and navigate with their boats and rafts of timber, and over and upon and down which to drive and float their logs, timber and lumber, at their free will and pleasure, and without any let or hindrance whatsoever. Yet the defendants, well knowing the premises, while the plaintiffs so owned and possessed said logs and timber, to-wit, on said first day of May, and on divers other days and times, between said first day of May and the day of the date of this writ, and while said logs and timber were so landed and deposited in said river for the purpose aforesaid, did, by themselves, their agents and servants, unlawfully, unjustly and wrongfully keep and detain said logs and timber, at said Milan, by means of a certain boom then and there constructed and built in the said river, by the said defendants, whereby the free navigation of said river was obstructed. And the plaintiffs aver, that the defendants thereby, by means of said boom, then and there so obstructed the said river, at said Milan, as to render said river impassable and unnavigable, and unfit for the public to pass over and upon said river, with their boats and rafts of timber, and unfit and inconvenient to float logs and timber upon and down the same. And the plaintiffs further aver that, by reason of the aforementioned obstruction, their logs and timber were detained and kept back until after the rise of water in the said river had become unfit and unsuitable to float their said logs and timber, to such an extent, that they, the plaintiffs, were compelled to abandon a great portion of their said logs and timber, to-wit, one million feet board measure, between said place of deposit, in said Milan, and their said mills, in said Bethel. And the plaintiffs further declare and allege, that they were put to a great expense, to-wit, an expense of one dollar for each and every thousand feet board measure, by reason of their detention at said Milan, caused by said boom, built by the defendants as aforesaid, in driving their said logs from said place of deposit thereof, in Milan, to their said mills, in said Bethel, over and above what they would have been to and at had not said boom been built. Whereby, and by force of the statute in such case made and provided, an action hath accrued to the plaintiffs to have and recover the damage by them sustained in this behalf, and for which this action is brought." Davis v. Winslow, 51 Me. 264.

A. Declaration, Common Counts for Work, Labor and Materials, With Money Counts.

For that whereas the said defendant heretofore, to-wit, on the _____ day of _____, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and _____, at _____, to-wit, at the (city, and in the) county of _____, aforesaid, was indebted to the said plaintiff, in the sum of _____ dollars, lawful money of the United States of America, for the work and labor, care and diligence of the said plaintiff, by the said plaintiff, before that time done, performed, and bestowed in and about the business of the said defendant, and for the said defendant, and at his special instance and request. (Same count for materials.) And also for divers materials, and other necessary things, by the said plaintiff, before that time, found and provided, and used and applied in and about that work and labor, for the said defendant, and at his like special instance and request. And being so indebted to the said plaintiff, the said defendant, in consideration thereof, afterwards, to-wit, on the same day and year (last aforesaid), and at the place aforesaid, undertook, and then and there faithfully promised the said plaintiff, well and truly to pay unto the said plaintiff, the said sum of money last mentioned, when the said defendant should be thereunto afterwards requested. (Quantum meruit for the same.) And whereas also, afterwards, to-wit, on the same day and year (last aforesaid), and at the place aforesaid, in consideration that the said plaintiff had, before that time, at the like special instance and request of the said defendant, done, performed and bestowed divers other work and labor, care and diligence, in and about the business of the said defendant, and for the said defendant, and had, before that time, found, provided, used and applied divers other materials, and other necessary things, in and about that business, the said defendant undertook, and then and there faithfully promised the said plaintiff, that he, the said defendant, would well and truly pay to the said plaintiff so much money as the said plaintiff reasonably deserved to have of the said defendant, for the same, when he, the said defendant, should be thereunto afterwards requested. And the said plaintiff avers, that he reasonably deserved to have of the said defendant for the same, the further sum of _____ dollars, of like lawful money as aforesaid, to-wit, at the place aforesaid: Whereof the said defendant afterwards, to-wit, on the same day and year (last aforesaid), and at the place aforesaid, had notice.

And whereas also, the said defendant afterwards, to-wit, on the same day and year last aforesaid, and at the place aforesaid, was indebted to the said plaintiff in the sum of _____ dollars, like lawful money, as aforesaid, for so much money, before that time lent and advanced by the said plaintiff to the said defendant, and at the special instance and request of the said defendant. And being so indebted, the said defendant, in consideration thereof, afterwards, to-wit, on the same day and year (last) aforesaid, and at the place aforesaid, undertook, and then and there faithfully promised the said plaintiff well and truly to pay unto the said plaintiff the said sum of money last above mentioned, when the said defendant should be thereunto afterwards requested.

And whereas also, the said defendant afterwards, to-wit, on the same day and year last aforesaid, and at the place aforesaid, was indebted to the said plaintiff, in the further sum of _____ dollars, of like lawful money as aforesaid, for so much money before that time, paid, laid out, and expended by the said plaintiff, to and for the use of the said defendant and at the like special instance and request of the said defendant. And being so indebted the said defendant, in consideration thereof, afterwards, to-wit, on the same day and year (last) aforesaid, and at the place aforesaid, undertook, and then and there faithfully promised the said plaintiff, well and truly to pay unto the said plaintiff, the said sum of money last above mentioned when the said defendant should be thereunto afterwards requested.

And whereas also, the said defendant afterwards, to-wit, on the same day and year last aforesaid, and at the place aforesaid, was indebted to the said plaintiff in the further sum of (one thousand) dollars, of like lawful money as aforesaid, for so much money, before that time, had and received by the said defendant, to and for the use of the said plaintiff. And being so indebted, the said defendant, in consideration thereof, afterwards, to-wit, on the same day and year (last) aforesaid, and at the place aforesaid, undertook, and then and there faithfully promised the said plaintiff, well and truly to pay unto the said plaintiff, the said sum of money last above mentioned, when the said defendant should be thereunto afterwards requested.

And whereas also, the said defendant afterwards, to-wit, on the same day and year last aforesaid, and at the place aforesaid, accounted together with the said plaintiff of and concerning divers other sums of money, before that time due and owing from the said defendant to the said plaintiff, and then and there being in arrear and unpaid; and upon such accounting, the said defendant then and there was found to be in arrear, and indebted to the said plaintiff in the further sum of _____ dollars, of like lawful money, as aforesaid. And being so found in arrear, and indebted to the said plaintiff, the said defendant, in consideration thereof, afterwards, to-wit, on the same day and year (last) aforesaid, and at the place aforesaid, undertook, and then and there faithfully promised the said plaintiff well and truly to pay unto the said plaintiff, the said sum of money last above mentioned when he, the said defendant, should be there unto afterwards requested.

Nevertheless the said defendant (although often afterwards requested so to do), hath not as yet paid the said several sums of money above mentioned, or any, or either of them, or any part thereof to the said plaintiff; but to pay the same, or any part thereof to the said plaintiff, the said defendant hath hitherto altogether refused, and still doth refuse.
